The Cape Murders:

The Cape Fear River Murders Ernest Beasley, 2011-02-24 When high school girls are being murdered and thrown into the Cape Fear River in a small Southern town it has all the signs that a serial killer is at work The murders go unsolved by law enforcement as local corruption and politics come into play The scenario changes after the daughter of an influential member of the community becomes one of the murdered victims Called to the scene is a somewhat middle aged over the hill private investigator whose appearance and demeanor look nothing like your typical TV Private Investigator Kenneth Sadler s looks and Good Ole Country Boy way of doing things fail to show an abundance of experience and knowledge Kenneth s worldly manner and high moral character are not expressed at all Well maybe with the exception of the fact that he attracts widow women like a magnet He often proves that Older is Better Kenneth Sadler pursues what seems to be a hometown serial killer at full speed In his pursuit he finds that the case is more complex than first thought The real mystery is what makes a person a serial killer

The Cape Murders Dolores Weeks, 1987

Murder Along the Cape Fear David T. Morgan, 2005 Murder Along the Cape Fear is the story of Fayetteville and Fort Bragg North Carolina during the twentieth century Seen through the eyes of a native son this is the tale of one a distinguished historian who lived through some of it and heard about much of it from friends and relatives In this hundred year journey the town was profoundly impacted by the establishment of Fort Bragg 10 miles to its west Throughout this hundred year history murder seems to be the scarlet thread that stitched the town into infamy The book demonstrates that Fayetteville was by no means innocent prior to the coming of Fort Bragg Nor did all of the crime and evil emanate from Fort Bragg after 1918 As for murder there was an abundance of killing that had no connection with Fort Bragg but the most sensational murder case of the century involved Jeffrey MacDonald a Green Beret Army captain and physician who received three life terms in federal prison for killing his pregnant wife and two daughters While many other Fort Bragg soldiers were involved with murders along the Cape Fear murders were also committed by transient civilians and local citizens like the famous inventor of the M 1 carbine Marshall Carbine Williams and Velma Barfield who poisoned her mother and three other people In all about two dozen murder cases some highly publicized and some not are woven into this story about a North Carolina town in the twentieth century Engagingly told this book is a wonderful blend of history lore and murder
