unconsciously before or after death The beginning and end of all beings is the same difference only existing during the journey There are three ways in man s journey towards God The first is the way of ignorance through which each must travel It is like a person walking for miles in the sun while carrying a heavy load on his shoulder who when fatigued throws away the load and falls asleep under the shade of a tree Such is the condition of the average person who spends his life blindly under the influence of his senses and gathers the load of his evil actions the agonies of his earthly longings creating a hell through which he must pass to reach the destination of his journey With regard to him the Qur an says He who is blind in life shall also be blind in the hereafter The next way is that of devotion which is for true lovers Rumi says Man may be the lover of man or the lover of God after his perfection in either he is taken before the King of love Devotion is the heavenly wine which intoxicates the devotee until his heart becomes purified from all infirmities and there remains the happy vision of the Beloved which lasts to the end of the journey Death is a bridge which unites friend to friend Sayings of Mohammed The third is the way of wisdom accomplished only by the few The disciple disregards life s momentary comforts unties himself from all earthly bondages and turns his eyes toward God inspired with divine wisdom He gains command over his body his thoughts and feelings and is thereby enabled to create his own heaven within himself that he may rejoice until merged into the eternal goal We have stripped the veil from thine eyes and thy sight today is keen says the Qur an All must journey along one of these three paths but in the end they arrive at one and the same goal As it is said in the Qur an It is He who multiplied you on the earth and to Him you shall be gathered
