

SOCIOLOGY VS ANTHROPOLOGY

SOCIOLOGY

Sociology is the scientific study of human society, social relationships, and the patterns of social behavior. It examines how individuals and groups interact, the formation of social institutions, and the influence of social structures on people's lives. Sociology aims to understand issues of inequality, power, culture, and social change.

ANTHROPOLOGY

Anthropology is the study of humans, past and present, in their cultural, social, and biological contexts. It seeks to understand the diversity of human cultures, beliefs, practices, and behavior across time and space. Anthropologists employ methods such as participant observation, ethnography, and archaeology to explore human cultures.

Social Anthropology And Law:

Anthropology and Law Mark Goodale, Sally Engle Merry, 2017-05-02 An introduction to the anthropology of law that explores the connections between law politics and technology From legal responsibility for genocide to rectifying past injuries to indigenous people the anthropology of law addresses some of the crucial ethical issues of our day Over the past twenty five years anthropologists have studied how new forms of law have reshaped important questions of citizenship biotechnology and rights movements among many others Meanwhile the rise of international law and transitional justice has posed new ethical and intellectual challenges to anthropologists Anthropology and Law provides a comprehensive overview of the anthropology of law in the post Cold War era Mark Goodale introduces the central problems of the field and builds on the legacy of its intellectual history while a foreword by Sally Engle Merry highlights the challenges of using the law to seek justice on an international scale The book s chapters cover a range of intersecting areas including language and law history regulation indigenous rights and gender For a complete understanding of the consequential ways in which anthropologists have studied interacted with and critiqued the ways and means of law Anthropology and Law is required reading Social Anthropology and Law Ian Hamnett, 1977 Anthropology & Law James M. Donovan, H. Edwin Anderson, 2003 Legal practice renders a further important benefit to anthropology when it validates anthropological knowledge through the use of anthropologists as expert witnesses in the courtroom and the introduction of the culture defense against criminal charges Jacket Anthropology and Law James M. Donovan, H. Edwin Anderson, 2005-12 The relationship between Law and Anthropology can be considered as having been particularly intimate In this book the authors defend their assertion that the two fields co exist in a condition of balanced reciprocity wherein each makes important contributions to the successful practice and theory of the other Anthropology for example offers a cross culturally validated generic concept of law and clarifies other important legal concepts such as religion and human rights Law similarly illuminates key anthropological ideas such as the social contract and provides a uniquely valuable access point for the analysis of sociocultural systems Legal practice renders a further important benefit to anthropology when it validates anthropological knowledge through the use of anthropologists as expert witnesses in the courtroom and the introduction of the culture defense against criminal charges Although the actual relationship between anthropology and law today falls short of this idealized state of balanced reciprocity the authors include historical and other data suggesting that that level of intimate cooperation draws ever closer History and Power in the Study of Law June Starr, Jane Fishburne Collier, 1989 A conference called Ethno historical Models and the Evolution of Law was held in Milan and at Bellagio Lake Como Italy from August 10 to August 18 1985 The Wenner Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research and the Rockefeller Foundation provided funding The conference was organized by June Starr of the Department of Anthropology State University of New York at Stony Brook and Jane F Collier of the Department of Anthropology Stanford University The goal was to compare case studies of legal change in particular societies using historical frameworks in order to search for shared questions and methodologies to direct future research The twenty anthropologists sociologists and law professors from North America and Europe who attended devoted five half days to discussing seventeen previously circulated papers and four half days to a general consideration of conference issues In their discussions participants focused on the models they were using to analyze the development change decay integration and articulation of legal systems within specific social units Professors Elizabeth Colson and William Twining served as commentators Jessica Kuper was editorial adviser and Longina Jakubowska and Richard Maddox were rapporteurs
