The Brainstormers:

The Feedback Fix Joe Hirsch, 2017-04-18 Highly recommended by bestselling author Marshall Goldsmith The secret to giving better feedback isn't what we say it's what others hear Too often people hear about a past they can't control not a future they can That changes with feedforward a radical approach to sharing feedback that unleashes the performance and potential of everyone around us From managers and coaches trying to energize their teams to teachers hoping to motivate their students to parents looking to empower their children people from all walks of life want others to hear what they have to say Through a lively blend of stories and studies The Feedback Fix shows them how by presenting a six part REPAIR plan that spreads feedforward across boardrooms classrooms and even dining rooms Even with drastic changes in how we work and live the experiences we create for others joy or fear growth or decline success or failure still hang on the feedback we share The Feedback Fix makes a compelling argument for getting what we want by giving others what they need all while rebuilding the way we lead learn and live

RoboCup 2010: Robot Soccer World Cup XIV Javier Ruiz-del-Solar, Eric Chown, Paul G. Ploeger, 2011-03-19 This book includes the thoroughly refereed post conference proceedings of the 14th RoboCup International Symposium held in Singapore in June 2010 representing the scientific tracks structured in four sessions entitled simulation and rescue robots robot perception and localization robot motion and humanoid robots and human robot interaction and semantic scene analysis The 20 revised full papers and 16 revised short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 78 submissions Documenting the research advances of the RoboCup community since the predecessor symposium this book constitutes a valuable source of reference and inspiration for R D professionals interested in RoboCup or in robotics and distributed AI more generally

RoboCup 2002: Robot Soccer World Cup VI Gal A. Kaminka, Pedro U. Lima, Raul Rojas, 2003-11-11 RoboCup 2002 the 6th Robot World Cup Soccer and Rescue Competitions and Conference took place during June 19 25 2002 at the Fukuoka Dome main venue in Fukuoka Japan It was by far the RoboCup event with the largest number of registered participants 1004 persons distributed in 188 teams from 29 countries and visitors around 120 000 persons As was done in its previous editions since 1997 the event included several robotic competitions and an international symposium The papers and posters presented at the symposium constitute the main part of this book League reports in the national section describe significant advances in each league and the results The symposium organizers received 76 submissions among which 17 papers 22% were accepted for oral presentation at the symposium first section of the book and 21 papers 29% were accepted as posters second section of the book Most papers were evaluated by three reviewers each chosen from the members of the International Program Committee IPC The IPC consisted of a balanced combination of regular RoboCup participants and researchers from outside this community The reviewers worked hard to guarantee a fair review process the result of their work was a high quality symposium with very interesting presentations

Group Creativity Paul B. Paulus, Bernard A. Nijstad, 2003-09-04 Creativity often leads to the development of original ideas that are useful or influential and maintaining creativity is crucial for the continued development of organizations in particular and society in general Most research and writing has focused on individual creativity Yet in recent years there has been an increasing acknowledgment of the importance of the social and contextual factors in creativity Even with the information explosion and the growing necessity for specialization the development of innovations still requires group interaction at various stages in the creative process Most organizations increasingly rely on the work of creative teams where each individual is an expert in a particular area This volume summarizes the exciting new research developments on the processes involved in group creativity and innovation and explores the relationship between group processes group context and creativity It draws from a broad range of research perspectives including those investigating cognition groups creativity information systems and organizational psychology These different perspectives have been brought together in one volume in order to focus attention on this developing literature and its implications for theory and application The chapters in this volume are organized into two sections The first focuses on how group decision making is affected by factors such as cognitive fixation and flexibility group diversity minority dissent group decision making brainstorming and group support systems Special attention is devoted to the various processes and conditions that can inhibit or facilitate group creativity The second section explores how various contextual and environmental factors affect the creative processes of groups The chapters explore issues of group autonomy group socialization mentoring team innovation knowledge transfer and creativity at the level of cultures and societies The research presented in this section makes it clear that a full understanding of group creativity cannot be accomplished without adequate attention to the group environment It will be a useful source of information for scholars practitioners and students wishing to understand and facilitate group creativity

