So War Es War Es So Notizen Und Erinnerungen Eines Theatermannes:

Shakespeare on the German Stage: Volume 2, The Twentieth Century Wilhelm Hortmann, Michael

Hamburger,1998-05-28 Shakespeare has been a central figure in German literature and theatre This book tells the story of Shakespeare in the German speaking theatre against the background of German culture and politics in the twentieth century It follows the earlier volume by Simon Williams on the reception of Shakespeare during the previous 300 years Shakespeare on the German Stage 1586 1914 Hortmann concentrates on the two most important and fruitful periods the years of the Weimar Republic 1919 1933 and the turbulent decades of the sixties and seventies when the German theatre was revitalised by a stormy marriage of avant garde art and revolutionary politics A section by Maik Hamburger covers developments in the theatres of the German Democratic Republic Hortmann focuses on the most representative and colourful directors and actors describing and illustrating individual productions as examples of particular trends or movements Composers of the Nazi Era Michael H. Kater,2000 How does creativity thrive in the face of fascism How can a highly artistic individual function professionally in so threatening a climate The final book in a critically acclaimed trilogy that includes Different Drummers OUP 1992 and The Twisted Muse OUP 1997 this is a detailed study of the often interrelated careers of eight outstanding German composers who lived and worked amid the dictatorship of the Third Reich Werner Egk Paul Hindemith Kurt Weill Karl Amadeus Hartmann Carl Orff Hans Pfitzner Arnold Schoenberg and Richard Strauss Noted historian Michael H Kater weighs issues of accommodation and resistance to ask whether these artists corrupted themselves in the service of a criminal regime and if so whether this is evident in their music He also considers the degrees to which the Nazis poetically socially economically and aesthetically succeeded in their treatment of these individuals whose lives and compositions represent diverse responses to totalitarianism
