When uncle Henry (who had been my father in law at the time) did beat the last retreat on the golf course

Riana & I had to hurry to Barberton to mother in law to assist with the funeral and Riana & I had to constantly wash the dishes and Riana & I had to prepare food and refreshments for the horde of guests that came to the funeral, we had to help with the funeral letter, go along to the veterinarian with the beloved dog of the deceased and I had to dig a grave for that poor animal as for that old madam (who had been my mother in law) the poor dog had to be buried as well on the day that I helped to carry her husband's coffin to his grave.

treats a critical period in the long history of kabuki as it was affected by a single individual who had a commanding influence over it. It offers fascinating and little known details about Occupation censorship politics and kabuki performance while providing yet another perspective on the history of an enduring Japanese art form. Read Bowers' impressions of Gen MacArthur on the Japanese American Veterans Association website.
