The Suburbs of Heaven: The Diary of Murdoch Campbell Murdoch Campbell, David Campbell, 2014 These extracts from the diary of Reverend Campbell spanning the years 1930 to 1971 are of interest both for his life and times and as one of the few documented accounts of 20th century Christian mysticism A Preface Biographical Notes and footnotes add background information and comment The Saints' Everlasting Rest Richard Baxter, 1654 A Korean Confucian's Advice on How to Be Moral Don Baker, 2023-02-28 Tasan Ch'ng Yagyong 1762-1836 is one of the most creative thinkers Korea has ever produced one of the country's first Christians and a leading scholar in Confucian philosophy Born in a staunchly Neo Confucian society in his early twenties he encountered writings by Catholic missionaries in China and was fascinated However when he later learned that the Catholic Church condemned the Confucian practice of placing a spirit tablet on a family altar to honor past generations he left the small Catholic community he had helped found and ostensibly returned to the Neo Confucian fold Nevertheless the Christian ideas he studied in his youth influenced his thinking for the rest of his life stimulating him to look at Neo Confucianism with a critical eye and suggest new solutions to problems Confucian scholars had been addressing for centuries A Korean Confucian's Advice on How to Be Moral is an annotated translation of Tasan's commentaries on the Confucian classic Zhongyong usually translated as The Doctrine of the Mean in which he applies both Confucianism and Christianity to the question of how to best develop a moral character Written as a dialogue with King Ch'ngjo r 1776-1800 these texts reveal how Tasan interpreted his Confucian tradition particularly its understanding of how human beings could cultivate morality while the king's questions illustrate the mainstream Neo Confucianism Tasan was reacting against Tasan challenged the non-theistic standard insisting that living a moral life is not easy and that we need to be motivated to exert the effort necessary to overcome our selfish tendencies He had abandoned his faith by the time he wrote these commentaries but influenced by Catholic works and determined to find a more effective way to live a moral life than non-theistic Neo Confucianism provided Tasan constructed a Confucian philosophy of moral improvement centered on belief in God This translation helpfully annotated for context and analysis is an exploration of early Korean engagement with the West and a powerful guide to all those interested in Confucianism Christianity and morality The Works of William Perkins, Volume 3 William Perkins, 2017-01-30 This third volume from the Works of William Perkins collection contains Perkins's A Cloud of Faithful Witnesses Leading to the Heavenly Canaan which was his exposition of Hebrews 11 Within Perkins contends that the whole chapter of Hebrews 11 is meant to urge readers to persevere in faith by persuading them of the excellence of faith In his characteristic manner Perkins brings the abiding importance of this message through careful exegesis and perceptive application In an age of cheap faith and easy believism this exposition offers us a way to put our faith to the test to try it against the faith of the great cloud of witnesses and in the end to put it into practice assured that God's mercy will uphold us for life The Complete Works of Thomas Manton, D.D. Thomas Manton, William G. Harris, 1873

The Presumption D. Marvin Jones, 2024-05-02 This powerful book on racism in the United States argues that a threatening narrative originating in slavery continues to link Black people to inferiority dangerousness and crime causing them to be presumed guilty by society and U S legal systems Why are Black people stopped arrested and shot by police at such a high rate Why are they portrayed in the media as gangbangers and urban thugs D Marvin Jones writes that the problem of race lies in the way Blackness has been inextricably knotted together in our culture with presumptions In the era of segregation this was a presumption of inferiority but in our era it is primarily a presumption of dangerousness or criminality In chapters on slavery urban spaces the drug war media portrayals and white spaces he shows how the presumption of guilt continues to shape the treatment of Black people in the United States Arguing that this presumption is not simply a matter of hate on the part of individuals but instead a social process linked to a widely shared racial ideology The Presumption points out the continuation of racial caste in the United States as a crisis for democracy and provides a blueprint for a kind of second Reconstruction

The History of Customs in the Spring and Autumn Period and the Warring States Period Li Shi, The book is the volume of The History of Customs in the Spring and Autumn Period and the Warring States Period among a series of books of Deep into China Histories The earliest known written records of the history of China date from as early as 1250 BC from the Shang dynasty c 1600 1046 BC and the Bamboo Annals 296 BC describe a Xia dynasty c 2070 1600 BC before the Shang but no writing is known from the period The Shang ruled in the Yellow River valley which is commonly held to be the cradle of Chinese civilization However Neolithic civilizations originated at various cultural centers along both the Yellow River and Yangtze River These Yellow River and Yangtze civilizations arose millennia before the Shang With thousands of years of continuous history China is one of the world's oldest civilizations and is regarded as one of the cradles of civilization. The Zhou dynasty (1046-256 BC) supplanted the Shang and introduced the concept of the Mandate of Heaven to justify their rule. The central Zhou government began to weaken due to external and internal pressures in the 8th century BC and the country eventually splintered into smaller states during the Spring and Autumn period. These states became independent and warred with one another in the following Warring States period. Much of traditional Chinese culture, literature, and philosophy first developed during those troubled times. In 221 BC, Qin Shi Huang conquered the various warring states and created for himself the title of Huangdi or emperor of the Qin, marking the beginning of imperial China. However, the oppressive government fell soon after his death and was supplanted by the longer-lived Han dynasty (206 BC-220 AD). Successive dynasties developed bureaucratic systems that enabled the emperor to control vast territories directly. In the 21 centuries from 206 BC until AD 1912, routine administrative tasks were handled by a special elite of scholar-officials. Young men well versed in calligraphy, history, literature, and philosophy were carefully selected through difficult government examinations. China's last dynasty was the Qing (1644-1912), which was replaced by the Republic of China in 1912 and in the mainland by the People's Republic of China in 1949. Chinese history has alternated between periods of political unity and peace and periods of war and failed statehood, the most recent being the Chinese Civil War (1927-1949). China was occasionally dominated by steppe peoples, most of whom were eventually assimilated into the Han Chinese culture and population. Between eras of multiple kingdoms and warlordism, Chinese dynasties have ruled parts or all of China. In some eras, control stretched as far as Xinjiang and Tibet, as at present. Traditional culture and influences from other parts of Asia and the Western world, carried by waves of immigration, cultural assimilation, expansion, and foreign contact, form the basis of the modern culture of China.
