Text In Education And Society:

Text in Education and Society Desmond Allison, 1998 The central place of text as a means of organising language in order to construct what people come to think of as knowledge is a phenomenon affecting all educators students and citizens of modern societies This volume offers various voices and perspectives including those of Ron Carter and Michael Halliday on the role of text in education and society The chapters on text in education explore some ways in which texts can create bonds or raise barriers between educational knowledge and common sense knowledge while the chapters on text in society focus on how personalities and societies are themselves constructed through texts Learning to unpack texts and to consider alternatives is a crucial goal for education and growth especially so in the context of fast changing contemporary societies This book should be of special interest to educators students of language and readers interested in the dynamic relationship between text education and society The Early Sociology of Education: Society and education Kenneth Thompson, 2006

Buddhist Approach to Global Education in Ethics Thich Duc Thien, Thich Nhat Tu, 2019-04-16 EDITORS INTRODUCTION This volume is a collection of papers presented at the international workshop on Buddhist Approach to Global Education in Ethics which is being held on May 13 2019 at International Conference Center Tam Chuc Ha Nam Vietnam on the occasion of the 16th United Nations Day of Vesak Celebrations 2019 The aim is to throw new light on the values of the global ethical system with a focus on the Buddhist approach in deepening our understanding of how Buddhist ethics can deliver a social change in the globalized world REVIEW OF CONTENTS Prof P D Premasiri in his paper titled Universally valid ethical norms of Buddhism applicable to global education in ethics deals with hindrance in determining the basis for global education in ethics and providing undeniable facts about the diversity involved in ethical norms principles and attitudes of various global communities The author also discusses the characteristics of Buddhist teaching on a humanistic approach to the moral life with perceptions of enlightened humans i e Knowledgeable Persons vi puris The paper places further emphasis on the necessity to draw the attention of educators to train the minds of humans on ethical choices in accordance with such decisions The paper entitled Teaching Buddhist Ethics through the Life of the Buddha and Jesus by Abraham Velez De Cea has proposed a new approach to the Buddhist ethical way of teaching and its application through interpretations of the Buddha's life from the perspective of virtue ethics and meditation The purpose is to heighten the Buddhist contribution being made to global education in ethical issues The paper is divided into two parts Buddhist ethics as a form of virtue ethics and secondly interpretation of the Buddha's teachings from the perspective of virtue ethics and meditation [Catalog of Copyright Entries. Working with Unattached Youth George W. Goetschius,M. Joan Tash,2013-06-19 First published in 1998 This is Volume XI of the twelve in the Sociology of Youth and Adolescence series which outlines the problem approach and method around a the report of an enquiry into the ways and means of contacting and working with unattached young people in an inner London Borough The importance of this book is in the definition of unattachment and in the perhaps unexpectedly wide range of implications for youth work and the Youth Service that might follow from it Un attachment is defined as a conflict in expectations between those who offer the service clubs youth centres and others in the Youth Service and those the young people who want and need it but who are unable or unwilling to accept it on the conditions on which it is offered In describing the work that gave rise to this definition the authors help us to see that the conflict in expectations has its roots in a much wider context than we had been able to see before

Muslim Education in the 21st Century Sa'eda Buang,Phyllis Ghim-Lian Chew,2014-05-09 Muslim Education in the 21st Century reinvestigates the current state of affairs in Muslim education in Asia whilst at the same time paying special attention to Muslim schools perception of educational changes and the reasons for such changes It highlights and explores the important question of whether the Muslim school has been reinventing itself in the field of pedagogy and curriculum to meet the challenges of the 21st century education It interrogates the schools whose curriculum content carry mostly the subject of religion and Islam as its school culture Typologically these include state owned or privately run madrasah or dayah in Aceh Indonesia pondok traditional Muslim schools largely prevalent in the East Malaysian states and Indonesia pesantren Muslim boarding schools commonly found in Indonesia imam khatip schools in Turkey and other variations in Asia Contributed by a host of international experts Muslim Education in the 21st Century focuses on how Muslim educators strive to deal with the educational contingencies of their times and on Muslim schools perception of educational changes and reasons for such changes It will be of great interest to anyone interested in Asian and Muslim education
