House Beautiful, 1926 A Short History of Film, Fourth Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2025-10-14 This updated and expanded edition of A Short History of Film provides an accessible overview of the major movements, directors, studios, and genres from the 1880s to the present. Succinct yet comprehensive with more than 250 rare stills and illustrations, it brings readers face to face with many of the key players and films that have shaped the industry. Beginning with the precursors of moving pictures, Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster lead a fast-paced tour through the invention of the kinetoscope, the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars, and ultimately the computer-generated imagery of the present day. They detail significant periods in world cinema, including the creation of early major industries in Europe, the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s, and the French New Wave of the 1960s. They also highlight independent efforts in developing nations and the corresponding more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States. Along the way, the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts. Compact and easily readable, this is a vital history of international cinema, a one-stop resource for students, teachers, and general readers alike. The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell, White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1926 Becoming La Raza José G. Izaguirre III, 2024-10-15 In 1965, striking farm workers in the San Joaquin Valley sparked the beginning of the Chicano movement. As the movement quickly gained traction across the southwestern United States, public frictions emerged and splits among activists over strategic political decisions. José G. Izaguirre III explores how these disagreements often hinged on the establishment of a racialized identity for Mexican Americans, leading to the formation of La Raza Unida, a political party dedicated to naming and defending Mexican Americans as a racialized community. Through close readings of figures, vocabularies, and visualizations of iconic texts of the Chicano Movement, including El Plan de Delano, Rodolfo Corky Gonzales's I Am Joaquín, and newspapers like El Grito del Norte and La Raza, Izaguirre demonstrates that la raza was never singular or unified. Instead, he reveals a racial identity that was re-negotiated, re-invented, and re-circulated against a Cold War backdrop that heightened rhetorics of race across the globe and increasingly threatened Mexican American bodies in the Vietnam War. In lieu of a unified nationalist movement, Izaguirre argues that activists energized and empowered La Raza as a political community by making the Chicano movement multivocal, global, and often aligned with whiteness. For scholars of political movements, US history, race, or rhetoric, Becoming La Raza will provide a valuable perspective on one of the most important civil rights movements of the twentieth century. public figure which this remarkable collection further illuminates by supplying a complex portrait using her own powerful and imaginative words Beginning with a critical introduction to Burgos s life and work Vanessa P rez Rosario then presents a selection of poems essays and letters that offer a glimpse into this formidable talent and intellect Burgos left Puerto Rico spending the 1940s in both New York City and Havana where she cultivated a new kind of identity refracted through her pathbreaking work as a poet and journalist Both poetry and prose are alive with politically charged insights into the struggle of national liberation literary creation and being a woman in a patriarchal society I Am My Own Path is essential reading for anyone interested in Puerto Rican literature and culture as well as a foundational text of Latinx literature and culture in the United States
