Subterranean Cities The World Beneath Paris And London 1800 1945:

Subterranean Cities David Lawrence Pike, 2005 New life underground Modern necropolis Charon's bark Urban apocalypse London's Underground Spaces Haewon Hwang, 2016-07-31 This study explores how writers such as Charles Dickens George Gissing Bram Stoker and Mary Elizabeth Braddon negotiated the dirt and messiness of underground spaces and how in spite of the transformation of London through underground sewers underground London Underground David Ashford, 2013-05-10 Surveying an unusually wide variety of material ranging from the Victorian triple decker novel to Modernist art and architecture to Pop music and graffiti this book suggests that the tube network is a transitional form linking the alienated spaces of Victorian England to the virtual spaces of our contemporary consumer capitalism The Art of Spatial Illusion Richard Koeck, 2024-12-16 Contemporary art entertainment and architecture cultures offer a growing amount of digitally mediated spatial experiences situated either in the metaverse e.g. VR or location based in physical realms e.g. AR increasingly powered by generative systems e.g. AI Are such spatially immersive experiences a new phenomenon and dependent on digital innovation The Art of Spatial Illusion Immersive Encounters between People Media and Place is an insightful exploration of the evolving relationship between humans media and spatial environments tracing their progression from the Renaissance via Modernity and Postmodernity to today's digital age The author offers a compelling reading and re-evaluation of architectural history and media theory drawing connections between historical practices technological innovations and contemporary immersive experiences Inspired by scholars such as Walter Benjamin and Jean Baudrillard the book discusses how technological advancements have transformed our situatedness in image spaces highlighting the shift from material authenticity to digital reproductions The book is structured into four parts The Surface The Stage The Interface and The Hybrid each exploring different aspects of spatial illusions and their implications It offers a critical perspective on the creation of architectural immersive environments examining the motivations behind them and their broader cultural and political contexts Richly illustrated and deeply researched The Art of Spatial Illusion is an essential reading for anyone interested in architecture and art as well as media archaeology history and theory Seeing new thought provoking architectural propositions emerging on our horizon the author provides a comprehensive understanding of how immersive experiences shape our perception of reality Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons CC BY 4.0 license Studies in the Victorian and Neo-Victorian Novel Adrian Radu, 2024-02-29 Readers of the nineteenth century novel expected literature to be a form journalism and fictional history They wanted to read about easily identifiable situations with a chronological straightforward and easily discernible development of plot familiar backgrounds and credible characters About a hundred years later the Victorian novel became the great tradition omnipresent and reliable However today the age and the context are different and novels need more substance including such themes as memory race and empire sex and science spectrality and the heritage industry or key issues like gender sexuality and postmodernism All these elements are considered Neo Victorian which in spite of their novelty do point to a certain Victorian anchor This volume contains ten studies the substance of which is the analysis of novels that according to their date of publication are products of the Victorian and Neo Victorian periods as defined above The authors investigate and discuss Victorian roots and characteristics preserved or recycled Victorian themes Neo Victorian characters and motifs or any other characteristics that may label them as Victorian or Neo Victorian products

Empires of Antiquities Billie Melman,2020 Empires of Antiquities is a history of the rediscovery of the imperial civilizations of the ancient Near East in a modern imperial order that evolved between the outbreak of the First World War and the decolonization of the British Empire in the 1950s It explores the ways in which near eastern antiquity was redefined and experienced becoming the subject of imperial regulation modes of enquiry and international and national politics Billie Melman follows a series of globally publicized spectacular archaeological discoveries in Iraq Egypt and Palestine which made antiquity material visible and accessible as never before She demonstrates that the new definition and uses of antiquity and their relations to modernity were inseparable from the emergence of the post war international imperial order transnational collaboration and crises the aspirations of national groups and collisions between them and the British mandates This study uniquely combines a history of the internationalization of archaeology and the rise of a new regime of antiquities under the oversight of the League of Nations and its institutions a history of British attitudes to and passion for near eastern antiquity and on the ground colonial policies and mechanisms as well as nationalist claims on the past It points at the centrality of the new mandate system Drawing on an unusually wide range of materials collected in archives in six countries as well as on material and visual evidence this volume weaves together imperial international and national histories and the history of archaeological discovery which it connects to imperial modernity

