Success Stories As Hard Data An Introduction To Results Mapping:

Success Stories as Hard Data Barry M. Kibel,2012-12-06 This book offers the first comprehensive introduction to Results Mapping an in novative approach for assessing the worth of hard to evaluate social health and education programs Results Mapping represents a true milestone in program evaluation a milestone both as methodology for program accountability and as a technique for program improvement It is relevant across a wide spectrum of pub lic health social service and systems building initiatives It introduces new sci ence into the field of program evaluation It merges common sense with structured logic It retains the richness of real world success stories without sacri ficing a hard nosed focus on quantitative data and measurable outcomes The contents of this book are directly pertinent for program leadership and staff for sponsors and funders in the public and private sectors and for those charged with assessing documenting and analyzing the effects of program activ ity Success Stories as Hard Data is designed to be readable practical and clear Its author does not ignore previous scholarly work but chooses to emphasize real world applications For this Dr Kibei is to be applauded The Success Case Method Robert Brinkerhoff,2003-01-09 Each year organizations spend millions of dollars trying out new innovations and improvements and millions will be wasted if they can t quickly find out what s working and what is not The Success Case Method offers a breakthrough evaluation technique that is easier faster and cheaper than competing approaches and produces compelling evidence decision makers can actually use Because it seeks out the best stories of how real individuals have actually used innovations The Success Case Method can ferret out success no matter how small or infrequent It can salvage the few gems of success from a larger initiative that is not doing well or find out how to make a partially successful effort even more successful The practical methods and tools in this book can help those who initiate and foster change including leaders executives managers consultants training directors and anyone else who is trying to make things work better in organizations get the greatest returns for their investments Program Evaluation Emil J. Posavac,2015-07-22 Comprehensive yet accessible this text provides a practical introduction to the skills attitudes and methods required to assess the worth and value of human services offered in public and private organizations in a wide range of fields Students are introduced to the need for such activities the methods for carrying out evaluations and the essential steps in organizing findings into reports The text focuses on the work of people who are closely associated with the service to be evaluated and is designed to help program planners developers and evaluators to work with program staff members who might be threatened by program evaluation Outcome Mapping Fred Carden,Sarah Earl,Michael Quinn Patton,Terry Smutylo,2002 Cartographie des incidences Integrer laprentissage et la reflexion dans les programmes de developpement The Success Case Method Robert O. Brinkerhoff,2010-06-21 Each year organizations spend millions of dollars trying out new innovations and improvements and millions will be wasted if they can t quickly find out what s working and what is not The Success Case Method offers a breakthrough evaluation technique that is easier faster and cheaper than competing approaches and produces compelling evidence decision makers can actually use Because it seeks out the best stories of how real individuals have actually used innovations The Success Case Method can ferret out success no matter how small or infrequent It can salvage the few gems of success from a larger initiative that is not doing well or find out how to make a partially successful effort even more successful The practical methods and tools in this book can help those who initiate and foster change including leaders executives managers consultants training directors and anyone else who is trying to make things work better in organizations get the greatest returns for their investments   Program Evaluation Kenneth J. Linfield,Emil J. Posavac,2018-09-03 This text provides a solid foundation in program evaluation covering the main components of evaluating agencies and their programs how best to address those components and the procedures to follow when conducting evaluations Different models and approaches are paired with practical techniques such as how to plan an interview to collect qualitative data and how to use statistical analyses to report results In every chapter case studies provide real world examples of evaluations broken down into the main elements of program evaluation the needs that led to the program the implementation of program plans the people connected to the program unexpected side effects the role of evaluators in improving programs the results and the factors behind the results In addition the story of one of the evaluators involved in each case study is presented to show the human side of evaluation This new edition also offers enhanced and expanded case studies making them a central organizing theme and adds more international examples New online resources for this edition include a table of evaluation models examples of program evaluation reports sample handouts for presentations to stakeholders links to YouTube videos and additional annotated resources All resources are available for download under the tab eResources at www routledge com 9781138103962   Promoting Nonviolence in Early Adolescence Aleta L. Meyer,Albert Farrell,Wendy Northup,Eva Kung,Laura Plybon,2012-12-06 In preparation for role play during a RIPP class 6th grade students consider the following conflict situation Sharon and Josie who are good friends tryout for the basketball team Josie makes the team but Sharon does not The week after tryouts Sharon tries to pick a fight with Josie calling her a cheater and some one the coach felt sorry for Josie is in a bind she wants to remain friends with Sharon but she is really angry with Sharon for treating her so badly What can Josie do in this situation What type of self talk will help her work out this prob lem with Sharon and keep the friendship During the role play Sharon calls Josie a cheater Then before Josie re sponds two students representing her positive and negative sides take turns whis pering into her ear Negative self talk Boy is she a loser What if everyone believes her and thinks that I cheated to get on the team Positive self talk I know I worked hard to get on the team Sharon must really be hurt that she didn t make it I can talk to her later when she s cooled down and maybe we can do something together after practice Josie listens to the two voices and decides that the best approach is to ignore Sharon s comments for now and to call her later that day to see if they can do something together This description of students dealing with everyday conflicts is quite real   Qualitative Research & Evaluation Methods Michael

