,1996 Conversations with Kentucky Writers Linda Elisabeth LaPinta,2021-11-21 Kentucky and Kentuckians are full of stories which may be why so many present day writers have Kentucky roots Whether they left and returned like Wendell Berry and Bobbie Ann Mason or adopted Kentucky as home like James Still and Jim Wayne Miller or grew up and left for good like Michael Dorris and Barbara Kingsolver they have one connection Kentucky has influenced their writing and their lives L Elisabeth Beattie explores this influence in twenty intimate interviews Conversations with Kentucky Writers was more than three years in the making as Beattie traveled across the state and beyond to capture oral histories on tape Her exhaustive knowledge of these authors helped her draw out personal revelations about their work their lives and the nature of writing When Still concludes his interview with I believe I ve told you more than anybody he could be speaking for any of Beattie s subjects Aspiring writers will learn that Mason submitted twenty stories to the New Yorker before one was accepted and that Still wrote articles for Sunday school magazines There s plenty of advice Dorris tells budding authors to get real jobs keep journals and read everything even cereal boxes and Marsha Norman reminds playwrights that it is not the business of the theater to provide writers with a living Kingsolver advises Read good stuff and write bad stuff until eventually what you re writing begins to approximate what you re reading Beattie s collection includes striking self portraits of such writers as Sue Grafton Leon Driskell James Baker Hall Fenton Johnson George Ella Lyon Taylor McCafferty Ed McClanahan Sena Naslund Chris Offutt Lee Pennington and Betty Layman Receveur What most distinguishes these moving conversations from other author interviews is their focus on creativity on the teaching of writing and on the authors strong sense of place As Wade Hall writes in his foreword all twenty writers recognize that their works have been significantly influenced by their Kentucky experience This collection offers insights into Kentucky s rich and flowering literary heritage Routledge Handbook of Sports Journalism Rob Steen,Jed Novick,Huw Richards,2020-11-17 The Routledge Handbook of Sports Journalism is a comprehensive and in depth survey of the fast moving and multifaceted world of sports journalism Encompassing historical and contemporary analysis and case studies exploring best practice as well as cutting edge themes and issues the book also represents an impassioned defence of the skill and art of the trained journalist in an era of unmediated digital commentary With contributions from leading sports media scholars and practising journalists the book examines journalism across print broadcast and digital media exploring the everyday reality of working as a contemporary reporter editor or sub editor It considers the organisations that shape output from PR departments to press agencies as well as the socio political themes that influence both content and process such as identity race and gender The book also includes interviews with and biographies of well known journalists as well as case studies looking at the way that some of the biggest names in world sport from Lance Armstrong to Caster Semenya have been reported This is essential reading for all students researchers and professionals working in sports journalism sports broadcasting sports marketing and management or the sociology or history of sport The Contemporary Ensemble Duška Radosavljević,2013-08-21 Dr Radosavljevi has an excellent and extensive grasp of her subject and deep understanding of not only the history of these groups but how they function and how each contributes to the field of ensemble theatre David Crespy University of Missouri USA Questions of ensemble what it is how it works are both inherent to a variety of Western theatre traditions and re emerging and evolving in striking new ways in the twenty first century The Contemporary Ensemble draws together an unprecedented range of original interviews with world renowned theatre makers in order to directly address both the former and latter concerns Reflecting on the ensemble way of working within this major new resource are figures including Michael Boyd Hermann Wndrich Yuri Butusov Max Stafford Clark Elizabeth LeCompte Lyn Gardner Adriano Shaplin Phelim McDermott and Emma Rice representing companies including The RSC The Berliner Ensemble The Satirikon Theatre Out of Joint The Wooster Group Kneehigh Theatre Song of the Goat The Riot Group The Neo Futurists Shadow Casters and Ontroerend Goed All 22 interviews were conducted especially for the collection and draw upon the author s rich background working as scholar educator and dramaturg with a variety of ensembles The resulting compendium radically re situates the ensemble in the context of globalisation higher education and simplistic understandings of text based and devised theatre practice and traces a compelling new line through the contemporary theatre landscape
