The Subversive Psyche Elia Geoffrey Kantaris,1995 This is an exciting and original study of the links between gender and politics in the work of six important contemporary women writers from Argentina and Uruguay Through subtle and theoretically sophisticated readings of texts written during and after the military dictatorships of the 1980s by Luisa Valenzuela Marta Traba Sylvia Molloy Reina Roffe Cristina Peri Rossi and Armonia Somers Geoffrey Jantar is shows how these writings signal a shift of cultural perspective in the Southern Cone in which gender is no longer ignored in the construction of national and political narratives Exile and Nomadism in French and Hispanic Women's Writing Kate

Averis,2017-07-05 Women in exile disrupt assumptions about exile belonging home and identity For many women exiles home represents less a place of belonging and more a point of departure and exile becomes a creative site of becoming rather than an unsettling state of errancy Exile may be a propitious circumstance for women to renegotiate identities far from the strictures of home appropriating a new freedom in mobility Through a feminist politics of place displacement and subjectivity this comparative study analyses the novels of key contemporary Francophone and Latin American writers Nancy Huston Linda Le Malika Mokeddem Cristina Peri Rossi Laura Restrepo and Cristina Siscar to identify a new nomadic subjectivity in the lives and works of transnational women today Modern Argentine Poetry Ben Bollig,2011-06-15 This book is the first to focus specifically on the exile poetry link in the case of Argentina since the 1950s Throughout Argentina's history authors and important political figures have lived and written in exile Thus exile is both a vital theme and a practical condition for Argentine letters yet conversely contemporary Argentina is a nation of immigrants from Europe and the rest of Latin America Poetry is often perceived as the least directly political of genres yet political and other forms of exile have impinged equally on the lives of poets as on any group This study concentrates on writers who both regarded themselves as in some way exiled and who wrote about exile This selection includes poets who are influential and recognised but in general have not enjoyed the detailed study that they deserve Alejandra Pizarnik Juan Gelman Osvaldo Lamborghini Nestor

BOOK JACKET A Companion to Latin American Literature Stephen M. Hart, 2007 The evolution of Latin American literature A Companion to Latin American Literature offers a lively and informative introduction to the most significant literary works produced in Latin America from the fifteenth century until the present day. It shows how the press and its product, the printed word, functioned as the common denominator binding together in different ways over time the complex and variable relationship between the writer, the reader, and the state. The meandering story of the evolution of Latin American literature from the letters of discovery written by Christopher Columbus and Vaz de Caminha via the Republican era at the end of the nineteenth century when writers in Rio de Janeiro as much as in Buenos Aires were beginning to live off their pens as journalists and serial novelists until the 1960s when writers of the quality of Clarice Lispector in Brazil and García Márquez in Colombia suddenly burst onto the world stage is traced chronologically in six chapters which introduce the main writers in the main genres of poetry, prose, the novel, drama, and the essay. A final chapter evaluates the post-boom novel, testimonio, Latino and Brazilian literature, gay Afro-Hispanic and Afro-Brazilian literature along with the Novel of the New Millennium. This study also offers suggestions for further reading.

STEPHEN M. HART is Professor of Hispanic Studies, University College London, and Profesor Honorario, Universidad de San Marcos, Lima.

Humoring Resistance Dianna C. Niebylski, 2012-02-01. Contextualizing theoretical debates about the political uses of gendered humor and female excess, this book explores bold new ways in which a number of contemporary Latin American women authors approach questions of identity and community. The author examines the connections among strategic uses of humor, women's bodies, and resistance in works of fiction by Laura Esquivel, Ana Lydia Vega, Luisa Valenzuela, Armonía Somers, and Alicia Borinsky. She shows how the interarticulation of the comic and comic grotesque vision with different types of excessive female bodies can result in new configurations of female subjectivity.

Concise Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith, 2014-01-14. The Concise Encyclopedia includes all entries on topics and countries cited by many reviewers as being among the best entries in the book. Entries on the 50 leading writers in Latin America from colonial times to the present and detailed articles on some 50 important works in this literature, those who read and studied in the English-speaking world.

Acts of Narrative Resistance Laura J. Beard, 2009-10-01. This exploration of women's autobiographical writings in the Americas focuses on three specific genres: testimonio, metafiction, and the family saga as the story of a nation. What makes Laura J. Beard's work distinctive is her pairing of readings of life narratives by women from different countries and traditions. Her section on metafiction focuses on works by Helena Parente Cunha of Brazil and Luisa Futoran of Argentina; the family sagas explored are by Ana María Shua and Nilda Piñón of Argentina and Brazil respectively; and the section on testimonio highlights narratives by Lee Maracle and Shirley Sterling from different Indigenous nations in British Columbia. In these texts, Beard terms genres of resistance: women resist the cultural definitions imposed upon them in an effort to speak and name their own experiences. The author situates her work in the context of not only other feminist studies of women's autobiographies but also the continuing study of inter-American literature that is demanding more comparative and cross-cultural approaches.

addresses prominent issues in the fields of autobiography comparative literature and women's studies and in inter American Latin American and Native American studies

