How to Turn Poems, Lyrics, & Folklore into Salable

Children's Books Anne Hart, 2005-08-17 Do you want to adapt your poem to a storybook that tells a story in words and pictures or only amplify the images that you create with words Would you rather turn your poem into a picture book that tells a story with pictures Will words take second place to illustrations Decide first whether you will write a story book or a picture book Then use the images in your poem to clarify your writing You won't be able to read a picture book into a tape recorder or turn it into an audio book or radio play You will be able to narrate a word book for audio playing Start with an inspirational poem proverb or song lyrics Ask children what makes them laugh You can make something out of nothing You can make a story out of anything intangible such as an idea with a plan still in your mind Capture your children's dreams proverbs song lyrics and the surprise elements that make them laugh Record imagination what if talk and personal history A folktale or story is something that could come from any place in the past from science or from nothing that you can put your hands on What children want in a book poem or folklore is a cave where they can go to be themselves When suspending belief children still want to be themselves as they navigate fantasy The story book becomes a den or tree house where children can go inside shut the door and play Introduce children to poetry by showing how you transform your poem into a children's book by expanding and emphasizing significant events in the life story of one child Poems memorable experiences significant life events or turning points are all ways to make something out of nothing tangible You begin reworking a concept framework or vision Here's how to write publish and promote salable material from concept to framework to poem to children's book step by step Tigers of Wrath Vivek Iyer, 2007 The New First [etc.] Reader Eva Almeda Smedley, Martha C. Olsen, 1928

about Zook's medical condition drives the drama in this loving family story Praise for The Five Lives of Our Cat Zook STARRED REVIEW Rocklin's characters are fully developed readers will be invested Set in Oakland readers are also treated to a refreshingly authentic child's view of a diverse city The only imperfection in this novel is that it ends Booklist starred review Oona's character is a combination of Harriet the Spy in curiosity and Anastasia in spunk Another emotionally satisfying outing from Rocklin hanky recommended Kirkus Reviews Just as she did in One Day and One Amazing Morning on Orange Street Rocklin intertwines her characters so smartly that the many coincidences and serendipitous events feel organic to the story The story's ending bittersweet inevitable and true offers much needed catharsis for the family and for anyone who has ever loved a pet The Horn Book This heartwarming family tale is filled with resilient and thoughtful characters who are willing to learn from their mistakes Readers who enjoy the novels of Jeanne Birdsall and Leslie Crunch will appreciate this charming story School Library Journal There is a strong sense of place in this loving story with the ending sure to generate some tears This would make a strong library lesson extension activity Library Media Connection Awards SCBWI's Golden Kite Award for Fiction 2012 Dorothy Canfield Fisher Book Award Rebecca Caudill Young Readers Book Award plans Bridget's life well let's just say it's been a bit meh But when luck strikes she decides to embark on a once in a lifetime road trip Small hiccup she's about as good at driving as a cat is at swimming Can you really trust your fate to a driver whose nickname is AWOL and brace yourself he's not exactly a feline enthusiast Would you put your destiny and your dreams of meeting a parade of sizzling Italian stallions in his hands Get ready for a trip that's bound to have your belly in stitches But fair warning there might be a few moments that make you blush like a sun dried tomato This steamy romance is part of a series set in a shared world but you don't need to have read the others to enjoy it Each story stands alone though you might spot a few familiar faces along the way Rachelle Tiny and the Giant Kitty Cat Cullen Gwin, 2015-01-13 It was a wonderful day Little three year old Rachelle Tiny was in a good mood She was pushing her brand new baby in its brand new stroller up and down the passageways inside the walls of the big people's house And all the while she was singing a happy song Papa Tiny had made the stroller out of a half a walnut shell with wheels made of four matching buttons The teeny Tiny baby doll that fit in it was no more than half an inch tall from the top of its curly yarn head to the bottom of its teeny Tiny feet Mama Tiny had made the doll for her from a few scraps of leftover material and a piece of yarn Rachelle thought the whole thing was magnificent And to make the whole effect even better Rachelle was also wearing her dress up things She had on a necklace made of tiny beads They came down to a point on which was hung a gold foil star from a discarded Christmas decoration In the very center was a piece of silver glitter that sparkled and shone like a diamond The glitter necklace as she called it matched the other tiny pieces of gold foil with glitter that sparkled on her ears All in all Rachelle thought the effect was stunning In fact Rachelle was thinking so much about how pretty she looked that she wasn't paying attention to where she was going The next thing you know Rachelle looked around her and realized that she was lost Read about Rachelle's adventure and what happens when she meets up with one of the big people's cats The Tinys are a family of very small people that live inside the walls of a big person's apartment In many ways Tinys are like littles but they don't have tails like littles do There are four children in the Tiny family Gabrielle or Brie as she is better known is the oldest Then comes Aaron the only boy After Aaron are the twins Danielle and Rachelle They all live with their mother and father Living nearby are their grandmother and their Aunti Karen who they spend a lot of time with The Tinys all live in the walls of an apartment that belongs to the Martin family In the Martin Family there are the parents June and Jerry and their only child Peter They also have three cats As you may know cats love to chase things that are smaller than they are and tinys are just the right size for a cat to chase The cats will pounce on the tinys and bat them around They may not mean to hurt the tinys but they do That's why tinys don't like cats The Tinys work hard at making things work They like to recycle things that the big people throw away They also like parties and good times and spending time together In many ways Tinys are just like you and me only smaller Read about the adventures of the Tinies in this series Ages 7 to 12 Reading level 4 3 3029 Words The New Natural Cat Anitra Frazier, Norma Eckroate, 1990-11-01 Here is the definitive handbook for concerned cat lovers everywhere

Catland Kathryn Hughes,2024-06-04 How cat mania exploded in the early twentieth century transforming cats from pests into beloved pets In 1900 Britain and America were in the grip of a cat craze An animal that had for centuries been seen as a household servant or urban nuisance had now become an object of pride and deep affection From presidential and royal families who imported exotic breeds to working class men competing for cash prizes for the fattest tabby people became enthralled to the once humble cat Multiple industries sprang up to feed this new obsession selling everything from veterinary services to leather bootees via dedicated cat magazines Cats themselves were now traded for increasingly large sums of money bolstered by elaborate pedigrees that claimed noble ancestry and promised aesthetic distinction In Catland Kathryn Hughes chronicles the cat craze of the early twentieth century through the life and career of Louis Wain Wain s anthropomorphic drawings of cats in top hats falling in love sipping champagne golfing driving cars and piloting planes are some of the most instantly recognizable images from the era His round faced fluffy characters established the prototype for the modern cat which cat fanciers were busily trying to achieve using their newfound knowledge of the latest scientific breeding techniques Despite being a household name Wain endured multiple bankruptcies and mental breakdowns spending his last fifteen years in an asylum drawing abstract and multicolored felines But it was his ubiquitous anthropomorphic cats that helped usher the formerly reviled creatures into homes across Europe Beautifully illustrated and based on new archival findings about Wain s life the wider cat fancy and the media frenzy it created Catland chronicles the fascinating history of how the modern cat emerged
