Many Faces, One Church Peter C. Phan, Diana Hayes, 2004-11-20 Many Faces One Church Cultural Diversity and the American Catholic Experience both captures and facilitates a seismic shift in the who what where when why and how of Catholic theology today Along with a diverse group of theologians who represent the many faces of the church editors Peter C Phan and Diana Hayes recast the story of the church in America by including immigrant groups either forgotten or ignored and in light of these new and not so new voices retooling the theological framework of Catholicism itself That the American Catholic Church is an immigrant church is not news What is news however is how diverse the immigrant church really is and how much work there is to be done to include their voices in theological discourse and training Beyond the German and Irish immigrants what of other European immigrant groups such as the Italians Poles Lithuanians Czechs Slovaks and Eastern rite Catholics Where are the stories of the older presence of native Mexican Native American and African American Catholics in this country And more recently of Asian American Catholics especially the Chinese the Japanese and the Filipinos of the nineteenth and early twentieth century And more recently still Catholic immigrants have come from El Salvador Guatemala Vietnam Cambodia Korea India and the Pacific Islands What impact are these immigrants having on American society and religious groups Many Faces One Church is a profound attempt to address these key questions and their implications for the Catholic way of being church worshipping and practicing theology The result of three years of conferences sponsored by Elms College exploring the new faces of the American Catholic Church this thoughtful collection highlights opportunities and challenges lying ahead as the American Church tries to respond to the continuing presence of new immigrants in its midst Many Faces One Church is a beginning of a long but exciting journey in which the strangers welcomed today into the bosom of the American Catholic Church will be themselves the hosts to welcome with equal warmth and generosity the new strangers into their midst so that hosts and guests are truly one

Ethnicity Housing Frederick W. Boal,2020-09-29 This title was first published in 2000 This work has its origins in the 1995 Congress of the International Federation for Housing and Planning held in Belfast The theme was Accommodating Differences Differences were defined in broad terms and included ethnic and social economic and political differences However Frederick W Boal s own interest in ethnic differences motivated him to invite a number of Congress participants to make available their papers for inclusion in this book of essays It seeks to offer experience that can be drawn on by housing practitioners who are operating in multi ethnic contexts It also provides empirical material that should contribute to the development of more soundly based theoretical insights in both urban sociology and social geography

Theologising Brexit Anthony G. Reddie, 2019-06-03 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the theological challenge presented by the new post Brexit epoch The referendum vote for Britain to leave the European Union has led to a seismic shift in the ways in which parts of the British population view and judge their compatriots The subsequent rise in the reported number of racially motivated incidents and the climate of vilification and negativity directed at anyone not viewed as authentically British should be a matter of concern for all people The book is comprised of a series of essays that address varying aspects of what it means to be British and the ways in which churches in Britain and the Christian faith could and should respond to a rising tide of White English nationalism It is a provocative challenge to the all too often tolerated xenophobia as well as the paucity of response from many church leaders in the UK This critique is offered via the means of a prophetic postcolonial model of Black theology that challenges the incipient sense of White entitlement and parochial nativism that pervaded much of the referendum debate The essays in this book challenge the church and wider society to ensure justice and equity for all not just a privileged sense of entitlement for some It will be of keen interest to any scholar of Black political and liberation theology as well as those involved in cultural studies from a postcolonial perspective
