acute contemporary problems The book addresses itself to both the ever increasing Western public interested in Sufism and to the Western educated Muslim interested in his own spiritual heritage Dr Nasr draws on his intimate knowledge of the Sufi literature in Arabic and Persian as well as his first hand knowledge of Sufi tradition itself to produce this further volume in his numerous studies on the different facets of Islam

Love as Common Ground Paul S. Fiddes, 2021-09-23 This book explores the way in which the study and practice of love creates a common ground for different faiths and different traditions within the same faith For the contributors common ground in this context is not a minimal core of belief or a lowest common denominator of faith but a space or area in which to live together consider together the meaning of the love to which various faiths witness and work together to enable human flourishing Such a space the contributors believe is possible because it is the place of encounter with the divine This book is the fruit of a Project for the Study of Love in Religion which aims to create this space in which different traditions of love converge from Islam Judaism and the Christianity of both East and West Tools employed by the contributors in exploring this space of love include exegesis of ancient texts theology accounts of mystical experience philosophy and evolutionary science of the human Insights about human and divine love that emerge include its nature as a form of knowing its sacrificial and erotic dimensions its inclination towards beauty its making of community and its importance for a just political and economic life

Mysticism and Meaning: Multidisciplinary Perspectives Alex S. Kohav, 2019 The volume investigates the question of meaning of mystical phenomena and conversely queries the concept of meaning itself via insights afforded by mystical experiences The collection brings together researchers from such disparate fields as philosophy psychology history of religion cognitive poetics and semiotics in an effort to ascertain the question of mysticism s meaning through pertinent up to date multidisciplinary The discussion commences with Editor s Introduction that probes persistent questions of complexity as well as perplexity of mysticism and the reasons why problematizing mysticism leads to even greater enigmas One thread within the volume provides the contextual framework for continuing fascination of mysticism that includes a consideration of several historical traditions as well as personal accounts of mystical experiences Two contributions showcase ancient Egyptian and ancient Israelite involvements with mystical alterations of consciousness and Christianity s origins being steeped in mystical praxis and four essays highlight mysticism s formative presence in Chinese traditions and Tibetan Buddhism as well as medieval Judaism and Kabbalah mysticism A second more overarching strand within the volume is concerned with multidisciplinary investigations of the phenomenon of mysticism including philosophical psychological cognitive and semiotic analyses To this effect the volume explores the question of philosophy s relation to mysticism and vice versa together with a Wittgensteinian nexus between mysticism facticity and truth language mysticism and supernormal meaning engendered by certain mystical states cognitive poetic analysis of mystical poetry and a semiotic scrutiny of some mystical experiences and their ineffability Finally the volume includes an assessment of the so called New Age authors contention of the convergence of scientific and mystical claims about reality

The above two tracks are appended with personal contemporary accounts of mystical experiences in the Prologue and a futuristic envisioning as a fictitious chronicle from the time to come of life without things mystical in the Postscript The volume contains fourteen chapters its international contributors are based in Canada Israel United Kingdom and the United States

Ibn 'Ata' Allah, Muslim Sufi Saint and Gift of Heaven Abu Bakr Sirajuddin Cook, 2017-06-23 The Shadhiliyya Sufi Order gave the Muslim world and those that are interested in Sufism the inside workings of the great masters Abu l Hassan al Shadhili and Abu l Abbas al Mursi Ibn Ata Allah also a master of the Shadhiliyya Order is the author of many volumes His works occupy a unique position within the history of Sufism and have been read consistently since their composition Yet despite their enduring popularity to date there has been no systematic and thorough analysis of his worldview This book is the first study to highlight the constant interconnections between Ibn Ata Allah s works It uses a scaffold approach to develop an understanding of Ibn Ata Allah s Sufism and his commitment to Islam building from his metaphysics of Oneness tawhid and covering domains such as ontology epistemology eschatology and ethics While the bulk of this work covers the worldview of Ibn Ata Allah it begins more generally with some comments on the need for reappraising approaches to Sufism and its relation to Islam Accessible for anyone interested in Sufism this work will appeal to scholars of religion in general and Islam in particular

