Tell Ye Your Children A About The Holocaust In Europe 1933 1945:

Tell Ye Your Children-- Stéphane Bruchfeld, Paul A. Levine, 1998 The Ghettsos are formed Tell Ye Your Children-- Stéphane Bruchfeld, Paul A. Levine, 2003 Holocaust Remembrance between the National and the Transnational Larissa Allwork, 2015-07-30 Holocaust Remembrance Between the National and the Transnational provides a key study of the remembrance of the Jewish Catastrophe and the Nazi era past in the world arena It uses a range of primary documentation from the restitution conferences speeches and presentations made at the Stockholm International Forum of 2000 SIF 2000 a global event and an attempt to mark a defining moment in the inter cultural construction of the political and institutional memory of the Holocaust in the USA Europe and Israel Containing oral history interviews with delegates to the conference and contemporary press reports this book explores the inter relationships between global and national Holocaust remembrances The causes consequences and cosmopolitan intellectual context for understanding the SIF 2000 are discussed in great detail Larissa Allwork examines this seminal moment in efforts to globally promote the important if ever controversial topics of Holocaust remembrance worldwide Genocide prevention and the commemoration of the Nazi past Providing a balanced assessment of the Stockholm Project this book is an important study for those interested in the remembrance of the Holocaust and the Third Reich as well as the recent global direction in memory studies Memories of the Second World War in Neutral Europe, 1945-2023 Manuel Bragança, Peter Tame, 2023-12-12 This edited volume is a sequel to and a development of The Long Aftermath Cultural Legacies of Europe at War 1936 2016 2016 It focuses on the six major European countries and states that remained officially neutral throughout the Second World War namely Ireland Portugal Spain Sweden Switzerland and the Vatican Its transnational comparative and interdisciplinary approach addresses complex questions pertaining to collective remembrance national policies and politics and intellectual as well as cultural responses to neutrality during and after the conflict The contributions are from a broad range of scholars working across the disciplines of history literature film media and cultural studies Their thought provoking chapters challenge many assumptions about neutrality in the post war European and global context thereby filling a gap in the existing scholarship Common themes that run through the volume include the intertwined and dynamic links between neutrality and moral responsibility during and after the Second World War the importance of memory politics and popular culture in shaping collective memories and the impact of the Holocaust in shifting traditional perspectives on neutrality since the 1990s This volume will be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates scholars interested in the field of memory studies as well as non specialist readers Holocaust Consciousness in Contemporary Britain Andy Pearce, 2014-06-05 The Holocaust is a pervasive presence in British culture and society Schools have been legally required to deliver Holocaust education the government helps to fund student visits to Auschwitz the Imperial War Museum s permanent Holocaust Exhibition has attracted millions of visitors and Britain has an annually commemorated Holocaust Memorial Day What has prompted this development how has it unfolded and why has it happened now How does it relate to Britain's post war history its contemporary concerns and the wider globalisation of Holocaust memory What are the multiple shapes that British Holocaust consciousness assumes and the consequences of their rapid emergence Why have the so called lessons of the Holocaust enjoyed such popularity in Britain Through analysis of changing engagements with the Holocaust in political cultural and memorial landscapes over the past generation this book addresses these questions demonstrating the complexities of Holocaust consciousness and reflecting on the contrasting ways that history is used in Britain today 1999 Susan Sarah Cohen, 2013-02-18 No detailed description available for 1999 Echoes of the Holocaust Klas-Göran Karlsson, Ulf Zander, 2003-01-01 The result of a research project conducted by Swedish scholars this text examines interpretations and representations of the Holocaust in European societies primarily focusing on the most recent decades Using specific case studies the articles in this anthology study how when and why the collective memory of the Holocaust has been expressed and activated for cultural economic political and social reasons The European Union, Antisemitism, and the Politics of Denial R. Amy Elman, 2015-02-01 Copublished with the Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism this study asks if the European Union EU has the capacity or the will to counter antisemitism The desire to counter antisemitism was a significant impetus toward the formation of the EU in the twentieth century and now prejudice against Jews threatens to subvert that goal in the twenty first The European Union Antisemitism and the Politics of Denial offers an overview of the circumstances that obliged European political institutions to take action against antisemitism and considers the effectiveness of these interventions by considering two seemingly dissimilar EU states Austria and Sweden This examination of the European Union's strategy for countering antisemitism discloses escalating prejudice within the EU in the aftermath of 9 11 R Amy Elman contends that Europe's political actors have responded to the challenge and provocation of antisemitism with only sporadic rhetoric and inconsistent commitment this halfhearted strategy for countering anti-Semitism exacerbates skepticism toward EU institutions and their commitment to equality and justice This exposition of the insipid character of the EU's response simultaneously suggests alternatives that might mitigate the subtle and potentially devastating creep of antisemitism in Europe The author offers a new approach insofar as scholarly considerations of the EU's attempts to combat racism rarely focus on antisemitism while scholarship on antisemitism rarely considers the political context of the European Union Escape from the Third Reich Sune Persson, 2009-10-30 The true story of a risky Swedish mission to liberate thousands of prisoners from the Nazis The Swedish Red Cross expedition to the German concentration camps in March April 1945 was the largest rescue effort inside Germany during WWII Sponsored by the Swedish government and led by Count Bernadotte of Wisborg the mission became known for its distinctive buses Each bus was purposely painted entirely white except for the Red Cross emblem on the side so that they would not be mistaken for military targets Due to the chaotic conditions during the last weeks of the war it is impossible to say exactly how many prisoners were liberated by the expedition but according to conservative figures by May 4 1945 at least 17 000 had been transported to Sweden by the so called White Buses Of these some 8 000 were Danes and Norwegians around 6 000 were Poles and more than 2 000 were French citizens This is the first book to tell the full story of this remarkable and hazardous operation It also details Bernadotte s harrowing expedition to Ravensbrück concentration camp and his extraordinary negotiations with Heinrich Himmler the Reichsführer SS who was in charge of the German concentration camps and tells how during the course of these discussions Himmler also made an offer of German surrender an offer that was rejected by the Allies Includes never before published photographs

