Sudden Awakening Into Direct Realization:

Sudden Awakening Eli Jaxon-Bear, 2012-08 Everyone wants to be happy This is a universal component of the human condition and may seem so self evident that it does not bear noting So why is it that so few people are truly happy If it is true that our nature is happiness and bliss why has it been so rare for people to realize this Why has it been so rare for people to live their lives in gratitude and love There is a living intelligence in all people that seeks ultimately to discover its true identity and source It is a fortunate and mysterious moment when the desire for happiness leads to the investigation into personal identity also known as self inquiry In the light of direct self inquiry limitations that once seemed to define oneself are discovered to be more like transparent lines drawn on water They exist only on the surface of consciousness in one s imagination When these illusions of mind are clearly exposed true limitless being reveals itself Front flap

Numinous Awareness Is Never Dark , 2016-10-31 Numinous Awareness Is Never Dark examines the issue of whether enlightenment in Zen Buddhism is sudden or gradual that is something intrinsic to the mind that is achieved in a sudden flash of insight or something extrinsic to it that must be developed through a sequential series of practices This sudden gradual issue was one of the crucial debates that helped forge the Zen school in East Asia and the Korean Zen master Chinul s 1158 1210 magnum opus Excerpts offers one of the most thorough treatments of it in all of premodern Buddhist literature According to Chinul s analysis enlightenment is both sudden and gradual Zen practice must begin with a sudden awakening to the numinous awareness the sentience or buddha nature that is inherent in all sentient beings Such an awareness does not need to be developed but must simply be recognized or better re cognized through the unmediated experience of insight Even after this initial awakening however deeply engrained proclivities of thought and conduct may continue to disturb the practitioner these can only be removed gradually as his or her practice matures Chinul s sudden awakening gradual cultivation soteriology became emblematic of the Buddhist tradition in Korea Excerpts translated here in its entirety by the preeminent Western specialist in the Korean Buddhist tradition goes on to examine Chinul s treatments of many of the quintessential practices of Zen Buddhism including nonconceptualization or no thought and the

concurrent development of meditation and wisdom as well as for the first time in Korean Zen examining meditative topics kanhwa S n what we in the West know better as k ans after its later Japanese analogues Fitting this new technique into his preferred soteriological schema of sudden awakening gradual cultivation was no simple task for Chinul Numinous Awareness Is Never Dark offers an extensive study of the contours of the sudden gradual debate in Buddhist thought and practice and traces the influence of Chinul s analysis of this issue throughout the history of the Korean tradition Copiously annotated the work contains extensive selections from the two traditional Korean commentaries to the text In Buswell s treatment Chinul s Excerpts emerges as the single most influential work written by a Korean Buddhist author Within the Space of the Moment Espen Vidar,2012-06-29 Simon Mollat woke up in the dunes of Arambol Beach Goa India with an agonizing hangover The year was 2000 and the apocalypse was still a figment of collective imagination the millennium celebration had lasted Simon for four consecutive months A more enlightened soul would have enjoyed the sunrise but not Simon He was being pissed on by a stray dog and somewhere in the back of his mind Pink Floyd wandered in and around his aching head Is there anybody out there Once he had been a promising young man from the land of the midnight sun Current status Man on the lam suffering from depression and aimlessness a stray dog s pissing post His thoughts turned to the stones he d stuffed in his pocket during the night the boat he could easily borrow that could take him away far into the water He would slip out of the boat and dive downward and away from all of his suffering Something intervened and took Simon out of his suicidal head and the recurring Pink Floyd soundtrack it was something itchy and stuffed in the neck opening of his t shirt It was a balled up piece of paper with the photograph of a withered Indian man and a message that read Freedom from this me and signed by someone named Raman Kavalam It smelled of incense and made Simon think of sects robes and cultist brainwashing Simon was by no means a religious person he didn t even believe in God But something compelled him forward to seek out this Raman Kavalam something much larger than himself And so begins the odyssey of Simon Mollat s spiritual awakening Within the Space of the Moment takes readers on an unforgettable journey from despair and outer pleasure to inner peace and the feeling of being intensely alive If there is any formula at all to discovering the truth of who you are it lies in the distinction between an occupied mind and a still or clear one Searching for the Self Dalai Lama XIV Bstan- dzin-rgya-mtsho,Dalai Lama,Thubten Chodron,2022-05-17 The view of absolutism superimposes false ways of existence whereas the nihilistic view negates what does in fact exist Chapter 10 looks more closely at the extreme of absolutism as this is the view that we ordinary sentient beings usually cling to Chapter 11 speaks of the two extremes as presented in the P li tradition and the three characteristics of impermanence du kha and not self that counter the absolutist views Chapter 12 goes into some of the many arguments presented in the P li tradition that help to overcome clinging to a false notion of the I Although the arguments to support selflessness in the Sanskrit tradition are expounded in the next volume of the Library of Wisdom and Compassion readers who are already familiar with these will see the similarities with arguments found in the P li s tras

