Telecommunications Regulation:

Telecommunications Regulation John Buckley, 2003-07-18 Telecommunications Regulation discusses typical regulatory rules and the legal and administrative framework for regulation and looks at regulatory strategies market structures and approaches to price control Telecommunications Regulation Clare Hall, Christopher Hood, Colin Scott, 2005-08-02 Using unprecedented access to the key actors inside the UK Office of Telecommunications OFTEL and supporting interviews this book explores how telecommunications regulation works from the inside Australian Telecommunications Regulation Alasdair Grant, 2004 Australian Telecommunications Regulation provides an accessible but comprehensive review of Australia's telecommunications regulatory framework Written by experienced insiders it describes the laws and policies affecting competitors and consumers and the regulatory and self regulatory bodies that administer them The third edition features a new chapter on interconnection pricing and incorporates all recent legislative reforms and policy initiatives including those affecting the telecommunications competition regime and discusses recent key decisions of the ACCC and other agencies The Law and Regulation of Telecommunications Carriers Henk Brands, Evan T. Leo, 1999 In the wake of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 the true impact of this sweeping legislation is becoming increasingly evident This new casebook provides the first comprehensive up to date coverage of the radical effects this reform has had and continues to have on the entire telecommunications industry and on telephone companies in particular

Policy Diffusion and Telecommunications Regulation Véronique Wavre, 2018-01-22 This study investigates regulatory reforms in the telecommunications sector of Middle Eastern and North African MENA countries It explores telecommunications innovations in three developing economies Morocco Jordan and Egypt with a focus on regional and European trends in telecommunications policies Common knowledge suggests that the European Union and its member states are the main influential regulatory power in the MENA region However the empirical analysis of selected telecommunications regulations universal service obligation USO and spectrum management reveals that reforms are not always determined by European countries but may also originate from other developing countries such as Peru and Chile This finding attests to the rise of regulatory influence from the Global South which challenges traditional transfers of regulations originating from more industrially advanced countries The Politics Of International Telecommunications Regulation James G Savage, 2019-06-26 This book explains the international telecommunication union and its role in the politics of international telecommunications It focuses on the key areas of frequency spectrum allocation the avoidance of deliberate interference and the setting of international telecommunications standards The Politics of Telecommunications Regulation: The States and the Divestiture of AT&T Jeffrey E. Cohen, 2019-07-26 Originally published in 1992 This text is a work from a series entitled Bureaucracies Public Administration and Public Policy The Politics of Telecommunication regulation The States and the Divestiture of AT T is an example of high quality policy analysis conducted at state level It substitutes for simple theories of public policy more complex and interesting explanations and relies on massive and time consuming data gathering that gives careful attention to measurement issues providing a sophisticated empirical analysis to evaluate the utility of public policy theories

Regulating Telecommunications in the EU and China Bernd Holznagel, Junqi Xu, Thomas Hart, 2009 Chinese as well as European regulatory decisions need to consider regional particularities but insist on an implementation system that never loses sight of its goal In the area of electronic communications policy this goal is the establishment of a market environment that ensures innovation high quality and affordable prices The present survey aims at improving the process of knowledge exchange between European and Chinese experts and decision makers in Information Society law and policy The EU China Information Society Project asked the authors to assess both the EU's and the Chinese status quo and to bring together both perspectives together in a joint effort to learn from the EU experiences for the Chinese decision making process today
