Urban Artscapes Manila Castoro, Carolina Vasilikou, 2018-07-10. In recent years, artists, architects, activists, and curators, as well as corporations and local governments, have addressed the urban space. They challenge its use and destination and dispute current notions of space, legality, trade, and artistry. Emerging art practices challenge old ideas about where art belongs, what forms it can take, and what political discourses it fosters. Selected from papers presented at the 2013 Artscapes conference in Canterbury, this collection of new essays explores the dynamic relationship between art and the city. Contributors discuss the everyday artistic use of public space around the world, from sculpture to graffiti to street photography. Political Graffiti in Critical Times Ricardo Campos, Yiannis Zaimakis, Andrea Pavoni, 2021-02-03. Whether aesthetically or politically inspired, graffiti is among the oldest forms of expression in human history, one that becomes especially significant during periods of social and political upheaval. With a particular focus on the demographic, ecological, and economic crises of today, this volume provides a wide-ranging exploration of urban space and visual protest. Assembling case studies that cover topics such as gentrification in Cyprus, the convulsions of post-independence East Timor, and opposition to Donald Trump in the American capital, it reveals the diverse ways in which street artists challenge existing social orders and reimagine urban landscapes.