Buddhist Faith and Sudden Enlightenment Sung-bae Park, 1983-01-01 Buddhist Faith and Sudden Enlightenment explains how sudden enlightenment occurs through the awakening of patriarchal faith This is the non dual affirmation that one is already Buddha as opposed to the doctrinal dualistic faith that one can become Buddha The essence of the presentation is that patriarchal faith forms the basis for sudden enlightenment in Zen meditation For the practitioner this book establishes the Zen method of mind cultivation on a higher level by introducing a new understanding of awakening right faith Included is extensive material on the history of faith in Buddhism with the main attention devoted to Ch'an Zen and Hua yen There are also substantial discussions of Buddhist antecedents to these schools and of the Pure Land School This is the first book in English to examine the central role of faith in Mahayana Buddhism The author's approach develops from his personal experiences as a son Zen monk of the Chogye order which was heavily influenced by the integration of meditation and scriptural study established by Chinul

The Gift of Logos David Jones, Michael Schwartz, Jason M. Wirth, 2009-12-14 The Continental tradition has always placed great emphasis on the Logos The Gift of Logos Essays in Continental Philosophy celebrates and situates this emphasis in the genre of the gift and its giving The process of receiving or giving of the gift overcomes the existential alienation and separation that is so present in the human condition To ritualize giving and its gifting is to provide a syntax of solidarity that bespeaks our desire for cohesion and need for identities beyond our own To give a gift is to befriend The gift of logos is more than a gift from the gods and goddesses it is an act of giving for those friends of wisdom for those philosophers who give to each other and to their worlds and receive the blessings of logos from each other The increasing objectification of human being has mobilized a regressive narcissism that shows the ego's reassertion in the light of the meaningless quantifying forces from without By not reflecting deeply enough upon its conditions of existence in the modern world and on its ordinary moments philosophy itself has not been immune from this besotted sense of self Although not an invective against thinking nor against modern and contemporary philosophy's genuine advances The Gift of Logos portends to shed the delusion that theoretical re-description is somehow the same as transforming who we are This transformation is our greatest gift to each other To give it voice is the gift of Logos and what this collection of essays commemorates

A Handbook of Korean Zen Practice John Jorgensen, Sosan Taesa, 2015-02-28 Sŏn Japanese Zen has been the dominant form of Buddhism in Korea from medieval times to the present A Handbook of Korean Zen Practice A Mirror on the Sŏn School of Buddhism Sŏn ga kwigam was the most popular guide for Sŏn practice and life ever published in Korea and helped restore Buddhism to popularity after its lowest point in Korean history It was compiled before 1569 by Ssan Hyujng 1520-1604 later famed as the leader of a monk army that helped defend Korea against a massive Japanese invasion in 1592. In addition to succinct quotations from sutras the text also contained quotations from selected Chinese and Korean works together with Hyujng's explanations. Because of its brevity and organization the work proved popular and was reprinted many times in Korea and Japan before 1909. A Handbook of Korean Zen Practice commences with the ineffability of the enlightened state and after a tour through doctrine and practice it returns to its starting point. The doctrinal rationale for practice that leads to enlightenment is based on the Mahayana Awakening of Faith but the practice Hyujng enjoins readers to undertake is very different a method of meditation derived from the kongan. Japanese koan called hwadu Chinese huatou or point of the story the story being the kongan. This method was developed by Dahui Zonggao 1089-1163 and was imported into Korea by Chinul 1158-1210. The most famous hwadu is the mu no answer by Zhaozhou to the question Does a dog have a buddha nature. Hyujng warns of pitfalls in this practice such as the delusion that one is already enlightened. A proper understanding of doctrine is required before practicing hwadu. Practice also requires faith and an experienced teacher. Hyujng outlines the specifics of practice such as rules of conduct and chanting and mindfulness of the Buddha and stresses the requirements for living the life of a monk. At the end of the text he returns to the hwadu the need for a teacher and hence the importance of lineage. He sketches out the distinctive methods of practice of the chief Sŏn Chinese Chan lineages. His final warning is not to be attached to the text. The version of the text translated here is the earliest and the longest extant. It was translated into Korean from Chinese by one of Hyujng's students to aid Korean readers. The present volume contains a brief history of hwadu practice and theory a life of Hyujng and a summary of the text plus a detailed annotated translation. It should be of interest to practitioners of meditation and students of East Asian Buddhism and Korean history.

