London Couture and the Making of a Fashion Centre Michelle Jones, 2022-04-12 How design collaboration networks and narratives contributed to the establishment of a recognized English couture industry in the 1930s and 1940s. In the 1930s and 1940s, English fashion houses spurred by economic and wartime crises put London on the map as a major fashion city. In this book, Michelle Jones examines the creation of a London-based couture industry during these years, exploring how designer collaboration and the construction of specific networks and narratives supported and shaped the English fashion economy. Haute couture, the practice of creative made-to-measure womenswear, was widely regarded as inherently French. Jones shows how an English version emerged during a period of economic turbulence when a group of designers banded together in a collective effort to shift power within the international fashion system. Jones considers the establishment of this form of English design practice, analyzing the commercial, social and political factors that shaped the professional identity of the London couturiers. She focuses on collaborative activity that supported this form of elite craft-based fashion production, from the prewar efforts of the Fashion Group of Great Britain to the wartime establishment of the Incorporated Society of London Fashion Designers, modeled loosely after French fashion's governing body, the Chambre Syndicale de la Couture Parisienne. It was these collective efforts by couturiers that established and sustained London's place as an internationally recognized center for creative fashion.

Spatial Politics in Contemporary London Literature Laura Colombino, 2013-06-19 This book analyses the spatial politics of a range of British novelists writing on London since the 1950s, emphasizing spatial representation as an embodied practice at the point where the architectural landscape and the body enter into relation with each other. Colombino visits the city in connection with its boundaries, abstract spaces and natural microcosms as they stand in for all the conflicting realms of identity, its interstices.

and ruins are seen as inhabited by bodies that reproduce internally the external conditions of political and social struggle The study brings into focus the fiction in which London provides not a residual interest but a strong psychic phenomenological grounding and where the awareness of the physical reality of buildings and landscape conditions shape the concept of the subject traversing this space Authors such as J G Ballard Geoff Dyer Michael Moorcock Peter Ackroyd Iain Sinclair Geoff Ryman Tom McCarthy Michael Bracewell and Zadie Smith are considered in order to map the relationship of body architecture and spatial politics in contemporary creative prose on the city Through readings that are consistently informed by recent developments in urban studies and reflections formulated by architects sociologists anthropologists and art critics this book offers a substantial contribution to the burgeoning field of literary urban studies London Phyllis Richardson,2003 A London guide to the total city experience revealing where to sleep eat drink shop retreat explore or just hang out in stimulating surroundings Divided into two sections Street Wise and Style Traveller readers are directed to places situated in seven specific neighbourhoods Some Notes on the Families of Hunnings of South Lincolnshire, London, and Suffolk William Edward Foster,1912 The Underwriter ,1884 Mass Housing Miles Glendinning,2021-03-25 Shortlisted for the Alice Davis Hitchcock Medallion 2021 The Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain It will become the standard work on the subject Literary Review This major work provides the first comprehensive history of one of modernism s most defining and controversial architectural legacies the 20th century drive to provide homes for the people Vast programmes of mass housing high rise low rise state funded and built in the modernist style became a truly global phenomenon leaving a legacy which has suffered waves of disillusionment in the West but which is now seeing a dramatic 21st century renaissance in the booming crowded cities of East Asia Providing a global approach to the history of Modernist mass housing production this authoritative study combines architectural history with the broader social political cultural aspects of mass housing particularly the mass politics of power and state building throughout the 20th century Exploring the relationship between built form ideology and political intervention it shows how mass housing not only reflected the transnational ideals of the Modernist project but also became a central legitimizing pillar of nation states worldwide In a compelling narrative which likens the spread of mass housing to a Hundred Years War of successive campaigns and retreats it traces the history around the globe from Europe via the USA Soviet Union and a network of international outposts to its ultimate optimistic resurgence in China and the East where it asks Are we facing a new dawn for mass housing or another great housing failure in the making Spectacle, Fashion and the Dancing Experience in Britain, 1960-1990 Jon Stratton,2022-10-31 This book explores dancing from the 1960s to the 1980s though this period covers only twenty years the changes during it were seismic Nevertheless continuities can be found and those are what this book examines In dancing it answers how we moved from the self control that formed the basis for ballroom dancing to ecstatic rave dancing In terms of music it answers how we moved from the beat groups to electronic dance music In terms of youth it answers how we moved
