Sudan The Paving Of Time:

Sudan Abdel Salam Sidahmed, Alsir Sidahmed, 2004-11-10 Stretching between the savannah and the equator Sudan is a microcosm of Africa with one leg in the Arab world and the other in Africa Sudan's development however has failed to address the differences within the country between its diverse ethnic communities This has resulted in political instability and a lack of national consensus ultimately leading to long term civil war This useful book provides a comprehensive introduction to contemporary Sudan outlining the evolution of the state with emphasis on its post independence experience It includes chapters on the history politics society international relations and economy of the country Sudan, a Country

Study Harold D. Nelson, 1982 General study of Sudan covers history demographic aspects and geographical aspects ethnic groups social structure religious practice education health the economy agricultural sector industrial sector infrastructure trade government politics international relations defence military service etc Bibliography glossary maps organigram photographs statistical tables Sudan's Nuba Mountains People Under Siege Samuel Totten, 2017-05-15 This collection of first person accounts chronicles the experiences of 12 humanitarians who entered Sudan illegally to variously provide food medical care and spiritual support to the besieged people of the Nuba Mountains A diverse group of men and women of various ages professions and religious beliefs the chroniclers describe in detail the tragedies of the current war in the state of South Kordofan their own close calls with death and why they are committed to helping a little known group of people Nuba civilians as the United Nations the African Union and all nongovernmental organizations are forbidden from crossing the border Sudan Paul Clammer, 2009 The only English language guidebook dedicated to Sudan with full coverage of the country's newly accessible south Sudan Tony Barnett, Abbas Abdelkarim, 2016-10-04 By the mid 1980s Sudan's economy society and political framework were on the point of disintegration Civil war was exacerbating the effects of an already major famine An unpopular government was resorting to ever more extreme measures in order to remain in power The imposition of a particularly oppressive and harsh interpretation of sharia law was heightening racial and religious tensions Internationally Sudan was faced by a debt crisis which was apparently insoluble and which threatened to undermine completely what was left of the economy This book first published in 1988 examines the complex economic and social processes which led to this situation emphasising the part played by the state itself The book combines detailed multi disciplinary analyses of Sudan in the post colonial era with a consideration of possibilities for the future Navigating

Imperial Culture and the Sudan Lia Paradis, 2020-05-14 General Gordon's death in the Sudan marks the height of imperial cultural fever Even in the late nineteen seventies the themes of Khartoum were still the basis for children's stories comic books and depictions of masculinity Imperial Culture in the Sudan seeks to examine the cultural impact of Sudan on the popular image of the British empire why were these colonial administrators characterized as adventurers Why was Sudan and the story of General Gordon so popular The author argues it coincided with the mass production of popular journalism the height of Jingoism as a cultural product and therefore a study of Sudan's experience tells us a lot about the British Empire how it was made consumed and remembered

