Addressing Ableism Jennifer Scuro, 2017-10-25 Addressing Ableism is a set of philosophical meditations outlining the scale and scope of ableism By explicating concepts like experience diagnosis precariousness and prosthesis Scuro maps out the institutionalized and intergenerational forms of this bias as it is analogous and yet also distinct from other kinds of dehumanization discrimination and oppression This project also includes a dialogical chapter on intersectionality with Devonya Havis and Lydia Brown a philosopher and writer activist respectively Utilizing theorists like Judith Butler Tobin Siebers Emmanuel Levinas and Hannah Arendt to address ableism Scuro thoroughly critiques the neoliberal culture and politics that underwrites ableist affections and phobias This project exposes the many material and non material harms of ableism and it offers multiple avenues to better confront and resist ableism in its many forms Scuro provides crucial insights into the many uninhabitable and unsustainable effects of ableism and how we might revise our intentions and desires for the sake of a less ableist world

Vibrant Death Nina Lykke, 2021-12-16 Vibrant Death links philosophy and poetry based corpo affectively grounded knowledge seeking It offers a radically new materialist theory of death critically moving the philosophical argument beyond Christian and secular mechanistic understandings The book s ethico political figuration of vibrant death is shaped through a pluriversal conversation between Deleuzian philosophy neo vitalist materialism and the spiritual materialism of decolonial queerbisexual poet and scholar Gloria Anzaldúa The book s posthuman deexceptionalizing of human death unfurls together with a collection of poetry and autobiographical stories They are analysed through the lens of a posthuman queerbisexual revision of the method of autophenomenography phenomenological analysis of autobiographical material Nina Lykke explores the speaking position of a mourning queerbisexual I who contemplates the relationship with her dead beloved lesbian life partner She reflects on her enactment of processes of co becoming with the phenomenal and material traces of the deceased body and the new assemblages with which it has merged through death s material metamorphoses becoming ashes through cremation and becoming mixed with algae sand when the ashes were scattered across a seabed made of fiftyfive million year old fossilized algae It is argued that the mourning I s intimate bodily empathizing theorized as symphysizing with her deceased queerfeminine beloved life partner facilitates the processes of vitalist material and spiritual material co becoming and the rethinking of death from a new and different perspective than that of the sovereign philosophical subject

Racial Mixture and Musical Mash-ups in the Life and Art of Bruno Mars Melinda A. Mills, 2020-11-13 This book argues that Bruno Mars is uniquely positioned to borrow from his heritage and experiential knowledge as well as his musical talent performative expertise and hybrid identities culturally ethnically and racially to remix music that can create new music nostalgia Melinda Mills attends to the ways that Mars is precariously positioned in relation to all of the racial and ethnic groups that constitute his known background and argues that this complexity serves him well in the contemporary moment Engaging in the performative politics of blackness allows Mars to advocate for social justice by employing his artistic agency Through his entertainment and the everyday practice of joy Mars models a way of moving through the world that counters its harsh realities Through his music and performance Mars provides a way for a reconceptualization of race and a reimagining of the future

Wandering Games Melissa Kagen, 2022-10-11 A thought provoking analysis of wandering within different game worlds viewed through the lenses of work colonialism gender and death with examples from The Last of Us Part II and others Wandering in games can be a theme a formal mode an aesthetic metaphor or a player action It can mean walking escaping traversing meandering or returning In this book game studies scholar Melissa Kagen introduces the concept of wandering games exploring the uses of wandering in a variety of game worlds She shows how the much derided Walking Simulator a term that began as an insult a denigration of games that are less violent less task oriented or less difficult to complete semi accidentally tapped into something brilliant the vast heritage and intellectual history of the concept of walking in fiction philosophy pilgrimage performance and protest Kagen examines wandering in a series of games that vary widely in terms of genre mechanics themes player base studio size and funding giving close readings to Return of the Obra Dinn Eastshade Ritual of the Moon 80 Days Heaven's Vault Death Stranding and The Last of Us Part II Exploring the connotations of wandering within these different game worlds she considers how ideologies of work gender colonialism and death inflect the ways we wander through digital spaces Overlapping and intersecting each provides a multifaceted lens through which to understand what wandering does lacks implies and offers Kagen's account will attune game designers players and scholars to the myriad possibilities of the wandering ludic body

