of a Platonic dialogue recounting real life patient experiences Drs Lickerman and ElDifrawi assert that the reason genuine longlasting happiness is so difficult to achieve and maintain is that we re profoundly confused not only about how to go about it but also about what happiness is In identifying nine basic erroneous views we all have about what we need to be happy views they term the core delusions Lickerman and ElDifrawi show us that our happiness depends not on our external possessions or even on our experiences but rather on the beliefs we have that shape our most fundamental thinking These beliefs they argue create ten internal life conditions or worlds through which we continuously cycle and that determine how happy we re able to be Drawing on the latest scientific research as well as Buddhist philosophy Lickerman and ElDifrawi argue that once we learn to embrace a correct understanding of happiness we can free ourselves from the suffering the core delusions cause us and enjoy the kind of happiness we all want the kind found in the highest of the Ten Worlds the world of Enlightenment
