Sturgeon Bay:

Sturgeon Bay Ann Jenkins, Maggie Weir, Door County Historical Museum, 2006-05-03 Stretching midway across Wisconsin's famous Door County peninsula Sturgeon Bay has developed into the county's business and industrial center. Divided by the waterway it's named after, this small city provided a home to a working waterfront that once housed sawmills and docks for shipping ice, quarried stone, and later cherries. A canal dug from Sturgeon Bay to Lake Michigan in 1880 enabled ships to avoid the long passage over the tip of the peninsula. Sturgeon Bay became a shipbuilding capital housing three major yards. The lively downtown districts on each side of the bay sported the typical hotels, taverns, stores, and blacksmith shops. Residents took pride in their newly formed schools, churches, and public services such as the Pioneer Fire Department. Families fortunate to live in a land of great natural beauty enjoyed recreational pursuits in the woods and on the water, whether it was perch fishing early on a summer morning or skating over the ice on a crisp winter afternoon. Hidden History of Sturgeon Bay Heidi Hodges, Kathy Steeb, 2018-07-16 Beyond the stunning beauty of Wisconsin's Sturgeon Bay lies a hidden past of colorful characters, tragic shipwrecks, and compelling community achievements. Arriving as an immigrant to the town, Joseph Harris Sr. became a founding father, creating the Door County Advocate newspaper and leading a campaign to construct the Sturgeon Bay Ship Canal. More than one hundred local volunteers formed the ranks of Company F, nicknamed Les Terribles by the French for their bravery and sacrifice in World War I. After surviving the Civil War, former slave Peter Custis endured unimaginable tragedy while forging a life in the city. Authors Heidi Hodges and Kathy Steeb expose the forgotten history of Sturgeon Bay. It's a story of dogged perseverance. Sturgeon Bay, Door County, Wisconsin, 2025 Activity Guide, 2024 Promotional tourist guide with business directory History of Door County, Wisconsin, the County Beautiful Hjalmar Rued Holand, 1917 First[-seventh] Semi-annual Report of the Bank Examiner on the Condition of the State and Private Banks Wisconsin.