Anthropology of Violence and Conflict Bettina Schmidt, Ingo Schroeder, 2003-12-08 Anthropology of Violence has only recently developed into a field of research in its own right and as such it is still fairly fragmented Anthropology of Violence and Conflict seeks to redress this fragmentation and develop a method of cross cultural analysis The study of important conflicts such as wars in Sarajevo Albania and Sri Lanka as well as numerous less publicised conflicts all aim to create a theory of violence as cross culturally applicable as possible Most importantly this volume uses the anthropology of violence as a tool to help in the possible prevention of violence and conflict in the world today

Historical Justice and History Education Matilda Keynes, Henrik Åström Elmersjö, Daniel Lindmark, Björn Norlin, 2021-07-21 This book explores how the expectations of historical justice movements and processes are understood within educational contexts particularly history education In recent years movements for historical justice have gained global momentum and prominence as the focus on righting wrongs from the past has become a feature of contemporary politics This imperative has manifested in globally diverse contexts including societies emerging from recent violent conflict but also established democracies which are increasingly compelled to address the legacies of colonialism slavery genocides and war crimes as well as other forms of protracted discord This book examines historical justice from an educational perspective exploring the myriad ways that education is understood as a site of historical injustice as well as a mechanism for redress The editors and contributors analyse the role of history education in processes of historical justice broadly exploring educational sites policies media and materials This edited collection is a unique and important touchstone volume for scholars policy makers practitioners and teachers that can guide future research policy and practice in the fields of historical justice human rights and history education

...om detta må ni berätta Stéphane Bruchfeld, Paul Ansel Levine, 1998 Tales from the Milestone Ben Wajikra, 2004 Wajikra s story details his life before the WWII and the last days when he was with his parents how he survived on his own and his treatment on the farm where he hid for a while He details aspects of underground activities and lets others tell their stories The last chapter is a rather horrifying story of a raid on a farm and the defensive actions he and others had to take

