Suffering Mothers:

The Complete Buddhism for Mothers Sarah Napthali, 2011 Firmly grounded in the day to day reality of being a mother The Complete Buddhism for Mothers gives personal and honest advice based on Buddhist teachings as applied to the everyday challenges of bringing up children Mothers as the Image of God Juliann Bullock, 2022-12-12 Is God a man If God is our Heavenly Father does that require God to be male Does the Bible ever describe God as a mother as well as a father If human fathers can show us what God is like can we see God's image in our mothers too How do women uniquely reveal the nature of the One who created both male and female in the image of God Mothers as the Image of God explores answers to these important questions along with many others This book guides the reader on a series of biblical reflections designed to help both men and women experience the motherly love of God revealed in Scripture and to nourish women with the deep confidence that the most feminine aspects of their nature are a profound reflection of the very image of God an image that is exquisitely displayed through mothering whether that takes place biologically through adoption or by pouring into spiritual children The Cruellest of All Mothers Mary Dunn, 2015-10-01 In 1631 Marie Guyart stepped over the threshold of the Ursuline convent in Tours leaving behind her eleven year old son Claude against the wishes of her family and her own misgivings Marie concluded God was dearer to me than all that Leaving him therefore in His hands I bid adieu to him joyfully Claude organized a band of schoolboys to storm the convent begging for his mother's return Eight years later Marie made her way to Quebec where over the course of the next thirty three years she opened the first school for Native American girls translated catechisms into indigenous languages and served some eighteen years as superior of the first Ursuline convent in the New World She would also maintain over this same period an extensive and intimate correspondence with the son she had abandoned to serve God The Cruellest of All Mothers is fundamentally an explanation of Marie de l'Incarnation's decision to abandon Claude for religious life Complicating Marie's own explication of the abandonment as a sacrifice carried out in imitation of Christ and in submission to God's will the book situates the event against the background of early modern French family life the marginalization of motherhood in the Christian tradition and seventeenth century French Catholic spirituality Deeply grounded in a set of rich primary sources The Cruellest of All Mothers offers a rich and complex analysis of the abandonment Machik's Complete Explanation Sarah Harding, 2013-05-14 Fear anger and negativity are states that each of us have to contend with Machik's Complete Explanation the most famous book of the teachings of Machik Lapdr n the great female saint and yogini of eleventh to twelfth century Tibet addresses these issues in a practical direct way Machik developed a system the Mahamudra Ch d that takes the Buddha's teachings as a basis and applies them to the immediate experiences of negative mind states and malignant forces Her unique feminine approach is to invoke and nurture the very demons that we fear and hate transforming those reactive emotions into love It is the tantric version of developing compassion and fearlessness a radical method of cutting through ego fixation This expanded edition includes Machik Lapdr n s earliest known teaching the original source text for the tradition The Great Bundle of Precepts on Severance Ch d This pithy set of instructions reveals that the teachings of the perfection of wisdom are the true inspiration for Ch d It is beautifully clarified in a short commentary by Rangjung Dorje the Third Karmapa Making Sense of Motherhood Beth M. Stovell, 2016-02-02 Motherhood provides a crucial place for exploring human life and its meaning Within motherhood lies a deep tension between the pain crisis and association with death in motherhood and the joy transformation and life in motherhood Few metaphors in Scripture or in life stand so firmly between life and death love and loss and joy and deep pain After all motherhood s meaning in part comes again and again at these crucial crossroads Thus motherhood has powerful implications for our biblical and theological understanding Bringing together Jewish and ecumenical Christian scholars from North America Oceania and South America this edited volume provides biblical and theological perspectives on understanding motherhood The authors reflect upon a selection of biblical texts systematic theologians and Christian spiritual traditions to dialogue with the experience of maternity in its diverse manifestations The purpose of the book is to provide essays that through these biblical and theological lenses engage the question of motherhood today from the experience of pregnancy and birth to raising children to losing children and coping with grief In this way this volume helps to make sense of the complexity of motherhood Mothers and Daughters in Nineteenth-Century America Nancy M. Theriot, 2014-10-17 The feminine script of early nineteenth century centered on women s role as patient long suffering mothers By mid century however their daughters faced a world very different in social and economic options and in the physical experiences surrounding their bodies In this groundbreaking study Nancy Theriot turns to social and medical history developmental psychology and feminist theory to explain the fundamental shift in women s concepts of femininity and gender identity during the course of the century from an ideal suffering womanhood to emphasis on female control of physical self Theriot s first chapter proposes a methodological shift that expands the interdisciplinary horizons of women s history She argues that social psychological theories recent work in literary criticism and new philosophical work on subjectivities can provide helpful lenses for viewing mothers and children and for connecting socioeconomic change and ideological change She recommends that women s historians take bolder steps to historicize the female body by making use of the theoretical insights of feminist philosophers literary critics and anthropologists Within this methodological perspective Theriot reads medical texts and woman authored advice literature and autobiographies She relates the early nineteenth century notion of true womanhood to the socioeconomic and somatic realities of middle class women s lives particularly to their experience of the new male obstetrics The generation of women born early in the century in a close mother daughter world taught their daughters the feminine script by word and action Their daughters however the first generation to benefit greatly from professional medicine had less reason than their mothers to associate womanhood with pain and suffering The new concept of femininity they created incorporated maternal teaching but altered it to make meaningful their own very different experience This provocative study applies interdisciplinary methodology to new and long standing questions in women s history and invites women s historians to explore alternative explanatory frameworks The Routledge Handbook of Motherhood on Screen Susan Liddy,Deirdre Flynn,2025-04-25 The Routledge Handbook of Motherhood on Screen offers a comprehensive global analysis of the representation of Mothers and Motherhood in contemporary screen industries and online spaces Over five distinct sections this handbook examines how the complexities and realities of contemporary motherhood are translated to the screen Offering a full scholarly overview of the field this handbook provides a ground breaking and important contribution to our understanding of motherhood on screen The geographical and genre reach of the handbook presents new ways of theorising and reframing current scholarly debate and gives a wide ranging and comprehensive contribution to knowledge of on screen representations An international team of established scholars and emerging voices provide analysis of representations from around the world spanning a breadth of genres The chapters situate transnational screen representations of motherhood in the 21st Century and assess the implications of contemporary representation of motherhood Thoroughly challenging and expanding understandings of motherhood and mothers this handbook will be an essential multi faceted publication for researchers and students of film TV animation motherhood gender studies feminism ageing studies anthropology and sociology The Young Mother William Andrus Alcott,1838

