Stunted Strong:

The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay, 2019-12-05 For many Canadians the small province of New Brunswick on Canada's scenic east coast is a nice place to visit but no place to live plagued for generations by outmigration and economic stagnation In The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay challenges this potent stereotype by showcasing the work of a group of literary modernists who set out to change the meaning of New Brunswick in the national lexicon Alfred Bailey Desmond Pacey Fred Cogswell and a formidable group of local poets and cultural workers collectively New Brunswick's Fiddlehead School sought to restore New Brunswick's literary reputation by adapting avant garde modernist practices to the contours of the province opening it to the contemporary world while also encouraging writers to make it their subject The result was a non urban form of modernism that was as responsive to technical innovation as to the human geographies of New Brunswick By placing New Brunswick writers and critics at the forefront of Canadian literature in the midcentury modernist project Tremblay adds an important new chapter to our understanding of Canadian modernism The Fiddlehead Moment is the first critical examination of this group's considerable influence Whether through Bailey's ethnomethodology Pacey's critical ordering or Cogswell's editorial eclecticism in the Fiddlehead magazine and Fiddlehead Poetry Books authors in New Brunswick Tremblay argues had a profound impact on writing in Canada Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves Arkansas Narratives (Complete) United States Work Projects Administration, 2020-09-28 I was born in Chickashaw County Mississippi Ely Abbott and Maggie Abbott was our owners They had three girls and two boys Eddie and Johnny We played together till I was grown I loved em like if they was brothers Papa and Mos Ely went to war together in a two horse top buggy They both come back when they got through There was eight of us children and none was sold none give way My parents name Peter and Mahaley Abbott My father never was sold but my mother was sold into this Abbott family for a house girl She cooked and washed and ironed No m she wasn t a wet nurse but she tended to Eddie and Johnny and me all alike She whoop them when they needed and Miss Maggie whoop me That the way we grow d up Mos Ely was ceptionly good I recken No m I never heard of him drinkin whiskey They made cider and simmon beer every year Grandpa was a soldier in the war He fought in a battle I don't know the battle He wasn't hurt He come home and told us how awful it was My parents stayed on at Mos Ely s and my uncle s family stayed on He give my uncle a home and twenty acres of ground and my parents same mount to run a gin I drove two mules my brother drove two and we drove two more between us and run the gin My auntie seen somebody go in the gin one night but didn t think bout them settin it on fire They had a torch I recken in there All I knowed it burned up and Mos Ely had to take our land back and sell it to pay for four or five hundred bales of cotton got burned up that time We stayed on and sharecropped with him We lived between Egypt and Okolona Mississippi Aberdeen was our tradin point The Faces Behind the Chains: Thousands of Interviews, Memoirs & Life Stories of Former Slaves Aphra Behn, Thomas Clarkson, Daniel Drayton, Louis Hughes, Austin than 20 books became her primary caregiver and spent six years in this role before her death in 2012 Growing numbers of people are falling victim to dementia and the condition challenges health care professionals and the health care system because there is no cure or treatment Many people unexpectedly find themselves in the same role as Jim caregiver because they don t want to see their loved ones institutionalized before it is necessary But caring for someone suffering from dementia is enormously challenging and there are very few places to look for useful information and guidance Jim s experiences offer insight understanding and hope for others facing the same situation The past is often key to understanding the present for someone caring for a person with dementia A caregiver who has shared a life is often able to understand what others could hardly guess at Time and again in Jim s narrative he is able to bring the perspective of his knowledge of Pat her values her loves her fears and her life experiences to shed a light that makes her words and actions more understandable For many the best approach to coming to grips with dementia has been through the worlds of literature and film To these resources we can now add Jim Lotz s moving and compelling account of his life with his wife Pat before and after the onset of her dementia In Pilgrim Souls Jim has written a clear eyed emotionally honest and tremendously moving love story
