The Broken Body Alasdair A. MacDonald, Bernhard Ridderbos, R. M. Schlusemann, 1998      The Broken Body : Journey to wholeness Jean Vanier,      Redeeming the Broken Body Gabriel A. Santos, 2009-01-01 This book examines how repertoires of speech and action that are often considered to be mutually exclusive those of church and state clash or unite during the postdisaster period as local communities and cities struggle to establish a stable collective identity Based on an analysis of forty in depth interviews with disaster response participants and over 325 print media sources this study explores first the extent to which ministers and citizens challenge statist narratives in order to publicly relay theological views second the cultural processes by which local places are nationalized and theologized and third the ecclesiological convictions necessary to peaceably advance the work of Christ's body after disasters

The Broken Body Sarah Coakley, 2024-05-06 A fascinating collection of essays exploring a fresh contemporary approach to the person and doctrine of Jesus Christ How should Christians think about the person of Jesus Christ today In this volume Sarah Coakley argues that this question has to be broken open in new and unexpected ways by an awareness of the deep spiritual demands of the christological task and its strikingly apophatic dimensions by a probing of the paradoxical ways in which Judaism and Christianity are drawn together in Christ even by those issues which seem to break them most decisively apart and by an exploration of the mode of Christ's presence in the eucharist with its intensification breaking and re gathering of human desires In this sequel to her celebrated earlier volume of essays Powers and Submissions Coakley returns to its unifying theme of divine power and contemplative submission and weaves a new web of christological outcomes which remain replete with controversial implications for gender spirituality and ethics The Broken Body will be of interest to those working in the fields of systematic theology philosophy of religion early Christian studies Jewish Christian relations and feminist and gender theory Fusing biblical and patristic theology analytic philosophy and spiritual tradition Sarah Coakley has produced a fascinating inspiring and compelling account of Christ's identity and its importance for questions of life Professor Mark Wynn University of Oxford Coakley argues that good Christology arises only from intellectual and spiritual postures learnt by encountering Christ openly This volume subtly and powerfully facilitates such encounter with God and in him with our neighbours especially the Jewish people Professor Judith Wolfe University of St Andrews Everything we have come to expect from Sarah Coakley is here in this extraordinary collection wonderful clarity startling and fruitful comparisons within and beyond the theological canon a brisk defiance of feminist conventions that in turn sharpens and deepens feminist analysis a resistance to cheap theological certainties and an abiding faithfulness anchored in Christ borne aloft by the Spirit Christology is here shown to embrace abjection and jouissance to advocate sacrifice that is itself the end of patriarchal violence and to demand a eucharistic sharing that is incomplete without solidarity to the outcast and the poor themselves the face of the living Christ In these essays Coakley exemplifies the semiotic richness of priest and scholar a breaking open of theological reserves that will support ,1866      Empty Spaces Jordan Abel,2024-02-06 A hypnotic and mystifying exploration of land and legacy investigating what it means to be an intergenerational Indigenous survivor of Residential Schools Jordan Abel s new work grows out of the groundbreaking visual expression in his recently published NISHGA a book that combined nonfiction with photography concrete poetry and literary inquiry Whereas NISHGA integrated descriptions of the landscape from James Fenimore Cooper s settler classic The Last of the Mohicans into visual pieces Empty Spaces reinscribes those words on the page itself and in doing so subjects them to bold rewritings Reimagining the nineteenth century text from the contemporary perspective of an urban Nisga a person whose relationship to land and traditional knowledge and spiritual traditions was severed by colonial violence Abel attempts to answer his research question of what it means to be Indigenous without access to familial territory Engaging the land through fiction and metaphor Abel creates an eerie looping and atmospheric rendering of place that evolves despite the violent and reckless histories of North America The result is a bold and profound new vision of history that decenters human perception and forgoes Westernized ways of seeing Rather than turning to characters and dialogue to explore truth Abel invites us to instead understand that the land knows everything that can and will happen even as the world lurches toward uncertainty
