So You Want To Be Prime Minister:

So You Want to Be a Leader Philip Crisp, 2018-11-01 We ask much of our leaders and blame them for any failure to order the world to our liking Yet many of us are reluctant to engage preferring to disparage leaders as a class apart a quarrelsome lot and overpaid to boot the useful butt of barbecue humour Will we engage better with the next generation of leaders Will they conduct a kinder gentler national conversation In this book 36 Australian voices both early achievers and the venerable from across the political and social landscape offer fresh ideas and timeless wisdom for people entering public life Whether you are a budding politician advisor lobbyist advocate local councillor NGO leader social activist blogger philanthropist sporting administrator or the representative of an industry the arts a profession or a trade you are in public life This book will deepen your understanding of what you must know do say and be to succeed Philip Crisp has done us all an enormous favour by assembling not only a first class and diverse group of leaders but ones who are willing to be frank confronting and not merely offering the usual leadership platitudes Simon McKeon AO Australian of the Year 2011 a must read for any aspiring leader a treasure trove of invaluable insights into effective leadership Laurie Wilson President National Press Club a most timely and comprehensive analysis of leadership and the making of good leaders Compulsory reading Anne Henderson AM political historian

So You Want to be a Political Journalist Sheila Gunn, 2012-04-08 In the wake of 2010 s historic general election politics commands more column inches and air time than ever before Yet most political journalists failed to foresee the consequences of a coalition government And they are still struggling to understand and reflect the new political environment in their coverage While there is plenty of debate about the current state of politics and journalism aspiring political reporters receive little guidance Are unscrupulous spin doctors simply spoon feeding them stories Do they push their own politically biased agendas This book aims to focus on helping to produce competent and confident journalists who report on politics without fear or favour With chapters on starting out in the trade where to find the story how to report it and how to deal with the political classes this book is the essential guide for journalism students trainee journalists and journalists looking to understand the mechanisms of Westminster and Whitehall Edited by Sheila Gunn who was a political reporter on The Times and spin doctor to John Major So You Want To Be A Political Journalist features contributions from a wide range of current and former political journalists from print broadcast and on line media An essential resource for journalism students and the perfect refresher for seasoned reporters Author lectures on political journalism on City University s prestigious journalism course The National Council for the Training of Journalists NCTJ recognizes 63 journalism courses at colleges around Britain In addition there are hundreds of further colleges and organisations running media studies courses
