Succession To High Office On Botswana Three Case Studies:

Succession to High Office in Botswana Jack Parson,1990 This book examines the process through which the mantle of leadership passed from one leader to another in Botswana It concerns the succession to high office in Botswana over the course of more than half a century from the colonial time to the present Three case studies explore the relationship between the British colonial authorities and the tribal leaders in affirming the legitimacy of the tribal chiefs of the Bangwato tribe in the former Bechuanaland protectorate The studies examine the succession crises of the Bangwato first in 1925 and again between 1948 to 1953 and the political changes in Botswana up to the last few years Extensive excerpts from the Botswana National Archives contained in the appendices fully support the text Book jacket Local case studies in African land law

Robert Home,2011 The Challenge of Institutionalizing Civilian Control Boubacar N'Diaye,2001-01-01 Assessing three of the most enduring civilian regimes in Africa Botswana Kenya and until the December 1999 coup the Ivory Coast Boubacar N Diaye focuses on the role of civilian regimes in the institutionalization of civilian control The author warns that only government legitimacy and a culture of genuine military professionalism are likely to assure civilian control of the military N Diaye calls for a bold conceptual shift in the study of African civil military relations away from expedient short term coup avoidance Refreshingly his study emphasizes the policies regimes enact instead of the structures of African societies or the personal idiosyncrasies of leaders This book has important implications not only for understanding the causes and outcomes of coups in Africa but also for the study of emerging democracies everywhere Demystifying the Mystery of Capital Robert Home,Hilary Lim,2013-03-04 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Chiefs, Power, and Social Change Olufemi Vaughan,2003 Identifying the institution of chiefship as the focal point of critical discourse on continuity and social change in colonial and postcolonial Botswana this book offers extensive analysis of the values and aspirations of a rapidly changing twentieth century country Underscoring the central role of chiefship structures in Botswana s historical state formation the book also analyses the transformation of the institution in three major areas of Botswana s history including imperialism decolonisation and the nation state project of the postcolonial period Democracy And Socialism In Africa Robin Cohen,2019-03-07 After independence many African countries abjured conventional patterns of political representation and democratic participation in the interest of creating a unified state and promoting economic development Today however the dominant models of one party democracy and African socialism are in terminal collapse as a result of internal pressures a Botswana, 1939-1945 Ashley Jackson,1999 This is the first full study of an African country during the Second World War Unusually it provides both an Africanist and an imperial perspective Using extensive archival and oral evidence Ashley Jackson explores the social economic political agricultural and military history of Botswana He examines Botswana s military contribution to the war effort and the impact of the war on the African home front The book focuses on events and personalities on the ground in Africa and also on their interaction with and impact upon events and personalities in distant imperial centres such as Whitehall and the wartime British Army headquarters in the Middle East The attitudes aims and actions of all levels of colonial society British rulers African chiefs military officials ordinary African men and women are considered producing a total history of an African country at war

The Moral Economy of the State William A. Munro, 1998 The Moral Economy of the State examines state formation in Zimbabwe from the colonial period through the first decade of independence Drawing on the works of Gramsci E P Thompson and James Scott William Munro develops a theory of moral economy that explores negotiations between rural citizens and state agents over legitimate state incursions in social life This analysis demonstrates how states try to shape the meanings of citizenship for agrarian populations by redefining conceptions of the public good property rights and community membership The book's focus on the moral economy of the state offers a refreshing perspective on the difficulties experienced by postcolonial African states in building stronger state and rural institutions

Party Systems and Democracy in Africa R. Doorenspleet, L. Nijzink, 2014-12-02 Do party systems help or hinder democracy in Africa Drawing lessons from different types of party systems in six African countries this volume shows that party systems affect democracy in Africa in ways that are unexpectedly different from the relation between party systems and democracy observed elsewhere

Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon

Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history. Unprecedented in scale, DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa, from Sierra Leone to Somalia. It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt (1490-1468 BC) and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage (243-183 BC) to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana (1909-1972), Miriam Makeba, and Nelson Mandela of South Africa (1918).

