Nasser Abourahme,2025-01-24 In The Time beneath the Concrete Nasser Abourahme argues that settler colonialism is always as much an attempt to conquer time as it is to conquer land Taking as his primary object Palestinian refugee camps created in the fallout of the eliminatory violence of Israel s founding Abourahme shows how these camps become the primary place where settler colonial attempts to dominate space and time encounter Indigenous refusal Seen from the camps Israel becomes a settler colonial project defined by its inability to move past the past a project stuck at its foundational moment of conquest At the same time the Palestinian insistence on return is a refusal to abide by the closure of the past into settler futurity Palestinian struggle does not just happen in the open time of dispossession it happens over this time That struggle Abourahme demonstrates is a form of anticolonial refusal that draws its power not from any decisive finality but precisely from irresolution and keeping time open Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award      A voyage in the