Mind Seeing Mind Roger R. Jackson, 2019-10-29. A definitive study of one of the most important practices in Tibetan Buddhism with translations of a number of its key texts. Mahamudra the great seal refers to the ultimate nature of mind and reality to a meditative practice for realizing that ultimate reality and to the final fruition of buddhahood. It is especially prominent in the Kagy tradition of Tibetan Buddhism so it sometimes comes as a surprise that mahamudra has played an important role in the Geluk school where it is part of a special transmission received in a vision by the tradition's founder Tsongkhapa. Mahamudra is a significant component of Geluk ritual and meditative life widely studied and taught by contemporary masters such as the Dalai Lama. Roger Jackson's Mind Seeing Mind offers us both a definitive scholarly study of the history texts and doctrines of Geluk mahamudra and masterful translations of its seminal texts. It provides a skillful survey of the Indian sources of the teaching illuminates the place of mahamudra among Tibetan Buddhist schools and details the history and major textual sources of Geluk mahamudra. Jackson also addresses critical questions such as the relation between Geluk and Kagy mahamudra and places mahamudra in the context of contemporary religious studies. The translation portion of Mind Seeing Mind includes ten texts on mahamudra history ritual and practice. Among these are the First Panchen Lama's root verses and autocommentary on mahamudra meditation his ritual masterpiece Offering to the Guru and a selection of his songs of spiritual experience Mind Seeing Mind adds considerably to our understanding of Tibetan Buddhist spirituality and shows how mahamudra came to be woven throughout the fabric of the Geluk tradition

Reimagining Chan Buddhism Jimmy Yu, 2021-11-14 This book is the first socio intellectual history of the Dharma Drum Lineage of Chan Zen a new lineage of Buddhism founded by the late Chinese Buddhist cleric Sheng Yen 1931-2009 arguably one of the most influential Chan masters in contemporary times The book challenges the received academic and popular image of Chan Buddhism as a meditation school that bypasses scriptural learning Using Sheng Yen's doctrinal classification Chn panjiao chart as an example the book shows Sheng Yen's Chan as a synthesis of both Indian and Chinese premodern forms of Buddhism and as the summum bonum of Han transmission of Chinese Buddhism Chn Hanchuan fojiao The book demonstrates how Sheng Yen's presentation of Chan was intimately related to the volatile social and political realities of his life the Communist takeover of China and the subsequent industrial boom that impacted Taiwanese society In short this book presents a historically and culturally embodied approach to the formation of Buddhist doctrine and practice Drawing on the works of postcolonial theories that integrate the role of the researcher into the research the book also offers a more integrated approach between emic and etic insider and outsider perspectives to research Advancing the field of Buddhist studies the book will be of interest to scholars of Buddhism in the modern period twentieth century religious history of China and Taiwan Chan Zen studies World Religions Asian civilizations and Modern Biographies

The Mystique of Transmission Wendi L. Adamek, 2007-05-15 The Mystique of Transmission is a close reading of a late eighth century Chan Zen Buddhist hagiographical work the Lidai fabao ji Record of the Dharma Jewel Through the Generations and is its first English translation The text is the only remaining relic of the little known Bao Tang Chan school of Sichuan and combines a sectarian history of Buddhism and Chan in China with an account of the eighth century Chan master Wuzhu in Sichuan Chinese religions scholar Wendi Adamek compares the Lidai fabao ji with other sources from the fourth through eighth centuries chronicling changes in the doctrines and practices involved in transmitting medieval Chinese Buddhist teachings While Adamek is concerned with familiar Chan themes like patriarchal genealogies and the ideology of sudden enlightenment she also highlights topics that make Lidai fabao ji distinctive formless practice the inclusion of female practitioners the influence of Daoist metaphysics and connections with early Tibetan Buddhism The Lidai fabao ji was unearthed in the early twentieth century in the Mogao caves at the Silk Road oasis of Dunhuang in northwestern China Discovery of the Dunhuang manuscripts has been compared with the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls as these documents have radically changed our understanding of medieval China and Buddhism A crucial volume for students and scholars The Mystique of Transmission offers a rare glimpse of a lost world and fills an important gap in the timeline of Chinese and Buddhist history