The Societies of Southern Africa in the 19th and 20th Centuries University of London. Institute of Commonwealth Studies, 1990

Peasants in Arms Lynn Horton, 1998 Drawing on the testimonies of local people from contra collaborators and ex-combatants to pro-Sandinista peasants, this dynamic account of a generation of rural instability explores the growing divisions between the peasants who took up arms in defense of revolutionary programs and ideals such as land reform and equality and those who opposed the Sandinistas.

Echoes of the Sunbird Donald Burness, 1993 This volume presents a broad overview of the work of seven of Africa's leading poets with an introductory essay written by each poet. The poems concern political, personal, and social themes and are written with aesthetic simplicity and lyricism.

Africa Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow Nathan Andrews, 2013-02-14 From a multi-dimensional and interdisciplinary standpoint, this book challenges the teleological and unidirectional notions of development embodied in the idea of modernisation or progress and offers a critique of the tendency to consider Africa as a basket case which often gives the Western self an undeserving privilege and superiority over the African other. Mostly authored by emerging African scholars, this 16-chapter volume addresses the historical application of development projects in Africa and their modern impact in economic, political, cultural, social, and infrastructural contexts among others. The book therefore unearths development dynamics in specific African countries, examines the continent's external relations, rethinks predominant ideas on development, and engages in critical examination of concepts and practices that have maintained hegemonic positions in the discussions on Africa's development. Its uniqueness lies in the ability to bring these several voices and themes together into a concise conception of both the challenges and possibilities of Africa's sustainable development. The book targets both the academic and policy worlds in Africa and around the world as well as ordinary members of the public who seek to broaden their theoretical and empirical understanding on the changing dynamics on the African continent.

Imagining Indonesia James William Schiller, 1997 Increased interest in Indonesian culture and politics is reflected in this work's effort to advance and reject various notions of what it means to be Indonesian. It also addresses perceptions of how Indonesia's citizens and state officials should interact. Because in recent times the Indonesian state has been so strong, much of the book is about state-sanctioned and state-supported notions of Indonesian identity and culture and efforts to come to terms with or sometimes to challenge these official or dominant notions. The contributions presented here represent a wide range of disciplines, points of view, and ideological orientations. Taken together, they convey the notion that much might be gained if the idea were abandoned that a single understanding of what constitutes Indonesian culture is possible or desirable.

Mariátegui and Latin American Marxist Theory Marc Becker, 1993 Jos Carlos Mari tegui the Peruvian political theorist of the 1920s was instrumental in developing an indigenous Latin American revolutionary Marxist theory He rejected a rigid orthodox interpretation of Marxism and applied his own creative elements which he believed could move a society to revolutionary action without the society having to depend upon more traditional economic factors His interpretation of Peruvian history had a profound effect upon subsequent social movements throughout Latin America This volume reviews the essential elements of Mari tegui s thought and important influences on his intellectual development It demonstrates the role he played in defining a Latin american identity the nature of his intellectual contribution to the development of indigenous revolutionary movements in Latin America and the influence he had on successful revolutionary movements in Cuba and Nicaragua An understanding of Mari tegui s thought is fundamental to understanding the nature of revolutionary changes in Latin America

Memoirs of an Indo Woman Marguérite Schenkhuizen, 1994 The memoirs of Margu rite Schenkhuizen provide an overview of practically the whole of the twentieth century as experienced by persons of mixed Dutch and Indonesian ancestry who lived in the former Dutch East Indies The memoirs provide vignettes of Indonesian life both rural and urban as seen through the eyes of the author first as a girl then as a wife separated from her husband during the Japanese occupation finally as an immigrant to the United States after World War II This self portrait gives glimpses of the life of Indos from inside their society glimpses that are valuable for their descendents as well as for outsiders Written with humor and a positive town Schenkhuizen s story sets aside the myth that Indos were denied access to the upper layers of Dutch colonial society or were otherwise disadvantaged Instead her life story provides an authentic view of a vital Indo culture and experience that has been unavailable to the general reader of English

Bibliographie Internationale de Science Politique , 1990 Beyond the Archipelago Muhammad Haji Salleh, 1995 A collections of 70 poems from one of Malaya s leading poets that depict longing loneliness modernization and insights in Malaysian culture
