Rossman,Kim Muchnick,Nicole Benak,2015-05-21 Knowledge is power Simply stated Managing the Graduate School Experience From Acceptance to Graduation and Beyond provides graduate students with power as it helps them to understand and complete a graduate degree regardless of how the degree is offered online or on campus It also encourages them to take control of the graduate school process as much as possible and negotiate with faculty and the administration regarding all aspects of the program Some additional key features of this book include Experienced faculty members who have served on more than 400 graduate committees have chaired more than 100 doctoral dissertations and eighty master s theses and have instructed thousands of learners on their journey to earning their degree Reflections of more than fifty cumulative years of graduate school experience A non technical no jargon easy to read style Succinct and to the point A Student centered approach that has helped hundreds of graduate students complete graduate degrees

Constructing Rhetorical Education Davida Charney, Wilma R. Ebbitt, 1992 In nineteen essays illustrating its many aspects this book offers an argument for what it takes to construct a complete rhetorical education The editors take an approach that is pragmatic and pluralistic based as it is on the assumptions that a rhetorical education is not limited to teaching freshman composition or any specific writing course and that the contexts in which such an education occurs are not limited to classrooms This thought provoking volume stresses that while a rhetorical education results in the growth of writing skills its larger goal is to foster critical thinking