Affective Moments in the Films of Martel, Carri, and Puenzo Inela Selimović, 2018-04-09 This book studies the intimate tensions between affect and emotions as terrains of sociopolitical significance in the cinema of Lucrecia Martel Albertina Carri and Lucía Puenzo Such tensions Selimović argues result in affective moments that relate to the films' core arguments They also signal these filmmakers' novel insights on complex manifestations of memory desire and violence The chapters explore how the presence of pronounced but reticent affect complicates emotional bonding in the everydayness depicted in these films By bringing out moments of affect in these filmmakers' diegetic worlds this book traces the ways in which subtle foci on gender class race and sexuality correlate in these Argentine women's films

Confronting Patriarchy Mary Boufis Filou, 2009 Confronting Patriarchy Psychoanalytic Theory in the Prose of Cristina Peri Rossi examines three works of the contemporary Uruguayan author who lives in exile as she dialogues with the psychoanalytic discourse endemic to patriarchal society Peri Rossi's prose structured like unconscious productions that give free expression to desire and passion as emanating from the forbidden recesses of the psyche powerfully reveals the message as a treatment for an ill society The language in the three works studied facilitates and reveals the male protagonist's interaction with the desired female object as a regression to a semiotic pre-oedipal state in a type of return of the repressed of consuming desire that has been written out of mainstream patriarchy and that serves to challenge its rational symbolic order It is from this vantage point that the author attempts to re-write the conclusions obtained through Lacanian and patriarchal discourse so that woman can emerge as a subject in her own right

Cultures of the City Richard Young, Amanda Holmes, 2014-08-20 Cultures of the City explores the cultural mediation of relationships between people and urban spaces in Latin America and how these mediations shape the identities of cities and their residents Addressing a broad spectrum of phenomena and disciplinary approaches the contributors to this volume analyze lived urban experiences and their symbolic representation in cultural texts Individual chapters explore Havana in popular music Mexico City in art Buenos Aires Recife and Salvador in film and Asunción and Buenos Aires in literature Others focus on particular events conditions and practices of urban life including the Havana book fair mass transit in Bogotá the restaurant industry in Los Angeles the media in Detroit Andean festivals in Lima and the photographic record of a visit by members of the Zapatista Liberation Army to Mexico City The contributors examine identity and the sense of place and belonging that connect people to urban environments relating these to considerations of ethnicity social and economic class gender everyday life and cultural practices They also consider history and memory and the making of places through the iterative performance of social practices As such places are works in progress a condition that is particularly evident in contemporary Latin American cities where the opposition between local and global influences is a prominent facet of daily life These core issues are theorized further in an afterword by Abril Trigo who takes the chapters as a point of departure for a discussion of the dialectics of identity in the Latin o American global city      Made of Shores Amalia Ran,2011-08-16 This book offers to rethink identities within contemporary Judeo Argentinean fiction by dealing with the transforming notion of Jewishness and of national identity in Argentina It focuses on the dialogue and confrontation between the narrative text and the imaginary national space it questions By reviewing the new material conditions within Argentina and its diasporic communities this book imposes a new reflection on what Judeo Argentinean fiction is all about It reflects on the shifting notion of identity abandoning traditional definitions in order to rather analyze how feelings of alienation and nostalgia echo an era of transculturation and floating borders The novels that this book studies return to the past from a certain distance created by time and space This distance leads the reader to question the relevance of geographical cultural and linguistic differences within identity formation Since its beginning the research of Jewish Latin America has focused on the quest of Jewish immigrants for a consolidated identity social and cultural integration in their receiving societies and recognition within the official and canonical national history Traditional scholarship has paid special attention to the construction of collective memory and the dilemma of double identity Nonetheless the transforming notion of otherness in the last few decades associated traditionally with the Jewish character requires a new approach when discussing contemporary affiliations of Jews in Argentina and their narrative representations New waves of emigration from Argentina at the beginning of the new millennium economic and social disintegration general disillusion with the state apparatus and the gaps left in the collective memory following the years of the military dictatorship redefine personal and collective identities and demand a careful reexamination of the concept of argentinidad and its cultural significances      Nazism, the Second World War and the Holocaust in Contemporary Latin American Fiction Emily M. Baker,2022-06-23 Addressing the question of why many Latin American fiction authors are writing about Nazism the Second World War and the Holocaust now this book charts the evolution of Latin American literary production from the 19th Century through the late 20th century Boom to the present day Containing texts from Mexico Colombia Brazil Argentina and Chile it analyses work by some of the most well known contemporary writers including Roberto Bola o Juan Gabriel V squez Jorge Volpi Luc a Puenzo Patricio Pron and Michel Laub as well as notable precursors such as Jorge Luis Borges Carlos Fuentes and Ricardo Piglia Nazism the Second World War and the Holocaust in Contemporary Latin American Fiction argues that these authors find Nazism relevant to thinking through some of the most urgent contemporary challenges we face from racism to the unequal division of wealth and labour between the Global North and South and of course the general failure of democracy to eliminate fascism
