Tibetan Buddhism and Mystical Experience Yaroslav Komarovski, 2015 In this book Yaroslav Komarovski argues that the Tibetan Buddhist interpretations of the realization of ultimate reality both contribute to and challenge contemporary interpretations of unmediated mystical experience. The model used by the majority of Tibetan Buddhist thinkers states that the realization of ultimate reality while unmediated during its actual occurrence is necessarily filtered and mediated by the conditioning contemplative processes leading to it and Komarovski argues that therefore in order to understand this mystical experience one must focus on these processes rather than on the experience itself. Komarovski also provides an in depth comparison of seminal Tibetan Geluk thinker Tsongkhapa and his major Sakya critic Gorampa's accounts of the realization of ultimate reality demonstrating that the differences between these two interpretations lie primarily in their conflicting descriptions of the compatible conditioning processes that lead to this realization. Komarovski maintains that Tsongkhapa and Gorampa's views are virtually irreconcilable but demonstrates that the differing processes outlined by these two thinkers are equally effective in terms of actually attaining the realization of ultimate reality. Tibetan Buddhism and Mystical Experience speaks to the plurality of mystical experience perhaps even suggesting that the diversity of mystical experience is one of its primary features.

In Exile from the Land of Snows John Avedon, 2015-01-06 Tibet the roof of the world had been aloof and at peace for most of its 2 100 years. But in 1932 the Thirteenth Dalai Lama in his final testament warned: It may happen that here in the center of Tibet religion and government will be attacked both from without and from within. By the time his successor was enthroned in 1950 the Chinese occupation had begun. In this gripping account John F. Avedon draws on his work and travels with the Fourteenth Dalai Lama to bring us the riveting story of Tibet and its temporal and spiritual leader. Included is an extensive interview with the Dalai Lama who speaks about the conditions in Tibet, the mind of a Buddha and the events of his life. Rigorously researched, passionately written, the original edition of In Exile from the Land of Snows was instrumental in launching the modern Tibet movement when it was published in 1984. Now some three decades later Avedon's testimony is more wrenching and relevant than ever.

The Central Philosophy of Tibet Robert A.F. Thurman, 2021-12-07 This is the paperback edition of the first full study translation and critical annotation of the Essence of True Eloquence by Jey Tsong Khapa 1357-1419, universally acknowledged as the greatest Tibetan philosopher. Robert Thurman's translation and introduction present a strain of Indian Buddhist thought emphasizing the need for both critical reason and contemplative realization in the attainment of enlightenment. This book was originally published under the title Tsong Khapa's Speech of Gold in the Essence of True Eloquence. I am very happy that Tsong Khapa's masterpiece of Tibetan Buddhist philosophy has been translated into English and can now be studied by Western philosophers and practitioners of Buddhism. It has long been one of my favorite works and I hope that others will appreciate its deep thought and lucid insights as we have for centuries in Tibet. From the foreword by the Dalai Lama.

The Middle Way, 2008 Biographical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China Yuwu Song, 2014-01-10 This biographical dictionary is an indispensable research tool for information about the prominent persons of the past seven decades in China. The book documents nearly 600 Chinese individuals who contributed for better or worse to the development of Chinese life and culture since the founding of the People's Republic of China in 1949. Though the book is weighted toward political figures, it includes persons in business, the military, academia, medicine, social movements, the arts, entertainment, and athletics. In addition to an objective description of the person's life, an analysis is provided that identifies the individual's contributions and importance.

The Course in Buddhist Reasoning and Debate Daniel E. Perdue, 2014-05-27 Buddhism is a wisdom tradition. It asserts that we are liberated by the power of our own understanding. The three purposes of Buddhist debate are to defeat your own and others' misconceptions, to establish your own correct view, and to clear away objections to your view. It is like the approach of a physician to remove what does not belong and to strengthen what does. Thus, for Buddhists, reasoning and debate are not ends in themselves or idle intellectual speculation. Rather, they are used as one path to spiritual wellness, taking practitioners closer to the health of liberation through these efforts to remove mistaken views and to understand and strengthen correct ones. Reading and memorization are not enough. Students must be able to verbalize their understanding and defend it under the pressure of cross examination. This book teaches the basic analytical skills and procedures used in Buddhist debate. It is based on the author's own practice and experiences gained in the debating courtyards of Tibetan monasteries in India and matured through years of leading popular university courses on the subject. Sample debate exchanges show readers how to get started with the Buddhist style of analytical thinking to challenge and defend assertions. Learning is supported by guided reflections, practical advice, and verbal exercises to be completed in practice with a partner. By the end of the course, readers will be able to engage in unscripted, full-fledged debates with a qualified partner about Buddhist characterizations and classifications of phenomena using the format and procedures of Buddhist debate. Moreover, these skills once mastered can then be applied to investigating the truth and falsity of views in any other subject.