Mithraic Societies: From Brotherhood Ideal to Religion's Adversary Abolala Soudavar, 2014-02-10 Although by its title this book seems to be about a specialized topic the spread of Mithraic societies and its avatars in time and geographical expanse enhances its relevancy From Roman legionaries to chivalry orders from dervish circles to guild organizations and from Freemasons to French revolutionaries the hierarchy of Mithraic societies their initiation rites and their oaths of secrecy provided a model for brotherhood organization that was efficient but also flexible They could adapt their philosophy to the prevailing politico religion conditions of the day because they did not worship any particular god but could also be comrades in arms with nascent religious movements such as with Christianity Mithra was the initial guarantor of their oath and if need be it could be replaced by Jesus Allah or any other divinity Their religion was their brotherhood and as such they usually provided a counter balance to the power elite and had the potential to become politically active

Symbols and the Image of the State in Eurasia Anita Sengupta,2016-10-14 This book discusses the significance of cultural symbols images in the nation building of Eurasian states that emerged out of the former Soviet Union It particularly focuses on the cases of Uzbekistan and Kazakhstan in the post Soviet era and argues that the relationship between nation and image building has been particularly relevant for Eurasian states In an increasingly globalized world nation state building is no longer an activity confined to the domestic arena The situating of the state within the global space and its image in the international community nation branding becomes in many ways as crucial as the projection of homogeneity within the state The relationship between politics and cultural symbols images therefore acquires and represents multiple possibilities It is these possibilities that are the focus of Symbols and the Image of the State in Eurasia It argues that the relationship between politics and cultural symbols images became particularly relevant for states that emerged in the wake of the disintegration of the Soviet Union in Central Asia It extends the argument further to contend that the image that the state projects is largely determined by its legacy and it attempts to do this by taking into account the Uzbek and Kazakh cases In the shaping of the post Soviet future these legacies and projections as well as the policy implications of these projections in terms of governmentality and foreign policy have been decisive

Shi'i Islam and Sufism Denis Hermann,Mathieu Terrier,2020-01-23 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Offering new perspectives on the relationship between Shi is and Sufis in modern and pre modern times this book challenges the supposed opposition between these two esoteric traditions in Islam by exploring what could be called Shi i Sufism and Sufi oriented Shi ism at various points in history The chapters are based on new research in textual studies as well as fieldwork from a broad geographical areas including the Indian subcontinent Anatolia and Iran Covering a long period stretching from the early post Mongol centuries throughout the entire Safawid era 906 1134 1501 1722 and beyond it is concerned not only with the sphere of the religious scholars but also with different strata of society The first part of the volume looks at the diversity of the discourse on Sufism among the Shi i ulama in the run up to and during the Safawid period The second part focuses on the social and intellectual history of the most popular Shi i Sufi order in Iran the Ni mat Allahiyya The third part examines the relationship between Shi ism and Sufism in the little explored literary traditions of the Alevi Bektashi and the Khaksariyya Sufi order With contributions from leading scholars in Shi ism and Sufism Studies the book is the first to reveal the mutual influences and connections between Shi ism and Sufism which until now have been little explored Rumi and the

Whirling Dervishes Alberto Fabio Ambrosio,2019-12-31 This brings together in English for the first time a number of articles in one volume that have been published in various books and journals and are reprinted with permission Through this work Rumi and his poetry as well as the whirling dervishes will hopefully become more widely known in Western countries than they are at present The whirling dervishes are famous for their ecstatic dance and but here it is hoped that their role within Sufism will become more clearly understood The book is an attempt to suggest a renewed manner of thinking about one of the most celebrated trends in the mystical dimension of the Islam the religion of love of Rumi and the cosmic dance of the dervishes The theology is at the back of all the itinerary and the all five chapters represent the possibility to rethink the dynamic relation between disciples and their Founder institution and charisma politics and mysticism Suhrawardi and the School of Illumination Mehdi Amin Razavi Aminrazavi,2014-03-18 Shihab al Din Yahya Suhrawardi also known as Shaikh al ishq or the Master of Illumination lived in the sixth century AH twelfth century CE His thoughts form a consistent and coherent philosophical system and a close study of his writings in Persian reveals a theory of knowledge generally called Knowledge by Presence The elaborate web of myth and symbolism in Suhrawardi s philosophy articulates his theory of knowledge an important subject in the ishraqi school of thought Suhrawardi who claims first to have discovered the truth and then embarked on a path to find the rational basis of his experiential wisdom represents a thinker who tried to reconcile rational discourse and inner purification