Mothers of Heroes and Martyrs Lorraine Bayard de Volo,2001-10-12 Founded during the Nicaraguan revolution the Mothers of Heroes and Martyrs of Matagalpa comprises women who supported the revolution but did not carry guns The author focuses on the group to explore maternal identity politics The Angelic Mother and the Predatory Seductress Ashley Craig Lancaster,2012-06-20 In The Angelic Mother and the Predatory Seductress Ashley Craig Lancaster examines how converging political and cultural movements helped to create dualistic images of southern poor white female characters in Depression era literature While other studies address the familial and labor issues that challenged female literary characters during the 1930s Lancaster focuses on how the evolving eugenics movement reinforced the dichotomy of altruistic maternal figures and destructive sexual deviants According to Lancaster these binary stereotypes became a new analogy for hope and despair in America s future and were well utilized by Depression era politicians and authors to stabilize the country s economic decline As a result the complexity of women s lives was often overlooked in favor of stock characters incapable of individuality Lancaster studies a variety of works including those by male authors William Faulkner Erskine Caldwell and John Steinbeck as well as female novelists Mary Heaton Vorse Myra Page Grace Lumpkin and Olive Tilford Dargan She identifies female stereotypes in classics such as To Kill a Mockingbird and in the work of later writers Dorothy Allison and Rick Bragg who embrace and share in a poor white background The Angelic Mother and the Predatory Seductress reveals that these literary stereotypes continue to influence not only society s perception of poor white southern women but also women s perception of themselves The Young Mother William A. Alcott,2019-09-25 Reproduction of the original The Young Mother by William A Alcott      Italian Motherhood on Screen Giovanna Faleschini Lerner, Maria Elena D'Amelio, 2017-10-14 This book is the first scholarly analysis that considers the specificity of situated experiences of the maternal from a variety of theoretical perspectives From Fertility Day to Family Day the concept of motherhood has been at the center of the public debate in contemporary Italy partly in response to the perceived crisis of the family the economic crisis and the crisis of national identity provoked by the forces of globalization and migration secularization and the instability of labor markets Through essays by an international cohort of established and emerging scholars this volume aims to read these shifts in cinematic terms How does Italian cinema represent negotiate and elaborate changing definitions of motherhood in narrative formal and stylistic terms The essays in this volume focus on the figures of working mothers women who opt for a child free adulthood single mothers ambivalent mothers lost mothers or imperfect mothers who populate contemporary screen narratives      Haunting Violations Wendy Hesford, Wendy Kozol, 2000-11-30 Feminist critics place a premium on the real stories told by the victimized and the oppressed Haunting Violations offers a corrective to such uncritical acceptance of the real in confessional testimonial and ethnographic narratives Through close readings of a wide variety of texts contributors argue that depictions of the real are inherently performative crafted within the limits and in the interests of specific personal political or social projects Haunting Violations explores the inseparability of discourse and politics in quasi autobiographical works such as I Rigoberta Mench and When Heaven and Earth Changed Places Contributors consider how the Sri Lankan Mother's Front movement exploits the sanctity of the maternal and how multiple political purposes on both sides bleed through government documentary photographs of Japanese American concentration camp internees This volume also investigates how South Asian feminists use the authority of their personal experience to critique the film Mississippi Masala and how realist narratives such as Janet Campbell Hale's autobiographical Bloodlines Margie Strosser's documentary film Rape Stories and Shekhar Kapur's film Bandit Queen reexamine how assumptions about power and trauma are embedded in the promise of the real      The Cultural and Economic Context of Maternal Infanticide Martha Smithey, 2018-11-23 This book examines the social economic and cultural conditions and stressors under which mothers commit infanticide and shows how these conditions affect the ability to meet societal and self perceived expectations of good mothering      Shakespeare: The Tragedies Nicolas Tredell, 2017-09-16 Shakespeare's tragedies are among the greatest works of tragic art and have attracted a rich range of commentary and interpretation from leading creative and critical minds This Reader's Guide offers a comprehensive survey of the key criticism on the tragedies from the 17th century through to the present day In this book Nicolas Tredell Introduces essential concepts themes and debates Relates Shakespeare's tragedies to fields of study including psychoanalysis gender race ecology and philosophy Summarises major critical texts from Dryden and Dr Johnson to Janet Adelman and Julia Reinhard Lupton and covers influential critical movements such as New Criticism New Historicism and poststructuralism Demonstrates how key critical approaches work in practice with close reference to Shakespeare's texts. Informed and incisive, this is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in how the category of Shakespeare's tragedies has been constructed, contested, and changed over the years.