The Starter's Way Edward Olsworth-Peter, Dwight J. Zscheile, 2025-10-07 A call for new ways of starting thriving church communities based on global case studies of churches who have innovated from within their local communities As many established churches struggle to connect with people in increasingly post Christian societies there has been a vital shift in focus toward starting new Christian communities Many of these new forms of church are incarnationally embedded in local contexts as leaders and neighbors together follow the Spirit s lead in asking What would church look like for us together in this place This book edited by two leading thinkers around innovation in the Church one from the United States the other from the UK brings a rich and international array of practitioners and scholars together to explore starting new contextual Christian communities as a way of life Addressing this from an incarnational go and stay model of mission it seeks to offer an alternative perspective Rather than provide another how to manual the authors go deeper into unpacking the spiritual foundations inward qualities and outward practices that make for faithful vibrant and sustainable leadership of new Christian communities Framed around fifteen paradigm shifting principles The Starter s Way offers a hopeful exploration of the open ended journey of developing new forms of church that are responsive to the Spirit and to the uniqueness of local neighborhoods

A Companion to Feminist Art Hilary Robinson, Maria Elena Buszek, 2019-06-27 Original essays offering fresh ideas and global perspectives on contemporary feminist art The term feminist art is often misused when viewed as a codification within the discipline of Art History a codification that includes restrictive definitions of geography chronology style materials influence and other definitions inherent to Art Historical and museological classifications Employing a different approach A Companion to Feminist Art defines art as a dynamic set of material and theoretical practices in the realm of culture and feminism as an equally dynamic set of activist and theoretical practices in the realm of politics Feminist art therefore is not a simple classification of a type of art but rather the space where feminist politics and the domain of art making intersect The Companion provides readers with an overview of the developments concepts trends influences and activities within the space of contemporary feminist art in different locations ways of making and ways of thinking Newly commissioned essays focus on the recent history of and current discussions within feminist art Diverse in scope and style these contributions range from essays on the questions and challenges of large sectors of artists such as configurations of feminism and gender in post Cold War Europe to more focused conversations with women artists on Afropean decoloniality Ranging from discussions of essentialism and feminist aesthetics to examinations of political activism and curatorial practice the Companion informs and questions readers introduces new concepts and fresh perspectives and illustrates just how much more there is to discover within the realm of feminist art Addresses the intersection between feminist thinking and major theories that have influenced art theory Incorporates diverse voices from around the world to offer viewpoints on global feminisms from scholars who live and work in the regions about which they write Examines how feminist art intersects with considerations of collectivity war maternal relationships desire men and relational aesthetics Explores the myriad ways in which the experience of inhabiting and perceiving aged raced and gendered bodies relates to feminist politics in the art world Discusses a range practices in feminism such as activism language education and different ways of making art The intersection of feminist art making and feminist politics are not merely components of a unified whole they sometimes diverge and divide A Companion to Feminist Art is an indispensable resource for artists critics scholars curators and anyone seeking greater strength on the subject through informed critique and debate

Feminism Reframed Alexandra M. Kokoli,2009-10-02 Feminism Reframed Reflections on Art and Difference addresses the on going dialogue between feminism art history and visual culture from contemporary scholarly perspectives Over the past thirty years the critical interventions of feminist art historians in the academy the press and the art world have not only politicised and transformed the themes methods and conceptual tools of art history but have also contributed to the emergence of new interdisciplinary areas of investigation including notably that of visual culture Although the impact of such fruitful transformations is indisputable their exact contribution to contemporary scholarship remains a matter for debate not least because feminism itself has changed significantly since the Women s Liberation Movement Feminism Reframed reviews and revises existing feminist art histories but also reasserts the need for continuous feminist interventions in the academy the art world and beyond With contributions by Anthea Behm Alisia Grace Chase Jennifer G Germann Catherine Grant Joanne Heath Ruth Hemus Alexandra Kokoli Beth Anne Lauritis Griselda Pollock Karen Roulstone Anne Swartz and Sue Tate Coming at the moment when contemporary art practices are themselves involved in re cycling re evaluating and re enacting the past this collection asks how feminism s own troubled histories can be reframed productively in the present The questions that feminism raised in the 1970s and 80s are still pertinent and are addressed in a number of original essays What does gender equality mean in the arts How can women s subjectivities be articulated or performed differently in art practices Can attention to gender enable us to engage with complex differences of race sexuality and class of age and generation Do we need new interpretative and conceptual models for writing about art Alexandra Kokoli s thoughtful and illuminating introduction reminds us that reframing is a risky but exciting business if it makes us ask these questions anew with attention to the politics and aesthetics of the present Rosemary Betterton Lancaster University Aging ,1982 RoboCup 2005: Robot Soccer World Cup IX Ansgar Bredendfeld,Adam Jacoff,Itsuki Noda,Yasutake Takahashi,2006-06-25 This book constitutes the ninth official archival publication devoted to RoboCup documenting presentations at the RoboCup 2005 International Symposium held in Osaka Japan July 2005 alongside the RoboCup Competition The book presents 34 revised full papers and 38 revised short papers together with two award winning papers This is a valuable source of reference and inspiration for those interested in robotics or distributed intelligence and mandatory reading for the rapidly growing RoboCup community

