So Young to Die: The Story of Hannah Senesh , So Young to Die Candice F. Ransom,1993 Recounts the brief life of the courageous Hannah Senesh a young woman executed by the Nazis in 1944 for her role in an Allied mission to rescue Allied pilots and Jews Original So Young to Die Candice F. Ransom,1993 Biography of Hannah Senesh who was executed by the Nazis at the age of twenty three for her role in a top secret allied mission during World War II Women Engaged in War in Literature for Youth Hilary S. Crew,2007 Women at War portrays books and other resources that feature girls young women and adult women actively involved in various ways in battles wars and war time activities including their roles as nurses doctors spies soldiers correspondents photographers as well as their roles on the home front Fiction picture books nonfiction biographies autobiographies collective biographies oral narratives reference books journal and periodical articles and non print and electronic resources are included Teachers and librarians will find this to be an excellent curriculum planning resource Unearthing Churchill's Secret Army Martin Mace,2012-12-19 The Special Operations Executive was one of the most secretive organizations of the Second World War its activities cloaked in mystery and intrigue The fate therefore of many of its agents was not revealed to the general public other than the bare details carved with pride upon the headstones and memorials of those courageous individuals Then in 2003 the first batch of SOE personal files was released by the National Archive Over the course of the following years more and more files were made available Now at last it is possible to tell the stories of all those agents that died in action These are stories of bravery and betrayal incompetence and misfortune of brutal torture and ultimately death Some died when their parachutes failed to open others swallowed their cyanide capsules rather than fall into the hands of the Gestapo many died in combat with the enemy most though were executed by hanging by shooting and even by lethal injection The bodies of many of the lost agents were never found destroyed in the crematoria of such places as Buckenwald Mauthausen and Natzweiler others were buried where they fell All of them should be remembered as having undertaken missions behind enemy lines in the knowledge that they might never return Hannah Senesh Hannah Senesh,2011-02-03 Hero Martyr Poet The inspiring story of a remarkable life cut short I don t think Hannah wanted to die for the sake of having her memory exalted in history or to prove herself equal to a romantic image she conceived for herself Her purpose wasn t to die She died for her life s purpose U S Senator John McCain in Why Courage Matters Hannah Senesh poet and Israel s national heroine has come to be seen as a symbol of Jewish heroism Safe in Palestine during World War II she volunteered for a mission to help rescue fellow Jews in her native Hungary She was captured by the Nazis endured imprisonment and torture and was finally executed at the age of twenty three Like Anne Frank she kept a diary from the time she was thirteen This new edition brings together not only the widely read and cherished diary but many of Hannah s poems and letters memoirs written by Hannah s mother accounts by parachutists who accompanied Hannah on her fateful mission and insightful material not previously published in English Described by a fellow

parachutist as a spiritual girl guided almost by mysticism Hannah's life has something of value to teach everyone Now the subject of a feature length documentary Blessed Is the Match The Life and Death of Hannah Senesh Hannah's words and actions will inspire people from each generation to follow their own inner voices just as she followed hers

Representing Childhood and Atrocity Victoria Nesfield, Philip Smith, 2022-12-01 Atrocity presents a problem to the writer of children's literature To represent events of such terrible magnitude and impersonal will as the Holocaust the transatlantic slave trade or the Rwandan genocide such that they fit into a three act structure with a comprehensible moral and a happy ending is to do a disservice to the victims Yet to confront children with the fact of widescale violence without resolution is to confront them with realities that may be emotionally disturbing and even damaging Despite these challenges however there exists a considerable body of work for and about children that addresses atrocity To examine the ways in which writers and artists have attempted to address children's experience of atrocity this collection brings together original essays by an international group of scholars working in the fields of child studies children's literature comics studies education English literature and Holocaust genocide and memory studies It covers a broad geographical range and includes works by established authors and emerging voices
