Subsidizing Industrial Location A Conceptual Framework With Application To Korea:

Subsidizing Industrial Location Michael P. Murray, 1988 How can policymakers in developing countries best induce firms to locate at particular sites To glean answers to this question the author develops the first rigorous conceptual framework for analyzing the economic efficiency of alternative policies to influence firms choices of location The framework is rooted in a theory of optimal subsidies and relies on econometric and simulation models of firms costs The econometric model is estimated with data from a census of manufacturing and from a recent comprehensive World Bank study of industrial location policies both made in the Republic of Korea These estimates serve as the basis for a simulation model that is used to examine the various subsidies that constitute location policies The simulation model is used with the Korean data to analyze these subsidies which include loan guarantees reductions in land prices public investments such as better roads and tax breaks The simulations allow the author to evaluate the benefits and costs of the subsidies and to discuss their relative efficiencies Ibss: Political Science: 1988 British Library of Political and Economic Science, 1992 This bibliography lists the most important works in political science published in 1988 The World Bank Research Observer, 2007 production technology and total factor productivity macroeconomic perspectives conglomeration business concentration and management practices income distribution and labor issues and urban and regional policies Throughout the book the role of the government in the development process and the dominance of large businesses in the economic sphere are analyzed extensively In seeking to trace the relationships among various economic factors and to provide some insight into the process of economic development this volume marshalls a considerable array of statistics and institutional descriptions as a background for analysis This book will be welcomed by those studying economic development in general and the East Asian economy in particular as well as by those currently engaged in dealing with Korea World Bank Publications Update World Bank,1987 The Korean Crisis □□□,2000 The American Economic Review ,1988 Includes annual List of doctoral dissertations in political economy in progress in American universities and colleges and the Hand book of the American Economic Association Journal of Economic Literature ,1989 The Journal of Energy and Development ,1990 The Journal of Developing Areas ,1988 Materials on Asia, accession list and review ,1992 Cities and Their Vital Systems Advisory Committee on Technology and Society,1989 Cities and Their Vital Systems asks basic questions about the longevity utility and nature of urban infrastructures analyzes how they grow interact and change and asks how when and at what cost they should be replaced Among the topics discussed are problems arising from increasing air travel and airport congestion the adequacy of water supplies and waste treatment the impact of new technologies on construction urban real estate values and the field of telematics the combination of computers and telecommunications that makes money machines and national newspapers possible Environment & Planning A. ,1991 The World Bank Research Observer ,2008 Journal of Housing Economics ,2001 Books in Print of the United Nations System United Nations.
