Spirituality and Religion in Social Work Practice

T. Laine Scales,2002 Church Social Work Diana S. Richmond Garland,1992 The social work profession has grown in many directions since its beginnings in the settlement houses and the missions of churches denominational agencies and the voluntary services of individual Christians However social workers continue to serve as the hands and heart of the church in outreach to oppressed and hurting persons The church was the first and has continued to be a prominent context for social work practice Joined more recently by government programs schools hospitals and clinics mental health agencies industry and most recently the pro profit private service sector This book provides an introduction to church social work describing and illustrating practice principles that are particularly applicable in the varying contexts of church social work Human Service Organizations and Their Publications Francine M. DeFranco, Donna L. Ferullo, 1996 Social Casework, 1988 Encyclopedia of Medical Organizations and Agencies Backus, 1993-12 Contemporary Human Behavior Theory Susan P. Robbins, Pranab Chatterjee, Edward R. Canda, 2006 This covers both the traditional and the most current and contemporary theories from a comparative theory perspective. Intended to be a source for comparison purposes, it is organized to include contemporary developments in traditional lifespan of the theory, coverage of the research that supports it, an analysis of the validity of that research, and a discussion of updated contemporary issues. It also includes new content on ecofeminism, neurobiology, neurotransmission, and behavior, feminist standpoint theory, theories of bisexual and transgender identity development, the role of shame in women's development, ethnic cultural identity development and cultural competence, theories of political economy, and transpersonal theory.