Brainstorming John Hawkins,2019-02-11 Creative ability is most frequently the opposite of good judgment Creative ability includes the tendency to experiment with novel ideas that might be unsound It includes a good deal of the gambler s spirit where the individual sticks his neck out and tries something new perhaps even wild or crazy Therefore by its very nature creative ability is on the opposite end of the scal Balanced Living Robert M. Knight,2009-01-01 In Balanced Living Don t Let Your Strength Become Your Weakness Robert Knight develops the theme of balance as central to good mental health to moral and spiritual health to emotional well being and to social functioning This theme emerges from his more than thirty years of experience as a Christian minister as a counselor as a teacher and clinical supervisor of counselors as well as from experience as a management and human relations consultant According to Knight when we are failing or falling it isn t always because of some inadequacy or limitation it is rather because we have taken a strength or it has taken us too far a strength that has become a weakness The signature chapter Balanced Living addresses such common tensions as success and failure It asks How seriously do you take yourself What time is it in your life Following chapters cover balanced families balance and personality type using the Myers Briggs Type Indicator and balanced religion achieving healthy moral and spiritual balance Based on common questions the chapter on Counseling and Psychotherapy guides consumers of professional counseling services Topics include the various types of mental health service providers and theoretical approaches to counseling The final chapter discusses human developmental models in particular that of Erik Erikson addresses certain values implicit in the counseling process and treats certain theological assumptions from a Hebrew Christian perspective Mental health professionals pastors and others involved in helping people as well as students preparing for such vocations will find this book informative and challenging perhaps even confirming The book also engages laypersons consumers of professional counseling and related mental emotional moral spiritual and relational health services Of particular value are the case studies examples and illustrations presented in Balanced Living Don't Let Your Strength Become Your Weakness Crossmaglen Paddy Said Patrick Joseph McEntegart,2019 Once every generation there comes along a book that both lifts the spirit and inspires the mind Crossmaglen Paddy Said is one of those rare published gems This is not a book to be read just for laughs as it contains a mix of tragedy and comedy It is a true story All incidents mentioned happened as they are described and at that time and place In the words of an eminent professional who first read the manuscript This book does not follow any set plot or order Perhaps this is intentional and you are going for a James Joyce stream of consciousness effect or Beckett where everything happens with only one or two characters in one room on one day or Flann O'Brien's writings where there are surreal theories and weird characters and the reader has the sense of entering a strange world It has been compared by a Hollywood producer with Conor McPherson's Laurence Olivier award winning play The Weir which won the Play of the Year award in 1999 Crossmaglen Paddy Said contains authentic evidence of the British ships and regiments who exported the food off the island of Ireland during the period of the Great Hunger from 1845 to 1950 Inside it also draws a unique paralleled comparison between an incident that occurred relating to Crossmaglen on August 15 1971 and Boston Massachusetts on the March 5 1770 the most important date in American history In the second phase this book becomes an inspirational story which details and outlines the lifetime achievements of both Paddy and the narrator Paudraic Moore It then becomes a super motivational tool for its readers Learning Motor Skills Jens Kober,Jan Peters,2013-11-23 This book presents the state of the art in reinforcement learning applied to robotics both in terms of novel algorithms and applications It discusses recent approaches that allow robots to learn motor skills and presents tasks that need to take into account the dynamic behavior of the robot and its environment where a kinematic movement plan is not sufficient The book illustrates a method that learns to generalize parameterized motor plans which is obtained by imitation or reinforcement learning by adapting a small set of global parameters and appropriate kernel based reinforcement learning algorithms The presented applications explore highly dynamic tasks and exhibit a very efficient learning process All proposed approaches have been extensively validated with benchmarks tasks in simulation and on real robots These tasks correspond to sports and games but the presented techniques are also applicable to more mundane household tasks The book is based on the first author's doctoral thesis which won the 2013 EURON Georges Giralt PhD Award