Motherhood in Mexican Cinema, 1941-1991 Isabel Arredondo, 2013-12-19 How were femininity and motherhood understood in Mexican cinema from the 1940s to the early 1990s? Film analysis, interviews with filmmakers, academic articles, and film reviews from newspapers are used to answer the question and trace the changes in such depictions. Images of mothers in films by so-called third-wave filmmakers Busi Cortes, Maria Novaro, Dana Rotberg, and Marisa Sistach are contrasted with those in Mexican classical films (1935-1950) and films from the 1970s and 1980s. There are some surprising conclusions. The most important restrictions in the depiction of mothers in classical cinema came not from the strict sexual norms of the 1940s but in reactions to women shown as having autonomous identities. Also in contrast to classical films, third-wave films show a woman's problems within a social dimension, making motherhood political in relation not to militancy within the left but to women's issues. Third-wave films approach the problems of Latin American society as those of individuals differentiated by gender, sexuality, and ethnicity; in such films, mothers are citizens directly affected by laws, economic policies, and cultural beliefs.

Romanticism, Maternity, and the Body Politic Julie Kipp, 2003-08-14 In Romanticism, Maternity, and the Body Politic, Julie Kipp examines Romantic writers' treatments of motherhood and maternal bodies in the context of the legal, medical, educational, and socioeconomic debates about motherhood so popular during the period. She argues that these discussions turned the physical processes associated with mothering into matters of national importance. The privately shared space signified by the womb or the maternal breast were made public by the widespread interest in the workings of the maternal body. These private spaces evidenced for writers of the period the radical exposure of mother and child to one another for good or ill. Kipp's primary concern is to underline the ways that writers used representations of mother-child bonds as ways of naturalizing, endorsing, and critiquing Enlightenment constructions of interpersonal and intercultural relations. This fascinating literary and cultural study will appeal to all scholars of Romanticism.

Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, 2010-04-06 In the last decade, the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly inquiry. A cursory review of motherhood research reveals that hundreds of scholarly articles have been published on almost every motherhood theme imaginable. The first ever on the topic, this Encyclopedia of Motherhood helps to both demarcate motherhood as a scholarly field and an academic discipline and to direct its future development. With more than 700 entries, these three volumes provide information on the central terms, concepts, topics, issues, themes, debates, theories, and texts of this new discipline. Further, the encyclopedia examines the topic of motherhood in various contexts, such as history and geography, and by academic discipline. Key Features: Provides an overview of the topic of motherhood in many and diverse disciplines, such as anthropology, sociology, psychology, and philosophy. Examines the meaning and experience of motherhood in many time periods, from classic civilizations to present day. Includes an entry for all the influential theorists of maternal scholarship from the pioneering theories to the more recent writings Covers issues and events of our current times including entries on the mommy blog the motherhood memoir terrorism reproductive technologies HIV AIDS and LGBT families Explores geographical cultural and ethnic diversity with an entry for almost every country in the world as well as entries on lesbian immigrant adoptive single nonresidential young poor mothers and mothers with disabilities Key Themes History of Motherhood Issues in Motherhood Motherhood and Family Motherhood and Health Motherhood and Society Motherhood Around the World Motherhood in the United States Motherhood Studies Prominent Mothers In human society few institutions are as important as motherhood and this unique encyclopedia captures the interdisciplinary foundation of the subject in one convenient reference The scope of the Encyclopedia of Motherhood is focused on providing a comprehensive resource to understanding the complexities of motherhood for academic and public libraries written by scholars and institutional experts in the social and behavioral sciences

Making Icons Jennifer Coates, 2016-10-01 One distinctive feature of post war Japanese cinema is the frequent recurrence of imagistic and narrative tropes and formulaic characterizations in female representations These repetitions are important Jennifer Coates asserts because sentiments and behaviours forbidden during the war and post war social and political changes were often articulated by or through the female image Moving across major character types from mothers to daughters and schoolteachers to streetwalkers Making Icons studies the role of the media in shaping the attitudes of the general public Japanese cinema after the defeat is shown to be an important ground where social experiences were explored reworked and eventually accepted or rejected by the audience emotionally invested in these repetitive materials An examination of 600 films produced and distributed between 1945 and 1964 as well as numerous Japanese language sources forms the basis of this rigorous study Making Icons draws on an art historical iconographic analysis to explain how viewers derive meanings from images during this peak period of film production and attendance in Japan It is very difficult not to heap superlatives upon Making Icons This splendid work sheds a shining light on the situation of women in post war Japan and on post war Japan itself Not only is this a deft reading of text and context it expands the very notion of context seeing stardom through the lens of filmic and extra filmic texts A must read for anyone interested in Japanese cinema David Desser Professor Emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign This is a compelling book I am excited by Jennifer Coates's art historically informed iconographic approach towards female representation in post war Japanese cinema Making Icons will certainly make a splash in the field of Japanese film studies Daisuke Miyao Professor and the Hajime Mori Chair in Japanese Language and Literature University of California San Diego

Stage Mothers Laura Engel, Elaine M. McGirr, 2014-11-06 Stage Mothers explores the connections between motherhood and the theater both on and off stage throughout the long eighteenth century Although the realities of eighteenth century motherhood and representations of maternity have recently been investigated in relation to the novel social history and political economy the idea of motherhood and its connection to the theatre as a professional material literary and cultural site has received little critical attention The essays in this volume spanning the period from the Restoration to Regency address these forgotten maternal narratives focusing on the representation of motherhood as the defining female role the interplay between an actress s celebrity persona and her chosen roles the performative balance between the cults of maternity and that of the passionate actress and tensions between sex and maternity and or maternity and public authority In examining the overlaps and disconnections between representations and realities of maternity in the long eighteenth century and by looking at written received visual and performed records of motherhood Stage Mothers makes an important contribution to debates central to eighteenth century cultural history
