In the Valleys of the Noble Beyond John Zada, 2019-07-02 A journalist travels through British Columbia exploring one of the world's most baffling mysteries the existence of the Sasquatch On the central and north coast of British Columbia the Great Bear Rainforest is the largest intact temperate rainforest in the world containing more organic matter than any other terrestrial ecosystem on the planet The area plays host to a wide range of species from thousand year old western cedars to humpback whales to iconic white Spirit bears According to local residents another giant is said to live in these woods For centuries people have reported encounters with the Sasquatch a species of hairy bipedal man apes said to inhabit the deepest recesses of this pristine wilderness Driven by his own childhood obsession with the creatures John Zada decides to seek out the diverse inhabitants of this rugged and far flung coast where nearly everyone has a story to tell from a scientist who dedicated his life to researching the Sasquatch to members of the area's First Nations to a former grizzly bear hunter turned nature tour guide With each tale Zada discovers that his search for the Sasquatch is a quest for something infinitely more complex cutting across questions of human perception scientific inquiry indigenous traditions the environment and the power and desire of the human imagination to believe in or reject something largely unseen Teeming with gorgeous nature writing and a driving narrative that takes us through the forests and into the valleys of a remote and seldom visited region In the Valleys of the Noble Beyond sheds light on what our decades long pursuit of the Sasquatch can tell us about ourselves and invites us to welcome wonder for the unknown back into our lives Praise for In the Valleys of the Noble Beyond Books on supernatural phenomena typically steer one of two courses tabloid gullibility or mean spirited debunkery Zada deftly tightropes between the two In the Valleys of the Noble Beyond is not really about sasquatch It is about how we see what we want to see and don't see what we're not prepared to see A quirky and oddly captivating tale Eric Weiner Washington Post An adventure story in the tradition of Paul Theroux and in parts Jon Krakauer Zada is a latter day Henry David Thoreau or John Muir Searching for an elusive ape Zada has a knack for meeting unforgettable humans Peter Kuitenbrouwer Globe and Mail If people can believe in God why not Sasquatch Zada takes us through the temperate rainforest of British Columbia looking for both the hairy bipedal and the mythology and landscape surrounding it Terrific nature writing with a furry twist Kerri Arsenault Orion

Beyond the Horizon Colin Angus, 2010-02-12 In June 2004 Colin Angus left Vancouver on his bicycle Nearly two years later he rolled back in looking like a castaway and having completed the first human powered circumnavigation of the globe Angus cycled skied and rowed a route that took him to Alaska across the Bering Sea and the Siberian winter across Europe from Moscow to Portugal then across the Atlantic to Costa Rica a 156 day rowing odyssey From there it was a short 8 300 kilometre ride back to Vancouver Along the way he burned through 4 000 chocolate bars 72 inner tubes 250 kgs of freeze dried foods 31 dorado fish caught from the sea 2 offshore rowboats 4 bicycles 80 kgs of clothing And he showed the world that if he can travel 43 000 kilometres without polluting the planet then the rest of us can get off our butts and clean up our own acts We lay in the rowboat cabin as the seas swelled and the sky boiled like a devil's cauldron Slanting yellow sun beams cut between black squalls and corrugated cirrus clouds interlaced the remaining areas of blue Huge anvil heads roiled and billowed like slow moving atomic explosions Flashes of lightning illuminated the IMAX screen of the horizon Such energy and volatility would have been breathtakingly beautiful if we had been watching from nearly anywhere else and if it weren't for the fact that it was all just a prelude to a killer storm It was hard to believe that yet another tropical cyclone was heading our way We had chosen the worst hurricane season in recorded history to make our five month 10 000 km unsupported rowboat crossing of the Atlantic Ocean Now two months into our voyage it looked very likely our expedition might come to an abrupt end Our voyage across the Atlantic was only a part of a much larger expedition an attempt to complete the first human powered circumnavigation of the planet So far we had trekked skied cycled canoed and rowed non stop across three continents and were half way across our second ocean Now as I huddled in the dog house sized cabin with my fiancée waiting for the Hurricane Epsilon to reach us I cursed myself for ever believing I could achieve such an impossible quest From Beyond the Horizon

Beyond the Valley Gate Two David R. Odell, Natalie Davis, 2013-04-29 Welcome Home Sitting on the steps of his cabin Dakota Walker Randell sipped his coffee as he looked toward the mountains He had never expected his family to throw him a party when he started spending more time at home Still it would have been nice if they had at least been happy to see him His kids didn't really know him his ex wife wasn't talking to him even Susan was ignoring him All he had for company was the dog and he wasn't even sure where the dog had come from It was hard to explain the dog was just there at the cabin when he was in the valley Dakota was a man who had to set things straight with his family but that was not going to be as easy as he had hoped After all where do you start What do you say to your children and their mothers He had parked his truck for a time because his father and uncle had asked for his help They hadnt told him what they needed his help with Over the years the valley had changed it was a place for tourists these days Dakota wasnt sure he liked that He wasnt sure being around his ex wife and his ex girlfriend at the same time really sound like a fun time to him Those two women were not the sharing type years earlier He was sure they were not going to be in a sharing mood now He should have stayed in his truck but he had said he would help the family If he was going to keep his word he was going to have to stay around If he was going to have any company at all while he was in the valley it looked like the dog was going to have to learn how to talk

Tales from Beyond the Sunrise Nick Cascione, 2022-01-12 Tales from Beyond the Sunrise is a collection of imaginative and inspirational short stories The characters in these tales find themselves facing amazing and at times peculiar situations Otherworldly occurrences are key elements that create an atmospheric unknown in each story which aligns itself with underlining spiritual tones Although these characters may be ordinary in every sense of the word it is the notion of being thrust into extraordinary circumstances that deems them anything but ordinary Rather through these arising events inevitably become enlightened

Beyond the Forest Door Jeffrey Crosby, 2024-10-18 Hope is the doorway to love Facing a terminal illness with all traditional treatments exhausted Bella Galvani is left with little hope of seeing her 27th birthday until she is offered a chance to take part in an alternative treatment program one with promising initial results The program comes with two strange requirements First she must accept the position of caretaker for a forest cabin along with the mysterious artifact inside called the Forest Door The second and most worrisome requirement marriage The caretaker position is for a couple and Bella needs to convince everyone she can meet that requirement before the upcoming eclipse In this modern day low spice romantic fantasy one with druids faeries and the hope for healing Bella must find someone to journey with her and brave the mysteries Beyond the Forest Door