Quinn Patton,2002 In Unstable and Brittle Diabetes Geoff Gill brings together research on the management of brittle diabetes or erratic glucose control which is a controversial area in terms of definition and management and one that creates much debate among diabetologists This monograph aims to help the diabetologist understand this troublesome condition

Practical Evaluation for Collaborative Services James R. Veale,Raymond E. Morley,Cynthia L. Erickson,2002 Foreword by Joy Dryfoos The title says it well This practical work offers a guiding framework for evaluating a school linked services initiative delineates specific steps and includes a host of useful tools that have been field tested Anyone planning such an evaluation will find this a major resource aid Howard Adelman School Mental Health Project Center for Mental Health in the Schools UCLA Los Angeles CA A very good resource for those in collaborative services who are new to evaluation The authors break down the sometimes complex and intimidating process of evaluation into manageable action steps and show how evaluation can be used to both improve accountability and foster organizational learning Karen Horsch Research Associate Harvard Family Research Project Cambridge MA Specific evaluation instruments you can start using now Do collaborative services between schools and community service agencies really work What are realistic goals and how can they be achieved The pressure to build and use reliable tools to assess collaborative services is growing but there s no reason to start from scratch when creating the processes and procedures you need Here are time tested instruments you need to evaluate the success of collaborative services already developed and in use in large and small communities and presented in a format that your school and district can immediately adapt and put into practice Subjects include Monitoring and gathering outcome data Assessing student risk Assessing program implementation and customer satisfaction Assessing program results using qualitative and quantitative data as well as specific surveys for elementary middle and high schools surveys for parents at different levels examples of data collection formats and much more It s the comprehensive resource you need ready for you to use right now Family Life Education Stephen F. Duncan,H. Wallace Goddard,2016-04-20 A practical how to guide to developing implementing evaluating and sustaining effective family life education programs Drawing on the best scholarship and their own years of professional experience the authors of this thoroughly updated Third Edition begin by discussing the foundations of family life education and encourage readers to develop their own outreach philosophies The book then helps readers learn principles and methods for reaching out to the public and how to form and use community collaborations and use principles of social marketing to promote programs DARE To Be You Jan Miller-Heyl,David MacPhee,Janet J. Fritz,2006-04-18 DARE To Be You DTBY is a program that has both a conceptual foundation and is demonstrably effective in building assets linked to a decrease in problem behaviors Its success is based on working not only with the individual child but also with multiple systems that affect the child These systems include family peers school and the broader community The DTBY curricula is age appropriate and adapted to account for changing developmental needs While this volume focuses on the DTBY program for families with 2 to 5 year old children references are made to the

