Small Claims My Little Trials In Life:

Good Dirt David E. Morine, Paul Flint, 2011-12-20 The best selling conservation classic completely expanded revised and updated David Morine was a briefcase conservationist specializing in human nature During his fifteen years in charge of land acquisition for The Nature Conservancy Morine helped protect more than three million acres of wilderness finding plenty to laugh about and learn from along the way Here are the stories behind the deals and the people who made them an enlightening entertaining occasionally unsettling look at the dirty job of keeping America clean Vacationland David E.

Morine, 2015-10-30 David Morine's long love affair with Maine began when he was a boy in 1946 and his parents rented their first lakeside cabin in Fryeburg At first skeptical about the cost and the lack of plumbing or electricity the Morines quickly felt right at home There was plenty of good fishing and good company to fill the long summer days Although David didn't know it at the time his career began to take shape that summer when he first splashed his feet in the pristine waters of Lovewell Pond He went on to become an internationally recognized conservationist and served for fifteen years as the head of land acquisition for The Nature Conservancy He is also a natural storyteller and he recounts the fondly remembered pleasures of family vacations and reveals many adventures and misadventures he had along the way This second edition of Vacationland includes the same wonderful quirky personal stories as the first edition along with four new funny and nostalgia filled tales about summering in Maine

Two Coots in a Canoe David E. Morine, Paul Flint, 2011-05-03 A journey of whim humor and self discovery along the Connecticut River When retired CEO Ramsay Peard 61 called his old friend David Morine 59 and asked the longtime conservationist if he wanted to canoe the Connecticut River Morine said he'd do it under one condition no camping We'll rely on the kindness of strangers And that's what they did Mooching their way down the river and staying with strangers every night Morine and Peard got an inside look at such issues as the demise of farming the loss of manufacturing gay rights and Wal Mart versus Main Street and they were able to delve deep into the lives of complete strangers But Morine soon realized the one life he never dug into was Peard's After spending a month with him in a canoe he had no idea that his friend's innermost thoughts had taken a fateful course Written in the tradition of Bill Bryson's A Walk in the Woods this book will be treasured by conservationists canoeists and old friends still seeking a thrill Everyone else will be delightfully entertained

Down East, 2003-08 The Jury Crisis Drury R. Sherrod, 2019-02-08 Juries have a bad reputation Often jurors are seen as incompetent biased and unpredictable and jury trials are seen as a waste of time and money In fact so few criminal and civil cases reach a jury today that trial by jury is on the verge of extinction Juries are being replaced by mediators arbitrators and private judges The wise trial of Twelve Angry Men has become a fiction As a result a foundation of American democracy is about to vanish The Jury Crisis What's Wrong with Jury Trials and How We Can Save Them addresses the near collapse of the jury trial in America its causes consequences and cures Drury Sherrod brings his unique perspective as a social psychologist who became a jury consultant to the reader applying psychological research to real world trials and explaining why juries have become dysfunctional While this collapse of the jury can be traced to multiple causes including poor public education the absence of peers and community standards in a class stratified racially divided society and people s reluctance to serve on a jury the focus of this book is on the conduct of trials themselves from jury selection to evidence presentation to jury deliberations Judges and lawyers believe wrongly that jurors can put aside their biases sit quietly through hours days or weeks of conflicting testimony and not make up their minds until they have heard all the evidence Unfortunately the human brain doesn t work that way A great deal of psychological research on jurors and other decision makers shows that our brains intuitively leap to story telling before we rationally analyze facts or evidence Weaving details into a narrative is how we make sense of the world and it s very hard to suppress this tendency Consequently a majority of jurors actually make up their minds before they have heard much of the evidence Judges arbitrators and mediators have similar biases The Jury Crisis deals with an important social problem namely the near collapse of a thousand year old institution and proposes how to fix the jury system and restore trial by jury to a more prominent place in American society Leaves of a life, reminiscences Montagu Stephen Williams,1893 LIFE Story Gerald Moore,2016-04-01 Before Americans got their news from television they got it from LIFE the weekly magazine that set the standard for photojournalism In LIFE Story Gerald Moore a writer and editor who worked at the magazine in the last glory years before TV made it obsolete recalls the dizzying excitement and glamour of LIFE s fast moving powerful approach to spreading the news Moore covered the major stories of the late 1960s and early 1970s LSD assassinations the 1968 Democratic convention in Chicago the McCarthy campaign urban riots the My Lai massacre and the beginnings of feminism Before joining LIFE at the age of twenty seven he worked as a police officer in Albuquerque and then a reporter at the Albuquerque Tribune both jobs teaching him the tools of his trade His story offers a wonderful look back at the good and the bad old days of journalism