Legacies of the Rue Morgue Andrea Goulet,2016 Prologue Poe 1 Introduction Mapping murder Archaeologies Quarries and catacombs underground crime in Second Empire Romans feuilletons Skulls and bones paleohistory in Leroux and Leblanc Crypts and ghosts terrains of national trauma in Japrisot and Vargas Intersections Street name mysteries and private public violence 1867 2001 Cartographies Terrains vagues Gaboriau and the birth of the cartographic mystery Mapping the city Malet s mysteries and Butor s Bleston Z ropa land Balkanization and the schizocartographies of Dantec and Radoman Trains, Culture, and Mobility Benjamin Fraser,Steven D. Spalding,2012-01-01 Trains Culture and Mobility Riding the Rails goes beyond textual representations of rail travel to engage an impressive range of political sociological and urban theory Taken together these essays highlight the complexity of the modern experience of train mobility and its salient relation to a number of cultural discourses Incorporating traditionally marginal areas of cultural production such as graffiti museums architecture or even plunging into the social experience of travel inside the traincar itself each essay constitutes an attempt to work from the act of riding the train toward questions of much larger significance Crisscrossing cultures from the New World and Old from

East and West these essays share a common preoccupation with the way in which trains and railway networks have mapped and re mapped the contours of both cities and states in the modern period Bringing together individual and large scale social practices this volume traces out the cultural implications of Riding the Rails Evil, Barbarism and Empire T. Crook,R. Gill,B. Taithe,2011-07-25 Evil and barbarism continue to be associated with the totalitarian extremes of twentieth century Europe Addressing domestic and imperial conflicts in modern Britain and beyond as well as varied forms of representation this volume explores the inter relations of evil atrocity and civilizational prejudice within liberal cultures of governance

Making Space in the Works of James Joyce Valerie Benejam,John Bishop,2012-05-23 James Joyce s preoccupation with space be it urban geographic stellar geometrical or optical is a central and idiosyncratic feature of his work In Making Space in the Works of James Joyce some of the most esteemed scholars in Joyce studies have come together to evaluate the perception and mental construction of space as it is evoked through Joyce s writing The aim is to bring together several recent trends of literary research and criticism to bear on the notion of space in its most concrete sense The essays move dialectically out of an immediate focus on the phenomenological and intra psychic into broader and wider meditations on the social urban and collective As Joyce s formal experiments appear the response to the difficulty of enunciating truly the experience of lived space this eventually leads us to textual and linguistic space The final contribution evokes the space with which Joyce worked daily that of his manuscripts or what he called paperspace With essays addressing all of Joyce s major works this volume is a critical contribution to our understanding of modernism as well as of the relationship between space language and literature Rewriting 'Les Mystères de Paris' Amy Wigelsworth,2016-05-26 Key works of popular fiction are often rewritten to capitalize on their success But what are the implications of this rewriting process Such is the question addressed by this detailed study of several rewritings of Eugène Sue s Mystères de Paris 1842-43 produced in the latter half of the nineteenth century in response to the phenomenal success of Sue s archetypal urban mystery Pursuing a compelling analogy between city and text and exploring the resonance of the palimpsest trope to both Amy Wigelsworth argues that the mystères urbains are exemplary rewritings which shed new light on contemporary reading and writing practices and emerge as early avatars of a genre still widely consumed and enjoyed in the 21st century Cold War Space and Culture in the 1960s and 1980s David L. Pike,2021 Cold War Space and Culture in the 1960s and 1980s The Bunkered Decades studies the two periods in which Americans were actively encouraged to excavate their own backyards while governments the world over exhausted their budgets on fortified super shelters and megaton bombs The dreams and nightmares inspired by the spectre of nuclear destruction were expressed in images and forms from comics movies and pulp paperbacks to policy documents protest movements and survivalist tracts Illustrated with photographs artwork and movie and television stills of real and imagined fallout shelters and other bunker fantasies award winning author David L Pike s continues his decades long exploration of the meanings of modern undergrounds Ranging widely across disciplines this volume finds unexpected connections between cultural icons and forgotten texts plumbs the bunker's stratifications of class region race and gender and traces the often unrecognized through lines leading from the 1960s and the less studied 1980s into the present Although the Cold War ended over 30 years ago its legacy looms large in anxieties around security borders and all manners of imminent apocalypse Treating the bunker in its concrete presence and in its flightiest fantasies while attending equally to its uniquely American desires and pathologies and to its global impact Cold War Space and Culture in the 1960s and 1980s proposes a new way to understand the outsized afterlife of the bunkered decades

