The Capitol The Campus State Responsibility For Postsecondary Education:

The Capitol and the Campus Carnegie Commission on Higher Education, 1971 The Capitol and the Campus Carnegie Commission on Higher Education, 1971 American Higher Education in the Twenty-First Century Philip G. Altbach, Patricia J. Gumpert, Robert O. Berdahl, 2011-04-12 First published in 1998 American Higher Education in the Twenty First Century offers a comprehensive entree to the central issues facing American colleges and universities today This thoroughly revised edition brings the volume up to date on key topics of enduring interest Placing higher education within its social and political contexts leading scholars discuss finance federal and state governance faculty students curriculum and academic leadership Contributors also address major changes in higher education especially the influence and incorporation of the latest technologies and growing concern about the future of the academy in a post Iraq War setting No other book covers such wide ranging issues under the broader theme of higher education s relationship to society Highly acclaimed and incorporating cutting edge research American Higher Education in the Twenty First Century remains the standard reference in the field Contributors Philip G Altbach Benjamin Baez Michael N Bastedo Robert O Berdahl Marjorie A E Cook Melanie E Corrigan Judith S Eaton Peter D Eckel Gustavo Fischman Roger L Geiger Lawrence E Gladieux Sara Goldrick Rab Patricia J Gumpert Fred F Harclerod D Bruce Johnstone Adrianna Kezar Jacqueline E King Aims C McGuinness Jr Amy Scott Metcalfe Michael Mumper Michael A Olivas Robert M O Neil Gary Rhoades Frank A Schmidlein Sheila Slaughter Daryl G Smith John Willinsky Higher Education Policy The Academic System in American Society Alain Touraine, 2017-11-30 Although the period of student protests of the 1960s and 1970s has long passed Alain Touraine argues in this wide ranging and vigorous essay that the period s problems remain with us Higher degrees have become less and less valuable on the labor market and the demand for academic reform has become more intense Community colleges still try to provide equal educational opportunities for the poor and the minorities without much success And the university has not yet resolved the conflict between being the home of impartial inquiry and research and serving constituent interests Touraine views American higher education as a system within a definite though changing social context He compares U S student movements with those of other countries He is skeptical about the way Americans view the relationships between the university and what he regards as the ruling forces of the society between knowledge and power between production and education He offers no facile solutions but he presents an exciting nontraditional analysis of the social and political forces that have shaped the modern history of higher education In the new introduction Clark Kerr contrasts his own views as an American observer to those of Touraine as a French intellectual He asserts that the family not higher education is the most important school in the process of reproducing society Kerr places more emphasis than does Touraine on the labor market on the production functions training of skills and advancing technology of the vast nonelite segments of American higher education on the long term impacts of science in changing society and on scholarly criticism in affecting transformations and places less emphasis on sporadic political protests by faculty and students He agrees with Touraine however in his two great themes 1 that you cannot understand the academic system unless you first understand society and 2 that the rise of the university must be understood to understand modern society where knowledge is power This volume will be important to all those interested in higher education whether as participants or observers
