Success is a journey not a destination. It is a journey because our definition of success changes overtime. What you call success in high school is not the same when you are in college or on your first job or ten years on the job or twenty years on the job or even when you own your own company. Our definition of success changes over time depending on which stage we are in life. Throughout our lifetime we pursue success so success is a life journey. Your Road Map For Success John C. Maxwell, 2002-03-31. Defining success is a difficult task. Most people equate it with wealth, power, and happiness. However, true success is not a thing you acquire or achieve. Rather, it is a journey you take your whole life long. In a refreshingly straightforward style, John Maxwell shares unique insights into what it means to be successful. And he reveals a definition that puts genuine success within your reach yet motivates you to keep striving for your dreams. I want to help you discover your personal road map for success, teach you what it means to be on the success journey, answer many of your questions, and equip you with what you'll need to change yourself and keep growing.
