I a butterfly I have transformed since Gone are the days of naive belief that stability was inevitable Realization has hardened my skin and sharpened my senses I strike back now I understand aggression and the need to strike without hesitation I know pain and welcome it now if only to sand down the sharp relief of my previous oppression I do not fear for the dimensions of me anymore for through discipline they have become clear and I am chagrined at my previous self underestimation As well for someone who was born immortal I have been ignorant to the impact a short amount of time layered with a crippling amount of incident can have on a being Our days are numbered or so I believe and our future unsure This is my second journal and with each page my heart jumps from hope to havoc We are but three women now alone in the wilderness of my home Zembeth constantly staring at the sky consistently dodging shadows at risk from above and below It is an unkind maze of things that would consume us Myself Britt and Sara started off into the Shalnes forest with little more than three horses and a few swords We were running from heart break We were fleeing for our lives We have since overturned the world I shall not promise a happy ending I shall only give my word as the former Princess of Zembeth that I will do my duty and continue to document these days of rain and bloodshed of violent dreams and harbingers of war and revolution I will light you the way of our dark journey with these my words Meriden of Fairfax Outlaw of Zembeth Crispin ,1924 New York ,1996

Tales of a Silver-Haired Volunteer Carole Howard,2016-06-10 When she retired Carole Howard took a surprising some might call it radical giant step out of her comfort zone With little idea of what to expect she overcame her usual risk aversion and volunteered with her husband to be management consultants for a non profit in Senegal West Africa The experience was so life affirming they did it again the following year in Uganda And then three more times after that in Namibia Thailand and Ghana each time for two months Her adventure was simultaneously an outward journey of miles and cultures and an inward journey of small victories and self discovery While she knew she couldn t save the world she found that doing one thing for one person or organization in one place is the next best thing TALES OF A SILVER HAIRE
