Sudden View A Travellers Tale From Mexico:

Visions of Paradise Robert Stephen Haskett, 2005 Cuernavaca often called the Mexican Paradise or Land of Eternal Spring has a deep rich history Few visitors to this modern resort city near Mexico City would guess from its Spanish architecture and landmarks that it was governed by its Tlalhuican residents until the early nineteenth century Formerly called Cuauhnahuac the city was renamed by the Spanish in the sixteenth century when Hernando Cort s built his stone palacio on its main square and thrust Cuernavaca into the colonial age In Visions of Paradise Robert Haskett presents a history of Cuernavaca basing his account on an important body of late seventeenth century historical records known as primordial titles written by still unknown members of the Native population Until comparatively recently these indigenous language documents have been dismissed as false or forged land records Haskett however uses these Nahuatl texts to present a colorful portrait of how the Tlalhuicas of Cuernavaca and its environs made intellectual sense of their place in the colonial scheme conceived of their relationship to the sacred worlds of both their native religion and Christianity and defined their own history Surveying the local history of Cuernavaca from precontact observations by the Aztecs through postclassic times to the present with a concentration on early colonial times Haskett finds that the Native authors of the primordial titles crafted a celebratory history proclaiming themselves to be an enduringly autonomous essentially unconquered people who triumphed over the rigors of the Spanish colonial system The Sudden View Sybille Bedford, 1963 Paperbound Books in Print, 1983 Doors to Latin America, 1963 The Book Buyer's Guide, 1963 Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake, 2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas Italy Northwest Passage Samarkand Silk Route Timbuktu writers Isabella Bird Ibn Battuta Bruce Chatwin Gustave Flaubert Mary Kingsley Walter Raleigh Wilfrid Thesiger methods of transport and types of journey balloon camel grand tour hunting and big game expeditions pilgrimage space travel and exploration genres buccaneer narratives guidebooks New World chronicles postcards companies and societies East India Company Royal Geographical Society Society of Dilettanti and issues and themes censorship exile orientalism and tourism For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Literature of Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia website Bulletin from Virginia Kirkus' Service Kirkus Service, 1963 The Reader's Adviser Winifred F.