Integration and Fragmentation of the Sudan: an African Renaissance Mawut Achiecque Mach Guarak, 2011-02-21 The most comprehensive profound and accurate book ever written in the history of modern Sudan Integration and Fragmentation of the Sudan An African Renaissance is an encyclopedia of ancient and modern history as well as the politics of Sudan It is a library of data that discusses Sudan from its economic political and social standpoint since the Arab discovery and use of the term Bilad es Sudan up through the modern republic of the Sudan after which South and North Sudan collided in 1947 Although written to correct fabrications this book is a foundation on which future Sudans shall live on It is full of useful information that discusses and provides feasible solutions to the fundamental problem of the Sudan that ruptured the country from the Berlin Conference to the post independence era For centuries Sudanese and the international community have been fed with idealistic information as if Sudan started with the coming of the Arabs in the fourteenth century This persisted due to the lack of resources and formal education among African natives Khartoums unreasonable diversion of genuine history is one among the many causes of mistrust and division in Sudan The indigenous Africans found themselves peripheral to Khartoum where economic and political power is concentrated Integration and fragmentation of Sudan An African Renaissance is a great source of knowledge for the public and students of Sudanese politics With the referendum and popular consultation approaching this book is a head start for the marginalized Black Africans to make an informed decision between oppression and liberty Examples and testimonies provided in the text are reasons for the affected regions to permanently determine their future For freedom diehards this book lays the foundation on which to celebrate the birth of Africas newest sovereign nation along the Nile River The First Sudanese Civil War S. Poggo,2008-12-22 This book is a comprehensive investigation discussion and analysis of the origins and development of the first civil war in the Sudan which occurred between 1955 and1972 It was the culmination of ethnic racial cultural religious political and economic problems that had faced the Sudan since the Turco Egyptian conquest of the country in 1821 The hostilities between the Northern and Southern regions of the Sudan also involved foreign powers that had their own geopolitical interests in the country The first Sudanese civil war is a classic example of intra regional and inter regional conflicts in Africa in the 20th century Routledge Library Editions: Sudan Various Authors,2021-03-11 This 5 volume set brings together research into the Sudan works both modern and classic Two works examine the Sudan of the late nineteenth century a time when Anglo Egyptian domination was enforced on the country two works detail the Sudan of the twentieth century looking at its politics economy and society and a last work traces the roots of modern Sudan through the historic tribes of the region Gender, Race, and Sudan's Exile Politics Nada Mustafa Ali,2015-07-29 Gender Race and Sudan s Exile Politics examines the gendered and racialized discourses and practices of the Sudanese opposition in exile through the opposition movements of the 1990s and early 2000s and discusses the history through which these discourses evolved The military coup that brought the National Islamic Front NIF now National Congress Party NCP to power in 1989 not only forced most political parties trade unions and activists in Sudan into either exile politics or underground activism it also urged many of Sudan s political forces and activists to rethink the meaning of belonging and of the Old Sudan In the mid 1990s this involved a rethinking of the relationship between religion and politics acknowledging Sudan s diversity acknowledging the need to restructure Sudan s economy and politics to ensure equal access and participation for the historically marginalized and committing to self determination for the people of South Sudan The concept of the New Sudan broadly captured this rethinking This book interrogates the relationship between women s organizations and activism in exile on one hand and nationalist transformative and other political movements and processes on the other It further discusses transnational coalition building across difference including racial difference between women s organization seeking to transform gender relations in Sudan and South Sudan Waging Peace in Sudan Hilde F. Johnson,2011 Sudan could soon witness one of the first partitions of an African state since the colonial era The 2005 Comprehensive Peace Agreement guarantees a referendum on self determination for Southern Sudan which is scheduled for January 2011 that ended a 20 year old civil war This book shows how that war was finally brought to an end

Hip Hop and Political Voice for Young South Sudanese Australians Sarah J. Williams,2025-02-11 Hip Hop and Political Voice for Young South Sudanese Australians Born to Stand Out explores the building of political voice of young South Sudanese Australians to resist racialising discourses particularly through hip hop Presented as an ethnography Sarah J Williams draws on empirical evidence from a youth participatory action research project facilitated by a small nonprofit organisation Footprints Each chapter foregrounds counter narratives young South Sudanese Australian hip hop artists portray in response to over a decade of media and moral panics targeting their communities limiting their sense of freedom and resulting in a rise in youth suicide The core message throughout suggests participants reject any goal of or focus on fitting in Instead based on their conviction that they are born to stand out these activists carve out space in the face of racialising discourses perpetuated primarily by Australian Whiteness Through the lenses of new social movements and theories and perspectives informed by critical race theory and critical Hip Hop pedagogy this book expands race and ethnicity as a central theme by exploring how the political voice of this group of young South Sudanese Australians manifests in important new ways that conventional theories of activism and resistance may not capture Participants embark on consciousness raising practices to reframe and assert their multiple identities whilst establishing themselves as social agents in the world

To Be or Not To Be: Sudan at Crossroads Jalal Hashim,2019-02-19 To be or not to be is an analysis of linguistic cultural political economic and social factors which explain the intricate root causes of conflicts which have ravished Sudan It stands in stark contrast to the dominant simplification and distortions which have come to typify presentations of the region Central to the book is an unapologetic explanation of Arabization which often is portrayed as individual choices of religious loyalty but in fact masks an intentional power system which viciously corrupts Afrikan identities By highlighting the detrimental complexities of manipulation geopolitics identity confusion and cultural imperialism Hashim has not only written an authoritative book about Sudan but also presented a comprehensive case study that all of Afrika must learn from Rarely are we presented with such a vigorous inside view to an area of Afrika which once was held in the highest civilizational esteem but has been reduced to an ideological field of Arab led terror massacres and disintegration