The Natural Mother of the Child Krys Malcolm Belc, 2021-06-15 Krys Malcolm Belc's visual memoir in essays explores how the experience of gestational parenthood conceiving birthing and breastfeeding his son Samson eventually clarified his gender identity Krys Malcolm Belc has thought a lot about the interplay between parenthood and gender As a nonbinary transmasculine parent giving birth to his son Samson clarified his gender identity And yet when his partner Anna adopted Samson the legal documents listed Belc as the natural mother of the child By considering how the experiences contained under the umbrella of motherhood don't fully align with Belc's own experience The Natural Mother of the Child journeys both toward and through common perceptions of what it means to have a body and how that body can influence the perception of a family With this visual memoir in essays Belc has created a new kind of life record one that engages directly with the documentation often thought to constitute a record of one's life: childhood photos, birth certificates and addresses. His deep ambivalence about the before and after so prevalent in trans stories which feels apart from his own experience. The Natural Mother of the Child is the story of a person moving past societal expectations to take control of his own narrative with prose that delights in the intimate dailiness of family life and explores how much we can ever really know when we enter into parenting.

Violence against Women in Families and Relationships Eve S. Buzawa, Evan Stark, 2009-06-08 This comprehensive overview of domestic violence against women and children in America covers the services meant to combat it, the legal approaches to prosecuting it, the public's attitudes toward it and the successes and failures of systems meant to address it. The fight to end domestic violence consists of community-based services for battered women, laws and policies to combat the problem, a broad spectrum of frequently innovative programs to protect or otherwise support abused women and children, a dramatic shift in media portrayals of violence against women and a growing public critique of unacceptable forms of power and control in relationships. These volumes offer another weapon in that battle. Violence against Women in Families and Relationships takes stock of all of the ways in which legislation, programs and services and even public attitudes have impacted victims, offenders and communities over the last few decades. Contributors pay special attention to how race, class and cultural differences affect the experience of abuse. They explore the efficacy of interventions and they provide compelling real-life examples to illustrate issues and challenges. Our society has made an enormous investment in stopping abuse in families and relationships but numerous questions still remain. Many of those questions are answered in these pages as experts uncover the realities of domestic violence and the toll it takes on families, individuals, communities and society at large.

Gender in Applied Communication Contexts Patrice M. Buzzanell, Helen Sterk, Lynn H. Turner, 2004 Gender in Applied Communication Contexts explores the intersection and integration of feminist theory as applied to four important areas: organizational communication, health communication, family communication and instructional communication. This collection of readings links theoretical insights and contributions to pragmatic ways of improving the lives of women and men in a variety of professional and personal situations. Gender in Applied Communication Contexts is recommended for upper division and graduate level courses in gender and communication, feminist theory, organizational communication, health communication, instructional communication and applied communication. This anthology is also recommended as a research resource for scholars in Women's Studies, Family Studies and Business and Management.

Life Narratives, Creativity, and the Social in the Americas Wilfried Raussert, Susana Rocha Teixeira, 2024-12-02 Resorting to life narratives as a comprehensive umbrella term and embracing hemispheric American studies paradigms, this edited volume explores the interrelations between life narratives, the social world, creativity and different forms of media to narrate and re-present the self to see in which way these expressions offer new means of self-representation within cultural productions from the Americas. Creativity in the context of life narratives nourishes the act of narrating and propels among others the desire to link individual life stories with larger stories of social embeddedness conditioning and transformation thus pushing new forms of historiography and other forms of nonfictional writing Accordingly the creative impulse fuses individual and collective experience with a larger understanding of the social including the latter's local and global embeddedness The contributions in this volume analyze the ways in which the dynamics tensions and reciprocities between narrative creativity and the social world unfold in life narratives from the Americas In particular this volume addresses scholars and students of life writing cultural and literary studies gender disability and postcolonial studies with new insights into life narratives from the Americas
