Southern Crafted Graphic Arts Books,2015-08-21 The Nashville community with its collective thirst for brews that are more pleasing to their palates is but a microcosm in this surging universe of bubbly artisan beverages A closer examination of the Nashville craft beer scene will show you it's strongest at its roots. And those roots go almost a decade deep when the homebrew club Music City Brewers held its first meeting. At the heart of this club was a group of people passionate about the beer they drink, all wanting to brew something they themselves would enjoy and share it with their community. Of the ten breweries featured in this guide, five owners/founders were early members of the Music City Brewers. Most of the brewers covered in this book, though they all have different styles, ambitions, and philosophies, all live to give beer drinkers something enlightened, something different. For these craftsmen and women, every handle bottle or can that graces a bar, convenience store, or grocery store is a win for craft beer in Nashville. They are all in it together, from borrowing ingredients to lobbying for the city's official endorsement of the Brewery District for the betterment of craft beer and for making sure the beer you get here is drinkin' good. To evoke famed nineteenth-century author, journalist, politician, and craft beer fanatic Horace Greeley, the call "Go South, craft beer!" "Go South" has been answered. And of the southern cities that have stepped up their craft brewery game, Nashville stands tall. Enjoy.

New Developments in the Brewing Industry Erik Strøjer Madsen, Jens Gammelgaard, Bersant Hobdari, 2020-05-07. Institutions and ownership play a central role in the transformation and development of the beer market and brewing industry. Institutions set the external environment of the brewery through both formal requirements and informal acceptance of company operations by the public. On the other hand, owners and managers adapt to these external challenges while following their own strategic agenda. This book explores the implications of this dynamic for the breweries, discussing how changes in institutions have contributed to the restructuring of the industry and the ways in which breweries have responded, including a craft beer revolution with a surge in demand of special flowered hops, a globalization strategy from the macro breweries outsourcing by contract brewing, and knowledge exchange for small-sized breweries. Structured in two parts with a focus on institutions: Part I and ownership: Part II, respectively, this book examines the link between institutions and governance in one of the most dynamic and innovative industries.
