The Burning Forest Nandini Sundar, 2019-04-09 The Burning Forest is an empathetic moving account of what drives indigenous peasants to support armed struggle despite severe state repression including lives lost homes and communities destroyed Over the past decade the heavily forested mineral rich region of Bastar in central India has emerged as one of the most militarized sites in the country The government calls the Maoist insurgency the biggest security threat to India In 2005 a state sponsored vigilante movement the Salwa Judum burnt hundreds of villages driving their inhabitants into state controlled camps drawing on counterinsurgency techniques developed in Malaysia Vietnam and elsewhere Apart from rapes and killings hundreds of surrendered Maoist sympathisers were conscripted as auxiliaries The conflict continues to this day taking a toll on the lives of civilians security forces and Maoist cadres In 2007 Sundar and others took the Indian government to the Supreme Court over the human rights violations arising out of the conflict In a landmark judgment the Court in 2011 banned state support for vigilantism The Burning Forest describes this brutal war in the heart of India and what it tells us about the courts media and politics of the country The result is a granular and critical ethnography of Indian democracy over a decade

The Burning Forest Phillip Mann, 2011-09-29 In its northern fastness Britannia despite all the benefits of the Pax Romana with its technology and brutally rationalist philosophy has kept its mysterious secrets hidden deep in the wild forests that still cover much of the land As the Empire gathers its forces three young people hold the future in their hands the Roman Viti now known as Coll Angus the mechanic turned revolutionary and Mirana the student now in touch with strange powers And as the cold rational imperatives of Rome meet the wild magic of an older world the Empire's dominion will at last be challenged The Burning Forest the triumphant conclusion to the magical epic A Land Fit for Heroes The Burning Forest, 2016 The Life History of Lodgepole Burn Forests Frederic Edward Clements, 1910 The Burning Forest Simon Leys, 1985
