Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet, 2020-12-16 Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture Popular Cultural Conceptions of War since World War II explores how war has been portrayed in the United States since World War II with a particular focus on an emotionally charged but rarely scrutinized topic combat death Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that most stories about war use three main building blocks melodrama adventure and horror Monnet examines how melodrama and adventure have helped make war seem acceptable to the American public by portraying combat death as a meaningful sacrifice and by making military killing look necessary and often even pleasurable Horror no longer serves its traditional purpose of making the bloody realities of war repulsive but has instead been repurposed in recent years to intensify the positivity of melodrama and adventure Thus this book offers a fascinating diagnosis of how war stories perform ideological and emotional work and why they have such a powerful grip on the American imagination

The Transformations of Tragedy Fionnuala O'Neill Tønning, Erik Tønning, Jolyon Mitchell, 2019-11-26 The Transformations of Tragedy Christian Influences from Early Modern to Modern explores the influence of Christian theology and culture upon the development of post classical Western tragedy The volume is divided into three parts early modern modern and contemporary This series of essays by established and emergent scholars offers a sustained study of Christianity s creative influence upon experimental forms of Western tragic drama Both early modern and modern tragedy emerged within periods of remarkable upheaval in Church history yet Christianity's diverse influence upon tragedy has too often been either ignored or denounced by major tragic theorists. This book contends instead that the history of tragedy cannot be sufficiently theorised without fully registering the impact of Christianity in transition towards modernity.

The eBay Book David Belbin, 2005. eBay is the world's largest marketplace and a worldwide phenomenon. Since the first edition of The eBay Book in June 2004, both the number of people using eBay and the number of amazing stories of their experiences have continued to grow at an amazing rate. In the last year alone over 1 million new users signed up to eBay.co.uk and the total number of users hit the 10 million mark in February 2005. In fact, people in the UK spend more time on eBay than on any other website, making it the most popular brand name on the internet. It has over 3 million items for sale in its auctions at any one time, and among these are every type of collectable and consumer goods imaginable. eBay provides a simple and amazingly effective way for anybody to auction items that they want to sell, whether they are antiques, books, computers, sports equipment, vinyl records, DVDs, clothing, jewellery, celebrity memorabilia, or in fact almost anything, and allows potential buyers to browse and bid on this vast catalogue from the comfort of their own homes. In this fully revised and updated edition of The eBay Book, David Belbin, a long-time eBay user, explains how eBay.co.uk works and how to get the most out of it, whether you are a buyer or a seller. He takes you through the key features of the site, step by step, advising on the tactics you can employ when bidding and selling, and explains how to minimise the fees you pay and just why your feedback rating is so important. He also explores the best ways to pay for goods and what to do if your transactions go wrong. This hugely readable book also contains a wealth of case studies which draw on the knowledge and experience of a wide variety of eBay users, each with their own view of the eBay phenomenon. For newcomers, this is an indispensable guide.

Contemporary Cinema and 'Old Age' Josephine Dolan, 2018-02-06. This book is the first to explore old age in cinema at the intersection of gender, ageing, celebrity, and genre studies. It takes its cue from the dual meanings of silvering: economics and ageing, and explores shifting formulations of old age and gender in contemporary cinema. Broad in its scope, the book establishes the importance of silver audiences to the survival of cinema exhibition, while also forging connections between the pleasures of old age films, consumer culture, the economy of celebrity, and the gendered silvering of stardom. The chapters examine gendered genres such as romantic comedies, action, and heist movies, the prosthetics of costume and CGI-enabled age transformations. Through this analysis, Josephine Dolan teases out the different meanings of ageing, masculinity, and femininity offered in contemporary cinema. She identifies ageing femininity as the pathologised target of rejuvenation, while masculine ageing is seen to enhance an enduring youthfulness. This book has interdisciplinary appeal and will engage scholars interested in old age and gender representations in contemporary cinema.