The Palgrave Handbook of Steam Age Gothic Clive Bloom, 2021-02-03 By the early 1830s the old school of Gothic literature was exhausted Late Romanticism emphasising as it did the uncertainties of personality and imagination gave it a new lease of life Gothic the literature of disturbance and uncertainty now produced works that reflected domestic fears sexual crimes drug filled hallucinations the terrible secrets of middle class marriage imperial horror at alien invasion occult demonism and the insanity of psychopaths It was from the 1830s onwards that the old gothic castle gave way to the country house drawing room the dungeon was displaced by the sewers of the city and the villains of early novels became the familiar figures of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Dracula Dorian Grey and Jack the Ripper After the death of Prince Albert 1861 the Gothic became darker more morbid obsessed with demonic lovers blood sucking ghouls blood stained murderers and deranged doctors Whilst the gothic architecture of the Houses of Parliament and the new Puginesque churches upheld a Victorian ideal of sobriety Christianity and imperial destiny Gothic literature filled these new spaces with a dread that spread like a plague to America France Germany and even Russia From 1830 to 1914 the period covered by this volume we saw the emergence of the greats of Gothic literature and the supernatural from Edgar Allan Poe to Emily Bronte from Sheridan Le Fanu to Bram Stoker and Robert Louis Stevenson Contributors also examine the fin de siècle dreamers of decadence such as Arthur Machen M P Shiel and Vernon Lee and their obsession with the occult folklore spiritualism revenants ghostly apparitions and cosmic annihilation This volume explores the period through the prism of architectural history urban studies feminism hauntology and much more Horror as Poe teaches us is the soul of the plot

The Literature of Hell Margaret Kean, 2021 Essays considering the representation and perception of hell in a variety of texts Narratives of a descent to the underworld of the sights to be seen and the punishments meted out there have kept a hold on the popular imagination for millennia The legacy from doctrinal warnings and the deep set literary markers that identify a place of suffering and alienation continue to stimulate creative exchange and critical thinking Such work takes risks it braves the dark and questions the past The contributions in this volume reflect on the exigency of hell in the stories that we tell They consider the transfer and repurposing of motifs across genres and generational divides and acknowledge the sustained immediacy of physical and psychological landscapes of hell The essays span a wide chronological range and apply various contemporary critical approaches including cognitive science performance studies and narratology This cross period analysis is complemented by interviews with three creative practitioners Jeya Ayadurai director of Hell's Museum in Singapore the actor Lisa Dwan who is acclaimed for her dramatisation of Samuel Beckett's late works and the writer David Almond From ancient myth and early English sermons to mid twentieth century surrealism and current responses to terrorist activities and environmental damage the literature of hell engages with issues of immediate relevance and asks its audiences to reflect on their cultural history the meaning of social justice and the nature of embodied existence

Going Astray Jeremy Tambling, 2018-10-08 Among the numerous books on Dickens's London Going Astray is unique in combining detailed topography and biography with close textual analysis and theoretically informed critiques of most of the novelists major works In Jeremy Tambling's intriguing and illuminating synthesis the London A-Z meets Nietzsche Benjamin and Derrida Rick Allen author of The Moving Pageant A Literary Sourcebook on London Street Life 1700-1914 Dickens wrote so insistently about London its streets its people its unknown areas that certain parts of the city are forever haunted by him Going Astray Dickens and London looks at the novelists delight in losing the self in the labyrinthine city and maps that interest onto the compulsion to go astray in writing Drawing on all Dickens published writings including the journalism but concentrating on the novels Jeremy Tambling considers the authors kaleidoscopic characterisations of London as prison and as legal centre as the heart of empire and of traumatic memory as the place of the uncanny as an old curiosity shop His study examines the relations between narrative and the city and explores how the metropolis encapsulates the problems of modernity for Dickens as well as suggesting the limits of representation Combining contemporary literary and cultural theory with historical maps photographs and contextual detail Jeremy Tambling's book is an indispensable guide to Dickens nineteenth century literature and the city itself

