Andrew D. DeCort

Suffering Politics Power:

Suffering, Politics, Power Cynthia Halpern, 2002-01-03 Suffering Politics Power argues that human suffering on a global scale constitutes the most urgent and least understood question of contemporary politics and political theory In the modern age the experience of suffering is primarily a political problem constructed out of crucial conflicting perspectives The book draws on a genealogy of suffering through the conflicting perspectives of four major political theorists Martin Luther Thomas Hobbes Jean Jacques Rousseau and Friedrich Nietzsche Although supplying contradictory accounts of the nature of suffering and human response to it these theorists when examined together provide a historical foundation for the political structures of our time and a trajectory for the problematic of suffering which defies all limits This book works to foster a contemporary political response to suffering addressing the techniques of its production and representation and the dilemmas of ascertaining causes and responsibilities Liberating the Politics of Jesus Darryl W. Stephens, Elizabeth Soto

Albrecht, 2020-09-03 Bold faithful challenging this volume uncovers the social and political implications of the gospel message by looking at Anabaptist theology and practice from a female perspective The contributors approach the gospel from a wide range of disciplines and backgrounds liberating the radical political ethic of Jesus Christ from patriarchal distortions and demonstrating that gender justice and peace theology are inseparable Beautifully illustrated with pen drawings Liberating the Politics of Jesus recognizes the authority of women to interpret and reconstruct the peace church tradition on issues such as subordination suffering atonement the nature of church leadership and discipleship The contributors confront difficult topics head on such as the power structures in South Africa armed conflict in Colombia and the sexual violence of John Howard Yoder The result is a renewed Anabaptist peace theology with the potential to transform the work of theology and ministry in all Christian traditions The Politics of Atrocity and Reconciliation Michael Humphrey, 2013-04-15 The Politics of Atrocity and Reconciliation examines contemporary political violence and atrocity in the context of the crisis of the nation state It explores the way violence is used to unmake the social world and how its product suffering is used to try to remake the social world Humphrey considers both the unmaking of the world through torture war urbicide and ethnic cleansing and the resultant remaking of the world through testimony and witnessing in the forums of truth commissions and trials The discussion thus moves from terror to trauma The ^AAmerican Catholic Revolution Mark S. Massa, S.J., 2010-09-14 This book is essential reading for anyone wishing to understand the current debates and tensions within American Catholicism which are the result of the American Catholic confrontation with historical change that occurred between 1964 and 1974 and gave rise to the current division between liberals and conservatives in America s largest church The Spectatorship of Suffering Lilie Chouliaraki, 2006-06-23 Lilie Chouliaraki grounds her sophisticated arguments in meticulous research The result is a work of important scholarship that might even make us think about the world and its mediation in profoundly new ways Roger Silverstone Professor of Media and Communications The

Peet,2021-07-30 Jesus died not peacefully in bed but on the cross the instrument of execution used by the Romans to keep potential disturbers of the established political order in their place Until the pioneering work of J rgen Moltmann the cross has been the elephant in the room in Christian political theology This book explores the difference Jesus s crucifixion makes or should make to Christian political theology by examining the crucifixion in the theologies of the Mennonite John Howard Yoder and the liberation theologians Leonardo Boff and Jon Sobrino In the light of the cross and of the kenotic God revealed by the cross questions of political power are explored and a kenotic political ethic outlined In conclusion suggestions are made as to how the contemporary church can live out a cruciform or cross shaped political spirituality and ecclesiology

Jewish Liturgical Reasoning Steven Kepnes,2007-11-01 Liturgy a complex interweaving of word text song and behavior is a central fixture of religious life in the Jewish tradition It is unique in that it is performed and not merely thought Because liturgy is performed by a specific group at a specific time and place it is mutable Thus liturgical reasoning is always new and understandings of liturgical practices are always evolving Liturgy is neither preexisting nor static it is discovered and revealed in every liturgical performance Jewish Liturgical Reasoning is an attempt to articulate the internal patterns of philosophical ethical and theological reasoning that are at work in synagogue liturgies This book discusses the relationship between internal Jewish liturgical reasoning and the variety of external philosophical and theological forms of reasoning that have been developed in modern and post liberal Jewish philosophy Steven Kepnes argues that liturgical reasoning can reorient Jewish philosophy and provide it with new tools new terms of discourse and analysis and a new sensibility for the twenty first century The formal philosophical study of Jewish liturgy began with Moses Mendelssohn and the modern Jewish philosophers Thus the book focuses in its first chapters on the liturgical reasoning of Moses Mendelssohn Hermann Cohen and Franz Rosenzweig However it attempts to augment and further develop the liturgical reasoning of these figures with methods of study from Hermeneutics Semiotic theory post liberal theology anthropology and performance theory These newer theories are enlisted to help form a contemporary liturgical reasoning that can respond to such events as the Holocaust the establishment of the State of Israel and interfaith dialogue between Jews Christians and Muslims

The Supper Ronald P. Hesselgrave, 2019-09-17 The Lord's Supper or Eucharist has often been a subject of intense debate in the church What is often lost in this debate is the significance of the relationship of the Eucharist to Jesus Last Supper with his disciples which was a Passover or Passover like meal Moreover the Last Supper connects back to various meals in Jesus earthly ministry And it looks forward to the great messianic banquet as fulfillment of Jewish expectations In exploring these connections this book focuses on the three motifs of new creation hospitality and hope in Christ Most significantly when we break the bread and drink the wine or juice together we are asserting the reality of the new creation in Christ affirming God's grace forgiveness and cruciform love which is to be embodied in the Christian community and anticipating the day when God's present and ongoing work of restoration justice and reconciliation will ultimately prevail The Supper then is basically a condensed summary of the story of God's plan of redemption Hesselgrave brings together biblical theological ethical and social insights in a way that deepens our understanding of the meaning and practical significance of biblical texts related to this central ordinance of the church
