Instead blacks refused to support their own and others condemned their experiment Drawing on economic research and social history as well as her personal story Maggie Anderson shows why the black economy continues to suffer and issues a call to action to all of us to do our part to reverse this trend Why Not Win? Larry Thornton,2019-04-01 Aspiring business owners and executives seeking to climb to the next rung young to mid career professionals seeking tools for life achievement and general readers interested in biographies of successful people will like Larry Thornton s Why Not Win The book is a front row seat to how one man altered his thinking to transform his life The book begins with his growing up with brown skin in the 1960s in segregated Montgomery Alabama A desegregation school pioneer Thornton was a classroom failure until a perceptive English teacher showed him he had value and encouraged him to go to college Like the educator who changed his life Thornton became a classroom teacher But budget cuts took his job and he decided to rewrite his story using his artistic talent Thornton s artistry and work ethic got him attention at Coca Cola both for the good and the bad He had to figure out a way to navigate this new world where higher ups praised him but co workers reminded him of his blackness by drawing a noose in his workstation He persevered by learning to appreciate and embrace diversity people resources and conflicting opinions While his success grew at Coca Cola Thornton did the unthinkable set out to be the first African American to own a McDonald s franchise in Birmingham This thorny journey was peppered with threats attempts to thwart his mission and a marriage he could not keep from falling apart He absorbed the try try and try again motto and came to see that failure was a prelude to feasting upon the sweet fruit of success Thornton s own mother never had a checking account but years after her passing he found himself on the board of directors for a major financial institution He slowly became a part of a small fraternity of captains of industry and fought past guilt and insecurity to pave the way for others who look like him to join him at the table Trying to fit into this new world he learned that Thank you Please and Excuse me are perhaps three of the most powerful phrases in communication Thornton made up his mind that he would spend each day on a mission to show his unbending gratitude for his life and its benefits by fostering a supreme attitude and maintaining consistency in vision purpose and an unwavering commitment to principles Thornton s journey from Madison Park Montgomery has been a long one Why Not Win reflects on his most useful lessons and the anecdotes associated with them If he were a Zen monk his koan might well be Plan your past By that he means think ahead one day one week one year even twenty years out and decide today your desired outcome and work for it Thank God for memories he says Let s plan to make them pleasant ones

Woodson, Sr., 2021-05-11 In the rush to redefine the place of black Americans in contemporary society many radical activists and academics have mounted a campaign to destroy traditional American history and replace it with a politicized version that few would recognize According to the new radical orthodoxy the United States was founded as a racist nation and everything that has happened throughout our history must be viewed through the lens of the systemic oppression of black people Rejecting this false narrative a collection of the most prominent and respected black scholars and thinkers has come together to correct the record and tell the true story of black Americans in all its complexity diversity of experience and poignancy Collectively they paint a vivid picture of black people living the grand American experience however bumpy the road may be along the way But rather than a people apart blacks are woven into the united whole that makes this nation unique in history Featuring Essays by John Sibley Butler Jason D Hill Coleman Cruz Hughes John McWhorter Clarence Page Wilfred Reilly Shelby Steele Carol M Swain Dean Nelson Charles Love Rev Corey Brook Stephen L Harris Harold A Black Stephanie Deutsch Yaya J Fanusie Ian Rowe John Wood Jr Joshua Mitchell Robert Cherry Rev DeForest Black Soaries Jr Ebony,1996-01 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The Crisis of the African-American Architect Melvin L.
