Tales of a Modern Sufi

Nevit O. Ergin,2009-02-12 A collection of modern Sufi tales by renowned Rumi translator and Sufi initiate Nevit Ergin Contains 24 deceptively simple stories that invoke questioning and awareness By the renowned English translator of Rumi s complete Divan i Kebir Sufi stories have traditionally been a means of opening a portal that allows us to advance from our basic perceptions into states of extraordinary awareness This collection of deceptively simple stories by renowned Rumi translator and Sufi Nevit Ergin has the ability to remove readers complacent sense of self and identity and to expand their ordinary awareness of reality from every possible direction In his stories the primrose path we travel suddenly turns into a trickster s hall of mirrors where we learn that we are not children of Adam and Eve so much as children of our perceptions The protagonists and antagonists of these stories are constantly morphing and exchanging places They exist in a world where individuals are stalked by a cricket that is an invisible monster with the face of a demon confront the ambiguous burden of ridding oneself of one s own corpse and discover the invisible fence of reality existing in the layers of a discarded piece of art The symbols in these stories are booby traps designed to release the mind from the sense of its own importance and awaken the realization that if you refuse to be born you cannot die Blind faith the author says has proved itself incapable of producing wisdom tolerance or world peace This is because the answers to humanity's problems lie beyond our ordinary perception and require love and ecstasy to be made visible. Our thirst for wisdom and understanding must go to the fountain of universal truth. These stories provide water from that fountain.

Since My Last Confession Scott Pomfret, 2012-01-12 Scott Pomfret serves as a lector at St Anthony Shrine in Boston. He also writes gay porn. His boyfriend is a flaming atheist and his boyfriend's Protestant grandmother considers Catholicism a sin worse than sodomy. From Pentecost to Pride from the books of the Bible to the articles of the Advocate Pomfret's wry hysterically funny memoir maps with matchless humor the full spectrum of the gay Catholic experience. The Sufi Way to Self-unfoldment Fadhlalla Haeri, 1987 Journey to the End of Islam Michael Muhammad Knight, 2009-12-10 In Journey to the End of Islam Michael Muhammad Knight whose work has led to him being hailed as both the Jack Kerouac and Hunter S Thompson of American Islam wanders through Muslim countries navigating between conflicting visions of his religion. Visiting holy sites in Pakistan, Syria, Egypt, and Ethiopia Knight engages both the puritanical Islam promoted by Saudi globalization and the heretical strands of popular folk Islam, shrines, magic, music, and drugs. The conflict of global and local Islam speaks to Knight's own experience approaching the Islamic world as a uniquely American Muslim with his own sources, the modern mythologies of the Nation of Islam and Five Percenters, as well as the arguments of Progressive Muslim thinkers for feminism and reform. Knight's travels conclude at Islam's spiritual center, the holy city of Mecca, where he performs the hajj required of every Muslim. During the rites of pilgrimage he watches as all variations of Islam converge in one place under the supervision of Saudi Arabia's religious police. What results is a struggle to separate the spiritual from the political. Knight searching for a personal relationship to Islam in the context of how it's defined by the external world. Worldly Spirits, Extra-Human Dimensions, and the Global Anglophone Novel Hilary Thompson, 2023-12-28 Engaging a diverse range of contemporary anglophone literature from authors of the Asian, Middle Eastern, and Caribbean diasporas, this book explores how such works turn to spirit forces, spirit realms, and spirit beings: were animals, mystical birds, and snake goddesses as positive forces that assert perceptual dimensions beyond those of the human and present a vision of Earth as agentive and animate. With previous scholarship downplaying these aspects of modern works as uncanny hauntings or symptoms of capitalism's or anthropocentrism's destructiveness or within a blanket rubric of magical realism, Hilary Thompson rejects this partitioning of them as products of an exotic East or global South. By contrast, this book builds a new critical framework for analysis of worldly spirits, drawing on anthropological discussions of animism, the newly recovered 1930s boundary-crossing art movement Dimensionism, and multispecies theories of animals, diverse perceptual worlds. Taking stock of novels published from 2018-2020 by such writers as Amitav Ghosh, Andr Alexis Yangsze Choo, Azareen Van der Vliet Oloomi, Zeyn Joukhadar, and Tanya Tagaq, Thompson illuminates how these works extend an ecological call to decentre the human and align with multidimensional theories of art and literature to provide ways to read for rather than reduce the extra-human dimensions emerging in contemporary fiction. A refreshing rejection of ecological apocalypticism, this book unsettles typical conceptualizations of both anglophone and Anthropocene literatures by invoking European art theory philosophy and non Western ideas on animism and spirits to put forward perceptions of the extra human as a form of dealing with the many uncertainties of today s different crises      Straight to Freedom Osho,1977      My Master's Voice R.