programs for school aged children and teens This program has proven effective in diverse settings including a Native American community an urban setting of mixed cultures a traditional Hispanic and Anglo rural community and a poor isolated agricultural region   Building Healthy Individuals, Families, and Communities Ted N. Strader,David A. Collins,Tim D. Noe,2012-12-06 Youth have nearly always exhibited behaviors that frustrate adults It can be diffi cult to understand why young people engage in risky or destructive behavior and it is challenging to develop strategies to encourage more healthy and responsible behavior among our youth However it is helpful to realize that despite the fact that large numbers of youth engage in frightful and destructive behaviors for pe riods of time during adolescence and early adulthood a large proportion of youth find a way not only to survive but also to bounce back and contribute significantly to the furtherance of human development We are not the first generation of adults to experience the pain fear and frustration of dealing with our youth More important we recognize that we are not helpless when faced with the problems youth experience While it is true that adolescents have always exhibited problem behaviors a number of effective tools and approaches have always been at our disposal to assist with appropriate youth development Of course the most effective approaches require a tremendous amount of focused time and energy   Family Support as Reflective Practice John Canavan,John Pinkerton,Pat Dolan,2006-01-27 Contributors to this book provide international perspectives on core issues in family support Providing a combination of clear theoretical frameworks and practical guidance with clear how to messages and a strong emphasis on evaluation this book will be of interest to social workers working in all areas of family support   Mentoring Across Generations Andrea S. Taylor,Jeanette Bressler,2012-12-06 Currently blame for the difficulties facing youth is too often laid on one particular segment of the community whether parents school personnel or the children themselves However the problems of today s young people are problems for all generations In response the past decade has seen unparalleled proliferation of planned mentoring initiatives Across Ages the multi faceted and multigenerational intervention described in this volume uses older adult volunteers as mentors for young people By acting as advocates challengers nurturers role models and friends older mentors help children develop the awareness self confidence and skills they need to overcome overwhelming obstacles Across Ages is cost effective and feasible even where resources are fairly limited Although designed as a school based model this program can easily be adopted to other settings Each of the four major program components mentoring community service life skills instruction and family support is described in step by step detail   Advancing Youth Work Dana Fusco,2012-02-27 This path breaking book brings together an international list of contributors to collectively articulate a vision for the field of youth work sharing what they have learned from decades of experience in the training and education of youth workers Carefully designed evaluation and research studies have legitimized the learning potential of youth programs and non school organizations over the last twenty years and recent attention has shifted towards the education training and on going professional development of youth workers Contributors define youth work across domains of practice and address the disciplines of knowledge upon which sound practice is based reviewing examples of youth practitioner development both in and outside of academia Raising critical questions and concerns about current trends Advancing Youth Work aims to bring clarity to the field and future of youth work Advancing Youth Work will help youth work practitioners develop a common language articulate their field in one voice and create a shared understanding of similarities and differences This book is also an invaluable resource for higher educators researchers and students involved with youth work   Stopping Domestic Violence Pamela J. Jenkins,Barbara Parmer Davidson,2012-12-06 In the field of domestic violence community collaboration has been an essential part of both prevention and intervention However there have been vast differences in perspective methodology understanding interpretations and concerns among the various partners This volume examines models of collaboration between personnel in social service agencies women s centers domestic violence programs medical and mental health settings and law enforcement Techniques are detailed that allow knowledge about domestic violence and primary prevention to be integrated into a community response by all those involved Further the authors describe in detail how the possibilities for communities to respond to domestic violence victims is based on how these various groups perceive the victim how an individual agency personally responds and how it is possible to provide safety for women in their own homes and communities Stopping Domestic Violence How a Community Can Prevent Spousal Abuse is an excellent resource for educators social workers public health professionals clinicians medical and mental health professionals and law enforcement personnel   Connecting Medical Informatics and Bio-informatics Rolf Engelbrecht,2005 A variety of topics of bio informatics including both medical and bio medical informatics are addressed by MIE The main theme in this publication is the development of connections between bio informatics and medical informatics Tools and concepts from both disciplines can complement each other   Risk, Resilience, and Positive Youth Development Jeffrey M. Jenson,2013 In this innovative book elements of risk and resilience positive youth development and organizational collaboration are used to develop a comprehensive intervention framework the Integrated Prevention and Early Intervention IPEI Model

   Evaluation Research Methods Elliot Stern,2005   Handbook of Emergent Methods Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber,Patricia Leavy,2008-02-22 Social researchers increasingly find themselves looking beyond conventional methods to address complex research questions The Handbook of Emergent Methods is the first book to comprehensively examine emergent qualitative and quantitative theories and methods across the social and behavioral sciences Providing scholars and students with a way to retool their research choices the volume presents cutting edge approaches to data collection analysis and representation Leading researchers describe alternative uses of traditional quantitative and qualitative tools innovative hybrid or mixed methods and new techniques facilitated by technological advances Consistently formatted chapters explore the strengths and limitations of each method for studying different types of research questions and offer practical in depth examples