Popular Fiction and Spatiality Lisa Fletcher, 2016-10-31 This volume moves the debate about literature and geography in a new direction by showing the significance of spatial settings in the enormous and complex field of popular fiction Approaching popular genres as complicated systems of meaning the collected essays model key theoretical and critical approaches for interrogating the meaning of space and place across diverse genres including crime thrillers fantasy science fiction and romance Including topics such as classic English ghost stories blockbuster Antarctic thrillers prize winning Montreal crime fiction J.R.R. Tolkien's Middle-earth and China Miéville's Bas-Lag among others this book brings together analyses of the real and imagined settings of some of the most widely read authors and texts of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries to show how they have an immeasurable impact on our spatial awareness and imagination

Urban Undergrounds Patricia García, David Pike, 2025-05-20 Research in urban development in the social sciences has increasingly emphasized the importance of underground infrastructure for envisaging sustainable cities and for critiquing the economies of extraction Urban Undergrounds Contemporary Literary and Cultural Perspectives demonstrates the urgency of integrating a below-ground perspective into the emerging field of the Urban Humanities The collection is divided into three thematic sections that cluster and revisit different sets of well-known motifs in Underground Studies Displaced Buried and Wasted It showcases the intermedial nature of underground focused analyses in literature extending from literary texts to a wider range of cultural forms including films graphic novels and videogames The contributors build on recent scholarship that has expanded the field into new interdisciplinary areas including intersections with memory studies ecocriticism and decolonial perspectives Urban Undergrounds also explores lesser studied subterranean spaces including those of Warsaw Athens Mexico City Johannesburg and Santiago de Chile The book's substantial introduction offers a guiding theoretical and methodological framework for future scholars working with underground perspectives in literary and cultural studies This thought provoking and illuminating collection is a valuable resource for students and scholars in the areas of Literary Urban Studies

Underground Studies and Geocriticism and more broadly in the Urban Humanities and Spatial Humanities Narrative Space and Time Elana Gomel, 2014-02-18 Space is a central topic in cultural and narrative theory today although in most cases theory assumes Newtonian absolute space However the idea of a universal homogeneous space is now obsolete Black holes multiple dimensions quantum entanglement and spatio temporal distortions of relativity have passed into culture at large This book examines whether narrative can be used to represent these impossible spaces Impossible topologies abound in ancient mythologies from the Australian Aborigines dream time to the multiple layer universe of the Sumerians More recently from Alice's adventures in Wonderland to contemporary science fiction's obsession with black holes and quantum paradoxes counter intuitive spaces are a prominent feature of modern and postmodern narrative With the rise and popularization of science fiction the inventiveness and variety of impossible narrative spaces explodes The author analyses the narrative techniques used to represent such spaces alongside their cultural significance Each chapter connects narrative deformation of space with historical problematic of time and demonstrates the cognitive and perceptual primacy of narrative in representing imagining and apprehending new forms of space and time This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the connection between narratology cultural theory science fiction and studies of place The World in a Selfie Marco

D'Eramo, 2021-03-30 A spirited critique of the cultural politics of the tourist age Or why we are all tourists who hate tourists We've all been tourists at some point in our lives How is it we look so condescendingly at people taking selfies in front of the Tower of Pisa Is there really much to distinguish the package holiday from hipster city breaks to Berlin or Brooklyn Why do we engage our free time in an activity we profess to despise The World in a Selfie dissects a global cultural phenomenon For Marco D'Eramo tourism is not just the most important industry of the century generating huge waves of people and capital calling forth a dedicated infrastructure and upsetting and repurposing the architecture and topography of our cities It also encapsulates the problem of modernity the search for authenticity in a world of ersatz pleasures D'Eramo retraces the grand tours of the first globetrotters from Francis Bacon and Samuel Johnson to Arthur de Gobineau and Mark Twain before assessing the cultural meaning of the beach holiday and the UNESCO side of major heritage sites The tourist selfie will never look the same again 2005 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2009-12-22 Annually published since 1930 the International
