Types of the Folktale in the Arab World Hasan M. El-Shamy, 2004 The only demographically oriented tale type index for folktales of the Arab world

South from Hell-fer-Sartin Leonard W. Roberts, 2021-11-21 South from Hell fer Sartin a short creek flowing into the Middle Fork of the Kentucky River lies one of the of the most isolated regions in Kentucky There on the north slope of the Pine Mountain range in Leslie and Perry counties probably the last stronghold of white English language folk tales in North America Leonard W Roberts recorded this rich collection more than three decades ago To a people who at that time watched dancing hearth fires more often than television the adventures of Jack in the land of witches and giants monsters and beautiful princesses provided first class entertainment Here are such old favorites as Sleeping Beauty and The Golden Arm retold in the idiom of the Kentucky mountains Here are hauntingly beautiful cantes fables and earthy Irishman jokes Here are encounters with Indians and marvelous hunting escapades Roberts introduces his collection first published in 1955 with a sympathetic description of the mountain way of life He notes especially the bewildering and rapid changes that came to the Pine Mountain watershed in that decade as the highways and electric lines at last brought in a sophistication that preferred the soap opera to the folk tale. Although the stories Roberts recorded were still a firm part of folk tradition at the time he believed that within a decade or two they would be forgotten—a prediction sadly by now no doubt fulfilled. Any lover of the vanishing art of tale telling will relish this rich treasury of folklore and humor. Full notes on sources, types, motifs, parallels, and possible origins of the tales make this collection valuable also for folklorists. Munsey's Weekly, 1923.