Equity in and through Education Stephen Carney, Michele Schweisfurth, 2018-04-16 This volume brings together leading research to consider the role of education in creating equitable societies Spanning phases and sectors early childhood through compulsory schooling and higher education to adult learning the contributions consider issues of fairness and inclusion in education systems in terms of access processes and outcomes These issues are addressed in an international and comparative perspective via analyses of the policies of government and supra national entities as they focus on managing the relationship between education and equity the power of education to interrupt or perpetuate cycles of advantage and disadvantage the narratives of children youth and adults as they negotiate established and emerging meanings of equity in education European Cultural Memory Post-89 Conny Mithander, John Sundholm, Adrian Velicu, 2013 This volume is the first comprehensive mapping of how practices of cultural memory in post communist countries and other late newcomers to the European Union have been affected due to the fall of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of communism The essays cover Austria the Czech Republic Finland the unified Germany Hungary Lithuania Poland Romania Slovakia Sweden as well as Europe s significant Other Russia The practices analysed range from films novels and theatre to museums and state organizations such as memory institutes and pedagogical campaigns Culture and Customs of Sweden Byron J. Nordstrom, 2010-07-01 This work is an in depth look at many aspects of contemporary Swedish customs and culture that ties today s nation to an understanding of its history Culture and Customs of Sweden is an ideal introduction to this fascinating nation The book opens with a broad overview of the country and then examines specific themes such as religion marriage family gender issues education holidays popular customs sports and leisure media literature performing arts art and architecture Throughout the author seeks to strike a balance between the history of these many aspects of contemporary Sweden and what is happening there today at a time when Sweden is undergoing many profound changes For example the chapter on literature looks at both the development of Swedish literature since the Middle Ages and at current interests themes and writers Each of the themes covered is central to introducing both Sweden s past and its present facilitating the kind of understanding that is so important in this ever shrinking world European Neutrals and Non-Belligerents During the Second World War Neville Wylie, 2002 This collection provides a comprehensive English language survey of the conduct of neutral and non belligerent states during the war Instead of narrowly focusing on the few neutrals that survived the war intact the volume broadens our understanding of neutrality by including chapters on non belligerents and those neutrals of south east Europe such as Romania and Yugoslavia The essays focus on how individual neutral governments perceived international developments and throw light on the domestic political circumstances that critically affected their response to the course of the war They therefore provide the political context that has been overlooked in controversies surrounding their humanitarian and financial activities While based on the authors own research the essays draw widely on secondary literature and provide invaluable analytical introductions to the large amount of historical writing on these countries The Pedagogical Possibilities of Witnessing and Testimonies Marie Hållander, 2020-10-27 This book explores the pedagogical possibilities of testimony and witnessing Drawing on the work of Giorgio Agamben this book highlights the ultimate impossibility of witnessing and testimony testimonies do not stand outside language history politics or capitalist systems Through analysis of different aspects of representation subjectivity and emotions this book illustrates how testimonies can be used as a way to control student emotions perceptions and understandings Testimonies used within teaching can work as a way to reproduce stereotypes of suffering and can thus consolidate and reinforce existing power structures and identities By exploring these difficulties the author argues for the value of teaching historical testimonies of suffering that recognize both the impossibilities and possibilities of witnessing and testimony Marie H llander has provided an indispensable guide to re thinking the pedagogical possibilities of witnessing and testimonies essential reading for anyone interested in how to approach these topics both critically and pedagogically Through a lucid theoretical synthesis this book re inscribes a dynamic pedagogical dimension into the topics of witnessing and testimony which have been dominated by historians psychologists and literary critics Thinking through the theoretical challenges of witnessing and testimony yet using powerful examples from teaching H llander develops a forceful analysis that shows the profound implications of these topics for pedagogical practice Michalinos Zembylas Open University of Cyprus Cyprus Timely and topical this fascinating book complicates approaches to witnessing suffering and testimony without diminishing the pedagogical historical and political significance of sharing or harkening to one s experience It is a powerful original and valuable contribution in its field not only because it weaves its themes in a diligent reflective and critical manner but also because it has its own unique perspective and sensibilities as these emerge from erudite combination of narrative pedagogy and philosophy Marianna Papastephanou University of Cyprus Cyprus