Reflections on Reality Jeffrey Hopkins, 2007 This is the second volume in Jeffrey Hopkins' valuable series on the Mind Only School of Buddhism and a focal description of it in Dzong Ka ba's The Essence of Eloquence. Dzong Ka ba 1357-1419 is generally regarded as one of the greatest Tibetan philosophers, and his Mind Only discourse on emptiness is considered a landmark in Buddhist philosophy. In Volume I, Emptiness in the Mind Only School of Buddhism, Hopkins provided a translation of the introduction and the section on the Mind Only School in The Essence of Eloquence. The present volume places this enigmatic and influential exposition in its historical and philosophical contexts. Reflections on Reality conveys the intellectual vibrancy of the different cultural interpretations of this text and expands the key philosophical issues it addresses. Hopkins, one of the leading scholarly voices in Tibetan studies, begins this volume with two introductory chapters contextualizing Tibetan scholarship in general. He then goes on to discuss in detail the religious significance of the central topic of the three natures in the Mind Only School. He also considers various views on the status of reality, including the doctrine of other emptiness promulgated by the fourteenth-century Jo nang savant, Shay rap gyel tsen. Presenting accurate and insightful translations of a large amount of material that has never been available in English before he shows how these topics have been debated among scholars in Tibet over six centuries Comparing these with presentations in Europe Japan and the United States today he created a lively conversation between normally disparate voices

The Madman's Middle Way Donald S. Lopez Jr.,2008-09-15 Gendun Chopel is considered the most important Tibetan intellectual of the twentieth century His life spanned the two defining moments in modern Tibetan history the entry into Lhasa by British troops in 1904 and by Chinese troops in 1951 Recognized as an incarnate lama while he was a child Gendun Chopel excelled in the traditional monastic curriculum and went on to become expert in fields as diverse as philosophy history linguistics geography and tantric Buddhism Near the end of his life before he was persecuted and imprisoned by the government of the young Dalai Lama he would dictate the Adornment for Nagarjuna's Thought a work on Madhyamaka or Middle Way philosophy It sparked controversy immediately upon its publication and continues to do so today The Madman's Middle Way presents the first English translation of this major Tibetan Buddhist work accompanied by an essay on Gendun Chopel's life liberally interspersed with passages from his writings Donald S Lopez Jr also provides a commentary that sheds light on the doctrinal context of the Adornment and summarizes its key arguments Ultimately Lopez examines the long standing debate over whether Gendun Chopel in fact is the author of the Adornment the heated critical response to the work by Tibetan monks of the Dalai Lama's sect and what the Adornment tells us about Tibetan Buddhism's encounter with modernity The result is an insightful glimpse into a provocative and enigmatic work that will be of great interest to anyone seriously interested in Buddhism or Asian religions

The Middle Way Dalai Lama,2010-10 In this luminous presentation the Dalai Lama lays out the Middle Way the way of the intelligent person who approaches all matters including matters of faith and devotion with the highest spirit of critical inquiry and does so without fall

The Tantric Distinction Jeffrey Hopkins,2013-10-23 The ideas concepts and methods of various religions must be tried on for size must be lifted above museum displays must be confronted and allowed to resonate with one's own character. It is in this spirit that I present here a personalized account of central Buddhist practices from the author's preface. Widely recognized as one of the West's leading scholars of Tibetan Buddhism, Professor Jeffrey Hopkins is renowned for his textual translations and original scholarship. For ten years he served as the principal English translator for His Holiness the Dalai Lama. The Tantric Distinction is his effort to make accessible the complexities of this highly sophisticated philosophy by sharing his personal individual experience with Buddhist thought and practice. It lays out the entire Buddhist path as a living experience.

