Excavating Mormon Pasts Newell C. Bringhurst, Lavina Fielding Anderson, 2004-08-31 Winner of the Special Book Award from the John Whitmer Historical Association Excavating Mormon Pasts assembles sixteen knowledgeable scholars from both LDS and the Community of Christ traditions who have long participated skillfully in this dialogue It presents their insightful and sometimes incisive surveys of where the New Mormon History has come from and which fields remain unexplored It is both a vital reference work and a stimulating picture of the New Mormon History in the early twenty first century

Geographical Teacher, 1914 Includes section Reviews and other bibliographical material The Geographical Teacher, 1914 Foreign Direct Investment and the Regional Economy Jonathan Jones, Colin Wren, 2016-04-15 The boom in foreign direct investment FDI since the mid 1980s continues to be paramount in policy interest This book reviews the literature on the nature of FDI and reports the recent results on the performance of FDI plants in order to show the implications for regional economic development It presents new evidence on the nature and performance of these plants using a unique dataset that has been constructed and rigorously analyzed by applying econometric techniques The role of FDI in economic development has long been poorly understood and this book contributes to improving understanding and is of direct policy relevance An examination is made of the generation theory and location of FDI as well as its implications for regional and national development In addition to this analysis is made of the issues at the project and plant levels related to investment employment and firm survival Geography ,1929 Includes section Reviews and other bibliographical material

The UK Regional-National Economic Problem Philip McCann,2016-03-10 In recent years the United Kingdom has become a more and more divided society with inequality between the regions as marked as it has ever been In a landmark analysis of the current state of Britain s regional development Philip McCann utilises current statistics examines historical trends and makes pertinent international comparisons to assess the state of the nation The UK Regional National Economic Problem brings attention to the highly centralised top down governance structure that the UK deploys and demonstrates that it is less than ideally placed to rectify these inequalities The North South divide in the UK has never been greater and the rising inequalities are evident in almost all aspects of the economy including productivity incomes employment status and wealth Whilst the traditional economic dominance of London and its hinterland has continued along with relative resilience in the South West of England and Scotland in contrast the Midlands the North of England Northern Ireland and Wales lag behind by most measures of prosperity This inequality is greatly limiting national economic performance and the fact that Britain has a below average standard of living by European and OECD terms has been ignored The UK s economic and governance inequality is unlikely to be fundamentally rebalanced by the current governance and connectivity trends although this definitive study suggests that some areas of improvement are possible if they are well implemented This pivotal analysis is essential reading for postgraduate students in economics and urban studies as well as researchers and policy makers in local and central government Great Minds in Regional Science, Vol. 3 Peter Batey,David Plane,2025-07-31 This book is the third volume in a series on Great Minds in Regional Science which seeks to present a contemporary view on the scientific relevance of the work done by great thinkers in regional science This volume presents among others Walter Christaller Benjamin H Stevens William Alonso and Francois Perroux Each chapter combines factual biographical information about the Great Mind a description of their major contributions and a discussion of the broader context of their work as well as an assessment of its current relevance scientific recognition and policy impact The book attempts to fill a gap in our knowledge and to respond to the growing interest in the formation and development of the field of regional science and its key influential figures Geography in Education & Citizenship William Henry Barker,1927 Research Paper PNW. ,1978

Bank Strategies and Challenges in the New Europe E. Gardener,P. Versluijs,2001-07-10 Both in global and European banking markets banks and banking are undergoing fundamental changes Deregulation competition technology and other developments have extended the frontiers of banking into the wider and ever expanding financial services industry Bank Strategies and Challenges in the New Europe brings together the work of leading European researchers in banking and finance in a blend of theory practice and empirical study The contributors situate banking within this new environment by exploring key issues such as the impact of technological advances changes in delivery and payment systems EMU and the convergence of EU banking sectors competition regional investment offshore banking capital adequacy and risk management

The Global Coastal Ocean - Regional Studies and Syntheses Kenneth H. Brink, Allan R. Robinson, 2005 A Region in Transition John Tomaney, Neil Ward, 2017-07-05 In the context of the general trend towards regionalism as a focus for public policy and as a source of cultural and political identity an interdisciplinary team from Newcastle University combine to analyze how this affects the North East of England Cultural Exchange and Identity in Late Medieval Ireland Sparky Booker, 2018-03-22 Irish inhabitants of the four obedient shires a term commonly used to describe the region at the heart of the English colony in the later Middle Ages were significantly anglicised taking on English names dress and even legal status However the processes of cultural exchange went both ways This study examines the nature of interactions between English and Irish neighbours in the four shires taking into account the complex tensions between assimilation and the preservation of distinct ethnic identities and exploring how the common colonial rhetoric of the Irish as an enemy coexisted with the daily reality of alliance intermarriage and accommodation Placing Ireland in a broad context Sparky Booker addresses the strategies the colonial community used to deal with the difficulties posed by extensive assimilation and the lasting changes this made to understandings of what it meant to be English or Irish in the face of such challenges Poverty Archaeology Charlotte Newman, Katherine Fennelly, 2023-10-13 The Poor Laws in the United Kingdom left a built and material legacy of over two centuries of legislative provision for the poor and infirm Workhouses represent the first centralized state organized system for welfare though they maintain a notorious historical reputation Workhouses were intended to be specialized institutions with dedicated subdivisions for the management of different categories of inmate Examining the workhouse provision from an archaeological perspective the authors demonstrate the heterogeneity of the Poor Law system from a built heritage perspective This volume forms a social archaeology of the lived experience of poverty and health in the nineteenth century Language contact Rik van Gijn, Hanna Ruch, Max Wahlström, Anja Hasse, 2023-09-28 Contact linguistics is the overarching term for a highly diversified field with branches that connect to such widely divergent areas as historical linguistics typology sociolinguistics psycholinguistics and grammatical theory Because of this diversification there is a risk of fragmentation and lack of interaction between the different subbranches of contact linguistics Nevertheless the different approaches share the general goal of accounting for the results of interacting linguistic systems This common goal opens up possibilities for active communication cooperation and coordination between the different branches of contact linguistics This book therefore explores the extent to which contact linguistics can be viewed as a coherent field and whether the advances achieved in a particular subfield can be translated to others In this way our aim is to encourage a boundary free discussion between different types of specialists of contact linguistics and to stimulate cross pollination between them

The Routledge History of Western Empires Robert Aldrich, Kirsten McKenzie, 2013-12-04 The Routledge History of Western Empires is an all new volume focusing on the history of Western Empires in a comparative and thematic perspective Comprising of thirty three original chapters arranged in eight thematic sections the book explores European overseas expansion from the Age of Discovery to the Age of Decolonisation Studies by both well known historians and new scholars offer fresh accessible perspectives on a multitude of themes ranging from colonialism in the Arctic to the scramble for the coral sea from attitudes to the environment in the East Indies to plans for colonial settlement in Australasia Chapters examine colonial attitudes towards poisonous animals and the history of colonial medicine evangelisation in Africa and Oceania colonial recreation in the tropics and the tragedy of the slave trade The Routledge History of Western Empires ranges over five centuries and crosses continents and oceans highlighting transnational and cross cultural links in the imperial world and underscoring connections between colonial history and world history Through lively and engaging case studies contributors not only weigh in on historiographical debates on themes such as human rights religion and empire and the taproots of imperialism but also illustrate the various approaches to the writing of colonial history A vital contribution to the field