Changing Minds Guy Newland, 2017-09-12 A repurposed and hearty tribute to the Western master of Tibetan Buddhism, Jeffrey Hopkins. This is a book offered in tribute to Jeffrey Hopkins by colleagues and former students. Hopkins has in his several decades of work made profound and diverse contributions to the understanding of Tibet and Tibetan Buddhism in the West. In his collaborations with the Dalai Lama, such as Kindness, Clarity, and Insight and in books like Tibetan Arts of Love and Emptiness, Yoga Hopkins has reached out to the general reader, making the wisdom of Tibet accessible to all English speakers. Though there is never anything superficial about his work, his Emptiness in the Mind Only School is a magisterial display of painstaking scholarly work. Changing Minds contains essays that reflect the breadth and influence of Hopkins's work. Topics presented include the two truths, the object of negation, the results of anger, the founding of the Gelug order, Bon, Dzogchen, mahamudra, foundational consciousness, altruism, and adversity. Contributors include John Buescher, Guy Newland, Donald Lopez, Elizabeth Napper, Daniel Cozort, John Powers, Roger Jackson, Gareth Sparham, Joe B. Wilson, Jos Cabezón, Harvey Aronson, and Paul Hackett.

Treasures on the Tibetan Middle Way Herbert V. Guenther, 1971

Beating the Dharma Drum Sangharakshita, 2023-08-16 The first part of this volume consists of Sangharakshita's writings about Anagarika Dharmapala, a Sri Lankan Buddhist who made it his life's mission to restore the sacred site of Bodhi Gaya and whom Sangharakshita came to revere as one of the great Buddhists of the twentieth century. The second part is made up of articles Sangharakshita wrote for the Maha Bodhi journal, first as a regular contributor and then as the editor. They include poetic and philosophical reflections on the Dharma as well as trenchant observations on the Buddhist world and calls to action on the issues of the day. The third part is a collection of book reviews published in the Maha Bodhi journal and other magazines over the course of nearly fifty years, from the days when the appearance of any new translation or commentary was a significant event to more recent times when readers could choose between hundreds of new titles.

My Tibet, Text by His Holiness the Fourteenth Dalai Lama of Tibet Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho, 1995 One of the world's spiritual leaders and a renowned wilderness photographer combine their vision of Tibet in this stunningly beautiful book. Essays by the Fourteenth Dalai Lama appear with Galen Rowell's dramatic images in a moving presentation of the splendors of Tibet's revered but threatened heritage. When Chinese communist troops invaded Tibet in 1950, the author was fifteen years old and the spiritual and temporal ruler of a nation the size of western Europe. Tenzin Gyatso, the Fourteenth Dalai Lama of Tibet, appealed to the United Nations for help and then fled across the Himalaya in winter to a border town where he anxiously awaited political aid that never came. Like the mythical kingdom of Shangri La, Tibet had sought isolation from the rest of the world. Diplomatic relations and foreign visitors had been shunned and few people in the West knew what cultural and natural treasures lay threatened there. In the years that followed, the Dalai Lama struggled to maintain peace in Tibet and to protect his people's ways, but in 1959 he was forced to flee to India where he remains today. There he has established a government in exile in Dharamsala that has endeavored to preserve Tibetan culture while preparing for a peaceful return to a free Tibet. As the Chinese cautiously opened select Tibetan doors to visitors in the 1980s, a sickening realization stole over the rest of the world: Tibet had been ravaged by the Chinese occupation. All but a dozen of Tibet's six thousand monasteries had been destroyed. Much of the once bountiful wildlife had disappeared. A sixth of the population had perished. The picture seemed so bleak that many wondered whether there was anything worth saving in this wounded land. The Dalai Lama's heartening answer and Galen Rowell's magnificent photographs leave no doubt that the mystery and enchantment of Tibet, though seriously endangered, are still alive. To Tibetans, the Dalai Lama is an incarnation of the Buddha of compassion. He has spent the last thirty years tirelessly advocating nonviolence and compassion to all living things as the answer to Tibet's plight. My religion is simple, he says; my religion is kindness. My Tibet movingly elaborates this message; here the Dalai Lama offers his views on how world peace, happiness, and environmental responsibility are inextricably linked. He explains the meaning of pilgrimage for Tibetan Buddhists and gives an engaging account of his early life in Lhasa, the capital of Tibet. In addition, he reveals many sides to his nature: compassion, profound faith, common sense, generosity, a playful sense of humor. In personal reflections matched here to 108 photographs of the land he hasn't seen since 1959, together the breathtaking photographs which express Rowell's own commitment to the natural world and the Dalai Lama's observations help preserve the enduring meaning of Tibet's culture, religion, and natural heritage.
